U. A. Barrett returned yesterday from a campaign trip into Union county. He reports that threshing is still in progress over there. Joe N. Scott, democratic candidate for joint senator, recently returned from Union county, where he met and interviewed many voters. A card from Byron Hawks announces that he left Wilson, Wyoming for the mountains in the Jackson Hole district, Monday of this week. Mrs. Minnie Crafts and little son, and her sister, Miss Verlie Douglas of Hood River were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Smith in this city. Mrs. F. S. LeGrow left Tuesday evening for Long Beach, California, where she will join her mother and sister and will remain until November 1st. Arthur Rigby was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Rigby recently sold his farm on McKay creek, since which time he has been residing in Pendleton. Stanley Keith of Albany, has arrived in the city and taken a position as salesman in the Golden Rule store. Mr. Keith is a cousin of W. E. Dobson. Wayne Worthington and Robert Hobart of Portland, after taking in the Roundup, came to Athena and spent Sunday at the H. O. Worthington home. Bart Ramsey assumed his duties of city marshal yesterday morning. His resignation as section foreman on the Northern Pacific, also went into effect yesterday. There will be a Silver Medal contest, held under the auspices of the W. O. T. U., at the Christian church, next Friday evening, October 9. Admission free. Rev. and Mrs. Geo. T. Ellis, of Baker, who visited friends here over the week end, were returning from a fortnight's vacation spent at Newport, Oregon. Fred Hammel, who has been on the Athena police force for several months serving as night watch, has concluded to leave Athena, and W. E. Dobson is on the night shift. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Gerking went down to the Willamette valley this week, and at present are attending the Fair at Salem. They will visit other points before returning. C. J. Smith, candidate for governor, and other democratic candidates will be in the city Monday, October 5th, for the purpose of meeting the voters of this vicinity. Miss Nellie Dee Whiting, of the Helen Barnett School of Piano Playing, teacher of piano. Studio at Mrs. D. H. Mansfield's, Wednesdays. Terms upon application. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Koons returned from Portland Tuesday evening. Mr. Koons made a business trip to California and was met in Portland on his return by Mrs. Koons. Mrs. C. O. Whiteman and little son, Jack, came down from the farm near LaCros, Wash., yesterday and will be guests of relatives and friends in Athena for a couple of weeks. O. C. Barton has leased the Britten place on Wild Horse mountains, from W. S. Ferguson, present owner, and will move onto the ranch in the near future. He will raise hogs, principally. Harry Alexander will enter and drive his Ford out in the road race, which takes place today. The route of the racers, several of which have entered, is from Walls Walls to Lewiston, Idaho. J. J. Johnson arrived in the city this week from Ohio, and came for the purpose of selling his land in the Gear Springs neighborhood, which for some time has been held under lease by David Ferris. The October meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. K. Wall. The subject for the afternoon is "Prayer," with Mrs. J. T. King as leader. Miss Carrie Sharp who is teaching at Roslyn, Wash., came over to the Roundup at Pendleton Saturday and spent Sunday at her home here. She was accompanied by a young lady friend, and they returned Sunday night to Roslyn. Louis Hodges, democratic candidate for county commissioner, was in the city Wednesday, greeting old time friends. Lou hasn't cultivated the handbaking habit, and in this respect he differs materially from other candidates we have met. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pickett of The Dalles, were in the city this morning on their return home after taking in the Roundup and visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. Pickett is engaged in the real estate business at The Dalles. Paul Bushman, who died Monday at the Pendleton hospital after a fatal attack of pneumonia, was buried at the Catholic mission on the reservation Wednesday. Deceased was 62 years old. He was died last December. He leaves four sons and a daughter. Marion Hensell, A. B. Steele, W. O. Miller and the Pless man, spent Saturday and Sunday on Meacham creek, and had splendid sport fishing. On a long hike, over the railroad ties, Mr. Steele perfected a trot that has the turkey trot faded, and one worth a fortune to any dancing master. Mrs. Kidwell of Pilot Rock, who died suddenly at her home in that town, was an aunt of Mrs. Frank Tharp and Mrs. B. D. Tharp of this city. The latter went down to Pendleton today to attend the funeral. Mrs. Kidwell has visited in this city and was well known to many here. Rev. Geo. T. Ellis conducted services morning and evening, Sunday at the Baptist church. Rev. and Mrs. Ellis met many of their old time Athena friends at the services, which were attended by good sized audiences. Mr. Ellis has no regular charge since leaving Athena, but preaches occasionally in his home town, Baker, where he assists his son who is engaged in the transfer business.

