

Press Paragraphs

A. B. Steele was in Pendleton Sunday.

W. S. Ferguson is this week in Miles City, Montana.

Joseph Sheard and family motored to Pendleton Saturday.

We carry the famous Dri Sox Shoes for men. Fix & Radtke.—Adv.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Scott have returned from a visit to Seattle.

Mrs. W. K. Wall has been seriously ill this week, from a severe cold.

Received, a new line of corsets and brassieres. Fix & Radtke.—Adv.

Buy a ticket for the Library Ball, January 30, whether you dance or not.

"Sour Krent"—where? At Fix & Radtke's, at 5 cents per quart.—Adv.

Just unpacked a new shipment of aluminum ware. Fix & Radtke.—Adv.

Miss Myrtle Harvey is a guest this week at the home of Mrs. N. Dickenson.

Mrs. Henry Dell and Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn are visiting in Walla Walla today.

Hugh McIntyre is in Walla Walla this week where he is attending to business.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield visited in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Mrs. Lowell Rogers of Pendleton was in the city Monday, shopping at the local stores.

Jean Dudley has purchased a new Ford car, through the agency of Zerba Brothers of this city.

Master Ray Alexander has christened his newly painted toyote, "Baby Ford." The little fellow is an expert rider.

W. F. Littlejohn and Marion Hansell have been doing jury duty in the circuit court at Pendleton.

Mr. Arthur Stone of Pendleton, accompanied by his wife, was in the city Sunday, visiting friends.

Roy Alexander and Ed. Eppinger were in the city Monday on route to Pendleton from Walla Walla.

I will buy your second-hand furniture, paying highest price therefor. Phone 948, Walla Walla.—Adv.

Sheldon Taylor purchased one of those fine Rex buggies down at the Kirk implement house, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McBride returned Saturday evening from a fortnight's visit to their daughter in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oliver, of Walla Walla, were guests Wednesday at the A. B. Steele home in Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor McDonald are over from Walla Walla, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley.

Mrs. John Rothrock was taken to Portland Tuesday evening, where she will enter a sanitarium for treatment.

Wanted.—Man and wife desire employment on farm. Competent and reliable. Enquires at this office. 3t.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scott were in Walla Walla Monday evening, and saw David Warfield at the Keylor Grand.

Several Athens friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Brown, have been feasting this week on oranges, raised, at their California home.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts motored to Walla Walla Monday evening and saw David Warfield, the eminent actor, in the "Auctioneer."

Mr. and Mrs. John Walter and Mrs. Kies of LaGrande attended Warfield's production of the "Auctioneer," at Walla Walla Monday night.

Mrs. Earl Dudley was at the E. A. Dudley home a part of this week. Her husband, who is confined in a Walla Walla hospital is recovering but slowly from his recent operation.

A. A. Foss, H. C. Caplinger, H. A. Barrett and B. D. Tharp attended the funeral of the late Wm. Scott, which occurred at Helix Wednesday.

Subject at the Methodist church for next Sunday morning: "A Bad Bargain," in the evening: "A Call to Service." A. M. Lambert, Pastor.

Tickets for the First Annual Library Ball of Athens will be on sale tomorrow, and all of next week at $1.00. Let every one pull for the Benefit Ball.

Mrs. M. L. Akers and little daughter, Marlene, are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. They will return to their home at Pendleton Sunday.

Emery Worthington left Wednesday evening for Portland, where the young man will enter the Babcock-Walker Business College for a course of instruction.

Reports from Walla Walla are to the effect that Mrs. Mary Shick is gradually improving, since being operated on at a hospital there several days ago.

Walter Gilmore and Ed. Kilgore were sentenced to the penitentiary Monday by Judge Phelps for a period of from one to ten years, for cattle stealing.

Peter Crook, well known in this city, has won further oratorical honors at the University of Oregon. He is the winner of the international peace contest.

Wanted.—To rent or buy on crop payment plan, a wheat farm. Am practical farmer, have A. No. 1 references. John Lemmon, Cornelius, Ore.—Adv.

Mrs. T. J. Kirk, who has been in ill health for some time, with her granddaughter, Miss Ellen Ehrhart, left this week for a sojourn at Hot Lake Sanitarium.

