 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott, Mrs. M. L. DePent and Miss Merna DePent motored to Pendleton Sunday evening, where they attended the Easter program at the Christian church.
 Mrs. J. D. Plamondon was in Walla Walla Monday night, where in company with her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stites of Portland, she attended a reception at the White Temple in that city.
 Principal Howard Draw returned Wednesday from Portland, where he attended the funeral of his deceased brother-in-law, W. W. Wiley, which occurred Tuesday in the Riverview cemetery in that city.
 The Press learns upon good authority that Dr. Alvin B. Stone expects to arrive in Athena, from Portland, with his family about May 1st, with intention of locating here for the practice of his profession.
 Charles McFarland has disposed of his dairy cows to John Walter, and after Saturday week will go out of the milk business. Want of pasture forced Mr. McFarland out of business, to the regret of his many patrons.
 The meeting of the C. W. B. M. Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dobson was well attended, and the special Easter offering, for which the meeting was held was considered very generous, amounting to $11.53.
 Bertie McCubben, a pupil in the eighth grade, was painfully injured Tuesday morning when he was gored by his family cow, the sharp horn penetrating the groin and necessitating several stitches to close the wound.
 Alex McRee spent last night in the city, and this morning left for Walla Walla. Mr. McRee has been ranching near Goldendale, Wash., but recently he disposed of his ranch there, and has purchased a farm near La Grande.
 An interesting musical program was given at the Christian church Sunday morning in connection with the special Easter sermon by the pastor, and in the evening the ordinance of baptism was administered to two young candidates.

Dr. Plamondon's pheasants are making an egg record that would look well in any Athena poultry yard. He has four hen pheasants and is receiving an average of two eggs per day. The eggs will be set under hens for hatching.
 Charles Grant will move the location of his lunch counter to the Nelson building, North side of Main street, first door east of the Dreamland theater. Clara Myers has moved his shoe shop to first door east of Steel's harness store.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton came down from Spokane Saturday, driving their Ford car and making a two days trip. They will spend a few weeks on the farm, with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. F. Long.
 Harry Dupuy, a druggist formerly employed in this city, was in town a couple of days this week. Mr. Dupuy is also a successful director of amateur theatricals. It was he who directed "My Friend From India" here several years ago.
 After being without registration blanks for nearly a week, B. B. Richards received a supply from the county clerk yesterday. It seems that Mr. Richards has had to contend with unnecessary delays in receiving blanks from the county clerk before.
 A soaking ran fell Tuesday night, brightening up the landscape and giving impetus to gardens and growing grain. From reports grain was not in need of rain in this vicinity. One farmer says in some spots wheat is now so rank that it is beginning to fall.
 The supper given at the M. E. church Friday evening proved a great success, both socially and financially. The net sum of $29 was realized, and this will be placed in the fund being made for a new carpet. The supper was given by Mr. Fred Koontz's class.
 Mr. T. J. Watts was brought home from St. Johns, Wash., by his son, M. L. Watts last Saturday, and is now at the home of his son, Homer. The old gentleman is in very feeble health, the trip to the home of his daughter at St. Johns proved to be of no benefit to him.
 Flat in the face of a democratic administration and in direct competition with French Origlar, Henry Barrett has the audacity to engage in the sheep business. He reports a lamb increase that is most satisfactory, and will have his wool clip in the bale this week.
 Robert Coppock was married in Albany, April 2, to Mrs. Elizabeth Irvine, widow of the late J. H. Irvine, formerly a druggist in this city. Mr. Coppock and his bride will spend the summer in the Willamette valley, and will probably return to Athena next winter.
 An attractive display is made in the show window at Hawks' drug store. To advertise Everyday Chocolates, a pictorial scene is vividly depicted by the use of grassy sod with a mirror for a fishing pond, the scene being given animation by the presence of a group of Kewpie dolls.
 The small boy and his coaster wagon is becoming a nuisance on Main street side walks. At times it is absolutely dangerous to walk along the streets. Long ago the bicycle was excluded from Main street walks, but of the two, the coaster wagon is the greater menace to public safety.
 A Walla Walla contractor who has considerable frontage on Main street to replace board-walks with concrete, began work Wednesday morning on the north side, between Second and third. He also has the contract for putting in the drainage system leading from the saloon buildings on Main street.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zerba were in Walla Walla Wednesday, where they attended the wedding of Miss Lizzie Zerba, to Mr. Martin L. Volweiler, of Kennewick. The bride is well known and highly respected in Athena, where she has made her home, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. B. Zerba.
 The next meeting of the Mothers' Club of Athena will be held Friday, April 24, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Meldrum. The subject for discussion will be: "What Constitutes Home."
 A full attendance of the membership and of all ladies who are interested, is desired, as election of officers will take place.
 Turgeon & Smalley of Milton, are in the city with their tree spraying machine, and many of the fruit trees in Athena and vicinity are being sprayed. Spraying is now in order for scale and fungus and later spraying for destruction of the codling moth. It is compulsory by state law to spray at the present time for scale.
 Mrs. M. L. Akers, who came up from her home in Pendleton Saturday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart, met with an accident Sunday evening which resulted in a badly sprained shoulder and a fractured bone, just above the ankle. While driving with her sister, Blanche, the Shelton pony became unmanageable and ran, turning a sharp corner and throwing both occupants out of the cart.
 Fine Line of Vehicles.
 Watts and Rogers Hardware Firm of Weston desires to make known that they have a carload of over thirty vehicles en route from the East, consisting of top carriages, hacks, road wagons and carts. They will have the finest display ever shown in the county and prices that will move them; the Weber and Winona wagons and three styles of low down farm trucks.
 Together with Stiggs & Son, they have the agency for that famous automobile, The Hudson Six 40, the most talked-of car in the realm of sixes, the greatest horse-power to the weight of them all; the most flexible, easy riding car and the latest European stream line body. The weight is 2980 lbs.—Adv.
 For Sale.—320 acres of alfalfa and wheat land in the wheat belt. All to be summer fallowed this spring. A bargain at less than $30 per acre, and easy terms. Frank McElroy, Cambridge, Idaho.—Adv.
