

Press Paragraphs

Claude Steen was over from Milton yesterday.

Clyde Willaby was a Pendleton visitor Monday.

Mrs. Arnold Wood has been on the sick list this week.

D. B. Jarman was in the city yesterday from Weston.

Mrs. Richard Morrison of Weston, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. W. Long has been ill at her home near town this week.

Tom Mosgrove was in the city from Milton the first of the week.

W. R. Taylor and D. H. Mansfield were in Pendleton yesterday.

Miss Grace McBride of Walla Walla, is visiting friends in the city.

Lester Vaughn has returned to his studies at Columbia college, Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Rogers were in the city yesterday from Pendleton.

Mrs. Etta Lloyd is visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Pinkerton.

J. T. Lienallen came over from Walla Walla Tuesday, and spent the day here.

Mrs. N. J. Garfield, of Walla Walla, is a guest this week of her mother, Mrs. Nelson.

Mrs. George Mencke came up from Pendleton yesterday and spent the day in the city.

Homer I. Watts' Ford roadster looks like a new car, since he had it painted at Bennett's shop.

E. M. Banks has ordered his Press to be transferred from Huntville, Wash., to Freewater.

Miss Ruth Stewart left Monday for Forest Grove, where she is a student at Pacific University.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrove returned Sunday evening from a pleasant holiday visit in Portland.

Mrs. Marlon Jack is reported recovering from an attack of sickness, at her home in Pendleton.

J. M. Banister, prominent farmer of Weston, with his daughter Gladys, visited in Athena Tuesday.

Senator and Mrs. C. A. Barrett left yesterday for Salem, to be present at the sessions of the Legislature.

Mrs. Sam Baworth and Mrs. Wm. Winship have been visiting their parents in Walla Walla, this week.

The ladies of the Catholic church will give a benefit call in this city, Wednesday evening, January 13.

I will buy your second-hand furniture, paying highest price therefor. Phone 948, Walla Walla.—Adv.

Mrs. Darr, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry McBride, has returned to her home in Adams.

Misses Areta and Beth Rothrock spent Saturday in Pendleton, the latter returning to her studies at Eugene.

J. M. Hayes was up from Pendleton the first of the week, visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Berlin.

Pastor Harmon announces that there will be held next Sunday morning, at the Christian church, the annual election of church officers, and he respectfully requests the presence of every member of the congregation.

Frank Swaggart of Enterprise, visited at the home of his parents, north of town, Sunday. We learn that Frank had a bear story skinned down for us, but by hook or crook, we did not meet, so the story cannot be related here.

Word comes to J. W. Darby that another cousin has met death in the British trenches at Ypres. Charles Darby, gunner in the Royal Garrison Artillery met death while fighting for his country and is the eighth cousin of Mr. Darby's to lose his life in the war.

A Mackenzie Meldrum was in the city a couple of days this week, on his way from Seattle, where he attended the Ministerial Parliament, and gave two or three lectures to the assembly. He left last evening for Milton, and will go from there to his home in Spokane.

With favorable weather conditions Sanford Stone expects to begin hauling brick Monday from the Weston yard for the new school building. He has the contract to haul 100,000 brick. He will use three teams, handling 3000 brick per load and will make three trips a day.

Jimmie Lienallen is having his little Ford extensively altered up at Zetta Bros. shop. He has had the frame lengthened about seven feet and the vehicle has much the same appearance as does a dachshund, sans ears and canine appendage. If this is his trade mark, it is our first knowledge of his being a Dutchman. Ach, Yimmy!

County Supt. I. E. Young, at the meeting of county superintendents which closed at Salem last Friday night, was elected secretary-treasurer of a permanent organization of the superintendents which was effected. The other officers elected were O. C. Brown, Douglas county, President, and W. M. Smith, Marion County, vice President.