Wash up your Ford, take it down to Bennett's and have it painted, striped and varnished by an expert coach painter. Only $30 and work guaranteed to boot.—Adv.

Athens sportsmen have forwarded letters to the county representatives in the legislature, protesting against the proposed abolition of the fish and game commission.

Cards received by Athens friends apprise them of the presence of Charles Dunn in New York City. He extends them an invitation to "take in the village" with him.

Little Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scott is celebrating her fourth birthday this afternoon by entertaining a number of her little friends at the home of Mrs. Minnie DePest on Adams street.

Two feet of snow is reported at Ryan Grade, with much deeper farther back in the mountains. This will help a little, but farmers would like to see a mantle of the beautiful unfolding the fields in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wicks, of Colfax, visited at the home of Mrs. Minnie Willaby the first of the week. Mr. Wicks, who is a cousin of Mrs. Willaby, was on his way to California, motoring all the distance practicable.

J. M. Swaggart's ability as an artist is demonstrated by a painting done in oil of an owl, which for several days was on exhibition at Hawks' drug store. It is Mr. Swaggart's intention to give his time to landscape painting.

Athens and vicinity is clothed in a blanket of silver from this week. Freezing weather with no moisture, is a prevailing condition which the wheat raiser would be pleased to have the weather man change in the near future.

J. Inglis, manager for the Standard Oil company's distributing station in Athens, was kicked in the right side by a horse out at the plant, and seriously injured. Dr. Stone, who has been in attendance reports Mr. Inglis to be improving.

Dr. J. D. Plamondon has returned from Salem, where he recently attended the funeral of his sister. The doctor brought home with him an interesting heirloom in an ancient mantle clock, which has been in his family for many years.

The Athens Truck company is unloading four carloads of ice down at the low house on the O. W. R. & N. siding. The ice is from the Milton plant, and is manufactured from water out of the city water system there, being absolutely pure.

Mrs. C. N. Bradford and her two sisters, Misses Jessie and Grace Rickman, all of Wenatchee, Wash., are guests this week of their aunt, Mrs. David Taylor in this city. The ladies are on their way home from a visit with relatives at Heppner.

Miss Anita Kirkpatrick, principal of one of the Pendleton public schools, and Miss Odessa Kirkpatrick, manager of the Weston telephone exchange, attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Battie Edwards of Heppner, which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson in this city Sunday.

Judge W. R. Ellis, former resident of this county and twice representative from this district in congress, died suddenly of hemorrhage of the brain, Monday at his home in Portland, while engaged in attending to the domestic furnace. The distinguished jurist and statesman was aged 65 years.

The stock of merchandise at Jarman's old stand in Weston, commenced Saturday, January 23d, will be sold at auction sale between the hours of 3 and 4, and 7 to 9 p. m. daily, until the stock is completely closed out. Col. F. G. Lucas will auction the goods for Mr. Efteland, the owner.—Adv.

The First National Bank is to have a new tiled floor, Zoph Brothers have commenced the work this week. The floor in the front part of the bank building has been taken up and concrete put in its place. The tile is laid in cement on the surface of this concrete base. At present banking is done with the public through convenience of entrance by the rear doors.

Frank Coppock, of Lexington, Morrow county, arrived in the city this week with his bride, and is visiting relatives in this city. The marriage of Mr. Coppock was somewhat unexpected to his friends here, where he grew to manhood. Frank has been farming near Lexington for some years, and his bride is a popular girl of that vicinity.

Wanted.—By a first class tenant, a lease on 500 to 1000 acres improved barley and wheat land; or 250 to 500 acres improved general farming land with some alfalfa; will buy stock and implements necessary to run ranch; must be near shipping station. Address this paper with location and description of land.—Adv.

William M. Scott, pioneer Helix farmer, and one time candidate on the democratic ticket for county judge, died at the home of his daughter in Portland Sunday, after an illness resulting from a complication of disorders. Mr. Scott was 77 years of age. The remains were brought from Portland and interred in the cemetery at Helix, Wednesday afternoon.

Richards & Pringles minstrels put up a good show before a large audience at the Athens opera house, Wednesday evening. New scenery and splendid orchestra numbers went a long way to make the show appreciated, while the appearance of Chikien Beaman the peerless colored comedian, thrown in with a medley of new jokes and quips for the audience, kept the audience in roars of laughter.