Geo. W. Hensell returned to his home at Moro, Sherman county, yesterday morning, after spending a couple of days in Athena. Mr. Hensell was returning from a visit to Cambridge, Idaho, where he owns a farm property. Frost seriously injured the grain crop in the Cambridge district this year, according to Mr. Hensell. Mr. Hensell who is some fisherman, has learned the art of angling for trout in the Deschutes river, and nowadays squaw fish do not appeal to him in the least. He leaves this all for John Benson to monkey with. Weston Leader: "Spud" Lytle, potato farmer and dairyman of Basket mountain, was in town this week on a business visit. Mr. Lytle says that recent rains have improved the potato prospect, and that he expects a good yield from the 15 acres which he planted to this indispensable vegetable. While a plague of grasshoppers cleaned up his "spud" crop last year, he thinks that this year's yield and price will more than make amends. He intends to raise potatoes every year hereafter, and to increase his acreage. Mrs. Alma Wilkinson has received word of the death last Friday at Lytle, Wash., of Arthur Woods, the husband of her niece, formerly Miss Hazel Glass. Mr. Wood was killed in a runaway accident, while driving a loaded wagon. The body was taken to his former home, Dot, Wash., for burial. He leaves a widow and three small children. Mrs. Woods, before her marriage, visited at the Wilkinson home here, and while in the city made many friends, who will sympathize with her in her loss. In the Better Babies contest at the Walls Walls Fair, the babies of this vicinity made an excellent showing, demonstrating the fact that Gerking Flat, at least, can raise something else besides wheat. Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Walter; and Glad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reeder, won diplomas and Janice, the bonnie little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gerking, locked just one-half point of winning a prize. Miss Nellie Dee Whiting, graduate and instructor in the Helen Barnett school of piano playing at Walls Walls, will appear in piano recital at the Christian church next Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, at 8 o'clock. Miss Whiting has had much experience in concert work and those who have heard her commend her work very highly. The recital is free and the public is cordially invited. The Dreamland Theater has reopened after having been closed for two weeks, and is giving an excellent program each evening. The bill for tonight and tomorrow night is: 1 and 2.—"A Question of Right," Lullaby. 3.—"Concentration," Biograph. Sunday: 1 and 2.—"Deacon Billing-ton's Downfall," Edison. 3.—"Beating Their Board Bill," Biograph. The LeGrow relay string, Braden Gerking riding, lost to the Armstrong string by a fifth of a second at the Roundup last week. Many believe the judges should have declared the race a tie. Braden Gerking, who was injured during the stage coach race, will soon be able to leave the hospital. The muscles of one of his arms were badly torn. Work will begin next Monday on the stretch of macadam road between Athena and Adams. Camps have been established at the Nelson place below town, and on the Krebs place, near Adams, where rock for surfacing the road will be quarried and run through crushers. A number of Athena men will seek employment on the road work. Pendleton papers report an act of unusual cruelty perpetrated by an Indian, John Seider, who previous to the Indian horse race at the Roundup, mutilated the horse of his rival, Matthew Shushup. Seider hacked the left fore foot of the racer, preventing it running in any more races. He was tried in the justice court and will spend six months in jail. Nains McDonald, of Spokane, in company with his friend, E. N. Holl, was a guest during the Roundup of his sister, Mrs. B. N. Hawks. The two young men are civil engineers in the employ of the N. P. company. They were accompanied by Spokane Sunday night by Mrs. Hawks, who will spend a couple of weeks there with her parents. Mrs. W. W. McPherson, teacher in the fifth grade at the public school, received word last week of the critical illness of her mother, who resides in the Willamette valley. Mrs. McPherson left Saturday, to attend her mother. Miss Cecile Boyd has been substituting the past week as teacher in the fifth grade, in the absence of Mrs. McPherson. Helms Dickenson writes from Phoenix, Arizona, that he has invested in property there, and intends to make his permanent home in Arizona. Mrs. Dickenson's health has materially improved, and both are well satisfied to remain in that state. His present address is R. F. D. No. 3, Chesterfield Place, Phoenix. George Brocher, well known mountain rancher, was in the city yesterday in quest of a bear trap. According to Mr. Brocher, a bear up his way has shown particular fondness for pears, and during the past week has made two trips to Mr. Brocher's orchard and devastated two trees in satisfying his hunger. Marshal Ramsey is looking after chickens and dogs, this week. All owners of chickens within the city limits, must keep their fowls within enclosures, if they adhere to city ordinance provisions, and dog owners are required to pay license or have their dogs cospawloved and made away with. The city of Weston has workmen engaged in building a concrete dam across the channel of Pine creek, for the purpose of increasing the water supply in its municipal water system. The leader reports that the supply of water has already increased to the extent that pumping has been discontinued. Miss Sylvia Beath, saleslady in the Moogrove store, has returned from her annual vacation at Seattle, where she spent a month with relatives.

L. M. Nelson has accepted a position with the Bel Cross Pharmacy, of Pendleton, and will leave Athena about November 1. During his residence in Athena, since he has been in the employ of B. N. Hawks, he has made a large circle of friends who will wish Mr. and Mrs. Nelson success in their new home. Marcom Anderson, nephew of Mrs. M. L. Watts, accompanied by Al Tagessell, both of Portland, where they are employed in the Southern Pacific machine shops, have been guests at the Watts home this week. The regular Saturday Night Dance will take place at the Athena opera house, tomorrow night. Mrs. Shick will play piano, and Earl Eighart will be heard on the clarinet in the orchestra. A force of carpenters are working on Alex McIntyre's new barn. It is being constructed on the site of the one which burned several weeks ago. Sanford Stone and Millard Kelly left this morning on a fishing trip to the Umatilla and Meacham creeks, where they will spend several days. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dickenson and children have returned from Ukiah, where they spent the summer. All His Fault. Mr. Fuldub—I lost my umbrella today. Mrs. Fuldub—That's just like you, John Henry. I told you when you left the house this morning to take one of the borrowed ones.—Puck.

Saved Her Life from Pneumonia "My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a case of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life." writes James Coffee, of Raymond, Missouri. Good Results in Every Case Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." PNEUMONIA Pneumonia follows a cold, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Stops the Cough and heals the lungs. Cured of Terrible Cough on Lungs N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill., writes: "My daughter had a severe attack of La Grippe and a terrible cough on her lungs. We tried a great many remedies without relief. She tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR which cured her. She has never been troubled with a cough since." Cured When Very Low With Pneumonia J. W. Bryan, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."