Peno St. Dennis was before Judge Richards Wednesday on a drunk and disorderly charge preferred by Marshal Ramsay, the arresting officer. Peno used coarse words in disputing testimony of a witness, and in addition to being fined $15, was assessed $10 more for contempt, remanded to jail and the sentence included bread and water diet upon refusal to work.

The funeral of Mrs. Ben Selling of Portland, who died at her home there from the effects of an injury received in a fall some time ago, was held in Pendleton Monday morning. Interment was made in Olney cemetery, where her husband had been laid only a few months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Selling were the parents of Mrs. Julius Levy, of Walla Walla who formerly lived in Athena.

"Jinks" Taylor has come to the parting of the ways. It took him a long time to decide between Bally and an automobile. Now he's got it. Its a 40-horse power Oakland roadster and W. R. is having a hard time in getting the measly thing bridled. With the help of Hardy Mansfield and advice from all hands, he is getting along fairly well, thank you.

BUY IT NOW

Just 15 Days in Which to Purchase

The Most Wonderful Bargains Ever Shown at any Sale in this Country

At the closing out of The Mosgrove Mercantile Company.

This mighty Mercantile Event commences today, Friday, presenting you your one great opportunity to purchase your present and future needs.

You can get them at a mighty little price, Come quick, action is necessary.

Mosgrove Mercantile Co
Thos. Rucker, of Spokane, in charge
Corner Main and Third, - - - Athena, Oregon

Coal Tar

Increases the Life of your Barn Roofs and Fence Posts.

Genuine Coal Tar in Barrels of 50 Gallons $3.50

At the Gas Plant, PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO. Pendleton, Oregon Phone 40

Start the New Year Right

By Having Your Watch Cleaned and Overhauled

L. S. Vincent, JEWELER, Athena, Oreg. At Hawks' Drug Store

ATHENA OPERA HOUSE
Wednesday, January 20

RICHARDS AND PRINGLE'S MINSTRELS

NOW IN ITS 28TH YEAR ITS TREMENDOUS SUCCESS ITS GREATEST CHARACTERISTIC

30—CELEBRATED FUN MAKERS—30
10—BIG NOVEL ACTS—10
20—SWEET-VOICE CHORAL COURT—20

THE SIX BIG COMEDIANS:
Clarence Powell, Dave Smith, Chicken Reel Beaman, Manzie Campbell, George Walls, John Mondy.

Beautiful Scenic and Electrical Effects
Gorgeous Street Parade, Daily
You can buy the best seats for 75c; Other good seats at 50c; Children, 25 cents.

We Strongly Recommend Our White Pine, Tar and Eucalyptus For Colds. Give it a Trial.

Byron N. Hawks, The Druggist

Will Pinkerton was over from Milton Wednesday. His spare time is being utilized in overhauling the Pinkerton automobiles.

Mrs. Arthur Foster, of Prineville, visited at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Nelson the first of the week.

Mrs. McKay, of Walla Walla, is visiting this week at the home of her son and daughter, Wm. Winship and Mrs. W. J. Gholson.

L. S. Vincent will leave tomorrow evening for Portland, where he will select new equipment for his watch and jewelry department.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mansfield has gone to Weston, where she will remain for the balance of the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Harris.

Mrs. R. K. Brady, a former Athena resident, but who now lives near Freewater, and daughter were in the city this week, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tompkins have gone to San Diego, California, to spend the winter. They will stop in Portland for several days en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur write from San Diego, Calif., where they are established for the winter, asking that their copy of the Press be sent there.

Clarence Ross was in town yesterday from his place on the Umatilla river. He reports the Umatilla lower than he ever before saw it at this time of the year.

Miss Winnifred Bent of Portland, who visited at the Homer I. Watts home during the holidays, is reported ill at the home of Mrs. C. S. Jeter, in Pendleton.

Dr. Flamondon received word yesterday of the death of his sister, Mrs. Pape, at Salem. The doctor left on the evening train to be in attendance at the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gerking left this morning for Portland, where they will remain for several weeks, and will also visit relatives in Tacoma before their return.

