School Notes.

School is progressing very nicely and every one is making a decided effort to get the most possible good out of the three remaining months of the term.

The backstop has worn out. The wire netting is not strong enough to withstand the "speed" of our boys. Boards will replace the broken wires and are now on the ground.

On account of the cold, damp weather and character of our wood, the supply has run short and we will need a few loads to last till warmer weather comes.

A tryout was held in the High school last Friday to determine the contestants for the Weston-Ferdale-Athena debating league. Arnold Koepke won first place, Louis Stewart and Tom Caton tied for second place and Elmer Martin received third. The first three were assigned to places on the team and Elmer Martin will act as alternate. March 6th the first debate will be held in Athena. Contestants, Weston vs. Athena. This is a good move in the right direction and should be encouraged.

Several ladies, mothers and patrons, visited the school recently. We enjoy having the patrons come and see what we are doing. Don't wait for second-hand information. Come and see for yourself. Don't grouch and find fault—Accept our hearty invitation—come. The door is open and we are sure you will be interested in our work.

Superintendent Drew has been busy perfecting the creditable list for Home Credit work. This will go into operation next September and will be a plan whereby a child receives credit at school for the work done at home. The mother will keep the account which will be forwarded every month to the Principal. Watch Johnny clean his teeth and comb his hair and black his shoes to get as many credits as Willie does.

No holidays will be observed from this time till the end of school except those half days earned for perfect attendance and punctuality.
