ATHENA, ORE., AUG. 8 .....1913

If Huerta's government was worthy of recognition, why didn't the Taft administration recognize it? The republican organs, including the Oregonian have suddenly sprung a spontaneous desire for recognition of the Mexican murderer and his arsenalized official gang whom the recently deposed ambassador refers to as the Mexican government. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, from appearances, fail to see any semblance of government in Mexico at the present time. In view of the fact that dollar diplomacy is not in favor with the present administration, no government is to be recognized in Mexico until there is a government to recognize. Which from the President's view will be along about October 26, when the presidential election is held in Mexico, when the people will have a chance to vote on who shall govern them.

Banks in 59 cities, including Portland, Seattle and Spokane are to be made depositories for $50,000,000 of government funds, if needed to move the crops now being harvested in the South, West and on the Pacific slope. This is the MeAdoo way of taking the reins out of the hands of Wall street to avert the stereotyped financial stringency that is annually expected for certain purposes, in the interest of certain interests—along about crop-moving time. Some different from the old way, isn't it. The way that some years ago compelled the Governor of Oregon to stand in the breach and declare holidays for a month in order to keep the banks open. Well, well, one by one, those little splitters of the Democratic platform nailed at Baltimore, are beginning to stick around where they will do the most good.

Atly intored republican news organs are lamenting that Bryan and McReynolds are members of the Wilson cabinet. Inference is made that aside from these two, Wilson has a very respectable official family. Come to think of it, these dead issue sheets are not "batting in" in the least. Since the party they represented looked itself out at Chicago, they have had a mess of a time in fighting something to train their artillery on. Bryan is used to it and through the venomous attacks may be depended upon to saw wood, while McReynolds may be depended upon to weather the concerted grunting he is receiving from these organs without a yawn.

So the Mexican ambassador is down and out—or will be totally, October 16. If his talkative tongue wiggled in Mexico as much as it did after arrival in the States it's a wonder that he lasted as long as he did in official life. A few moneycrats and one or two hold-over scoundrels on the foreign relations committee in congress coincided with his Huerta recognition plans. But President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have a plan that beats the talkative ambassador's all to flinders. Hence the "skeetering" of the ambassador.

It seems quite natural for some to worry about Japan. They fear she will force a war on this country. This worry we think useless. Japan has other fish to fry. Industrial progress is her greatest need. She wants more territory, of course, and may be compelled to seek it by conquest, but she will hardly come so far and take such great chances of being defeated in a war with the best fighting people on earth.

Gasoline vs. the horse has been carried into the Umatilla grain fields as well as on the public highway. One Athena wheat-raiser is demonstrating what can be done with the caterpillar engine as against the operation of his farming plant with mules. He has sold his mules.

Hopper citizens have contributed $1000 for the first Morrow county fair and $1200 dollars in cash will be paid out in premiums. In the past when Morrow county was hypheated with Umatilla in the district fair business, she always exhibited creditable development of her resources.

The discussions in congress are about as hot as the Washington weather, but there have been no prostrations reported. Hot winds of that kind, though harmless, do not cause physical prostration.

Are we "getting in bad?" About all the nations of the first class, including England, Russia and Germany, have declined to come over and play in Frisco's back yard in 1915. China has not been heard from. What's molly now. Too much Panama?

Geel! That handiapp of the Wilson administration—Bryan and McReynolds!

Burglars and the Law.
Remarking that many members of the public feel some doubt as to the precise extent to which the law will uphold them in using violence to defeat or capture a burglar, the Law Journal of London says: "A peaceful trespasser must be requested to depart in peace, and only on his refusal can force be used to remove him, but a violent or an armed trespasser can be removed without such a request. As a general rule, however, it is not lawful to kill even a person assaulting one or stealing one's goods. Unless one's life is in danger such an act is at best manslaughter. Possibly in the defense of one's home the use of firearms is justifiable, even if no violence to the person is threatened, but this is very doubtful."

A Lost Chance.
Years ago a man named Saltzman owned an estate in Greenland, South Africa, and adjoining his property was an old, rundown farm that had not been worked on account of its poor soil and lack of necessary water. The owner of the farm met Herr Saltzman one day and offered to trade the farm for an old waistcoat he had seen him wearing. As Saltzman did not wish to burden himself with a piece of worthless land, he kindly refused the offer. A few years later big, clear diamonds were found on this waste stretch, and now thousands of pounds could not purchase it.—London Mail.

Not Very Reassuring.
He—Your father called me a timber wolf. What did he mean by that? She—Oh, that's just one of pa's political expressions. He used to live out west, you know, and nothing ever pleased him so much as to shoot a timber wolf before breakfast. Of course, he didn't mean anything by it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Papa's Fault.
Father—I have just heard that that incorrigible son of mine has just married a well known actress. Daughter—Well, you have yourself to blame, father. Father—How do you make that out? Daughter—Haven't you often told him to hitch his wagon to a star?

All Over.
"Well, dear, I guess the honeymoon is over."
"Why do you say that?" pouted the bride.
"I have been taking stock, and I find that I am down to $2.65."—Washington Herald

Studebaker's
"I've had my Studebaker 15 years—and not a cent for repairs"
A word of just praise for a wagon that has done its work faithfully and well.
Men become attached to their Studebakers—proud of them.
Because they realize that a Studebaker is built on honor and with an experience in wagon building that dates back to 1852.
Studebaker wagons are a result of that long experience, coupled with a desire to build the best wagons, not cheap ones.
And when your dealer says "Buy a Studebaker—there's no better wagon made" he's giving you the verdict of a million farmers. He is not asking you to try an experiment.