Wash up your Ford, take it down to Bennett's and have it painted, striped and varnished by an expert coach painter. Only $20 and work guaranteed, to boot.—Adv.

J. W. Calender has returned from his visit to Portland. While there, Mr. Calender took medical treatment, with the result that his health is somewhat improved.

Bob Tharp is exhibiting a new and efficient electric lighting system for Ford cars. The lights are from a storage battery, which receives its current from the magneto.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott motored to Pendleton Monday evening, with Mrs. DePeat and Miss Zelma DePeat, the latter visiting Mrs. Gen. Harris, who has been quite ill.

C. E. Rude, the Pendleton stock-buyer, shipped three carloads of hogs from Athena this week. This is the second shipment of hogs Mr. Rude has made from Athena recently.

The subject for the morning sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday is: "The Great Commission;" in the evening, "Will the Old Book Stand?" A. M. Lambert, pastor.

The regular monthly meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Harmon. Mrs. B. D. Tharp was leader of the meeting.

B. N. Hawks has installed a new National Cash Register. The machine is an up-to-date affair in every particular and will do most anything about the store except run the soda fountain.

Mrs. George Carmichael of Walla Walla, who officiated as installing officer for the Order of Eastern Star, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKee, while in the city.

Mr. O. L. Cronkatt, who has been at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Meldrum in Spokane the past few months, will return to Pendleton where her son Ernest is attending high school.

Earl Dudley last Tuesday submitted to a surgical operation at a hospital in Walla Walla, for a complication of appendicitis and hernia. He is reported to be recovering satisfactorily from the operation.

The Press is under obligations to S. B. Calderhead of the Northern Pacific for substantially remembering the office with a splendid map. Also our thanks are due old Bill Konesak for an N. P. calendar.

The funeral of William H. Jones, who died at his home in Pendleton last week, was held there Sunday afternoon. Mr. Jones was a prominent pioneer farmer and hardware merchant, and was formerly well known in this end of the county.

W. D. Chamberlain and John Fisher were in the city yesterday from Pendleton. They made a trip by auto to Weston mountain, where the machine became stalled in a snowdrift, and the occupants walked a distance of a mile to their destination.

MAXWELL AUTOMOBILE

A Real Car for $850

Farm Implement and Vehicle Lines include Rock Island and Southbend Plows, the Peoria Drills, Discs, etc. Litchfield Manure Spreaders, Gasoline Engines, Birdsell Wagons, Rex Buggies and Hacks.

Third Street CHARLES KIRK, Athena, Ore.

All the Luxury of the best box spring at 1/2 the cost

NOISELESS

NO HAMMOCKING NO HUMMOCKING NO SAGGING

INSURES PERFECT REST

NO BAGGING NO DRAGGING NO PITCHING

IN HEALTHFUL POSITION

See the "DeLuxe" Bed Springs at MILLER'S FURNITURE STORE.

the terrible condition of his wrists and hands. The handouffs were removed after administering anesthetics, by sawing them off.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council, Monday evening, it was decided to collect the liquor license hereafter in quarterly payments. Under the head of license business, the council also reduced the license of the Athena opera house from $40 down to $20 per year. Notices were ordered posted for the meeting to be held on Monday, January 25 at the city hall at 7:30 p. m., at which time the nominations for city officers will be made. The $12,000 rate building bonds were disposed of at private sale. The bonds are in two 30 years at 6 per cent. from date of issue, without option of redemption. The mayor and recorder were authorized to make arrangements for funds to take up outstanding city warrants for all bills payable in cash.

For Sale or Trade.
2000 acres of grain land six miles from Stanfield. Practically all in cultivation; 1000 acres in winter wheat. Late building, plenty of well water. Owner will trade for city property or check cashed up to $5 or 40 thousand and take crop payments for balance. Price $33 per acre; what have you for this? Frank McElroy, Cambridge, Idaho.—A37.

DeLuxe

WINNEY'S 30 YEARS WINNEY-ROME CO. CHICAGO