Because of the very high price of feed, Donald McFadyen has decided to sell all his poultry stock without any reservation. Now is your opportunity to get first class breeders of high quality. Prices according to quality as revealed by the trap nest. Inspection solicited. Equipments are not for sale, as Mr. McFadyen fully intends to reengage in the poultry business as soon as conditions are more favorable.—Adv.

J. W. Smith, who has owned and managed three lumber yards in Montana for several years past, has sold out his interests there including a newly constructed bungalow in Ingomar, where he resides with his family. Mr. Smith has been in ill health and may make a visit to his old home in Tennessee. Mrs. Smith and family will remain in Ingomar until June, her daughter, Miss Leta Edgington, having a position in the schools there.

Were your children backward in their studies last year? If so, the chances are that it was due to eye trouble of some kind. We are eye specialists. Bring your boys and girls to Drs. Low & Turner and let them give their eyes a thorough examination and if there is any eye trouble we will correct it. You owe it to your children. At St. Nichols Hotel, Tuesday, January 28. Cross eyes straightened in children.—Adv.

A. M. Johnson, local manager for the Tum-a-lum Lumber company attended the convention of the Interstate Lumbermen's Association at Walla Walla, Friday and Saturday. The association comprises the lumber dealers of Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho. Two hundred and fifty members of the association attended the convention and listened to addresses from experts in different departments of the retail lumber business.

The largest stick of timber ever unloaded in Athens, came to Zoph Brothers, contractors on the construction work of Athens' new school building, Saturday. It was taken from the car and transported to the school grounds by the Athens Truck company. The big stick measures 40 feet in length, the dimensions being 20x30 inches. The timber is fir, weighs six tons and will, with its mate, support the auditorium in the new building, extending overhead across the gymnasium.

Athens' first Annual Library Ball will be given on Saturday evening, January 30, in I. O. O. F. E. K. of P. Hall, and promises to be the event of the season. Every effort will be made to make the first annual library ball a grand success, and elaborate preparations are being made by the ladies in charge, being the members of the literary board. The floor managers have been chosen for the evening, and they will be: Mayor Homer I. Watts, Dr. J. W. Welch, Henry Dell, W. P. Littlejohn and Victor Burke.

Harold E. Crawford, of the engineering and sales department of the Tum-a-lum Lumber company, with principal offices at Walla Walla, was in the city yesterday and called at the Press office. Mr. Crawford, who is an advertising expert, will have charge of the company's advertising during the year. So hereafter when you see a Tum-a-lum ad. in the Press, you'll know Crawford is the man behind it. He is a son of the president of the company, and the company makes good.

A fire broke out in the cellar at the Wall home last Saturday, and it was only by hard work that it was extinguished by Mrs. W. K. Wall, who was at the time alone. She had a short time before descended the steps, and lighting a match, had undoubtedly set the paper on the shelves on fire. Upon discovering the smoke ascending she carried down water and extinguished the flames, which had gained some headway. This is the second time fire has started in the Wall cellar, the same thing happening a couple of years ago, and it is decided that an electric light will at once be installed to avoid another such accident.

When you consult Dr. Lowe & Turner you receive the combined skill of the trained specialist and optician. They devote their entire time, energy and effort exclusively to the eye. They have had years of experience and know their business in all its branches. They give you eyes a most thorough, searching and scientific examination, and when they prescribe glasses it is with positive and absolute assurance they are the best and only kind suited to your eyes. Glasses guaranteed to give satisfaction whether they cost $2.00 or more. One charge covers cost of examination, frames and lenses. Consult them at St. Nichols Hotel, Tuesday, January 26.—Adv.

BIG AUCTION SALE

... SALE ...

At Jarman's Old Stand, Weston, Saturday Jan. 23rd, from 2 to 4, and 7 to 9 p. m., and every day thereafter at like hours, we will sell at Auction the Jarman Stock of including Hats, Caps, Shoes, Sweaters, Ladies' Misses and Children's Underwear, Ladies' Ready-made Goods, Boys Suits, and all other Merchandise in the Store.

Merchandise

J. EFTELAND, COL. F. G. LUCAS.
Proprietor Auctioneer.

Coal Tar

Increases the Life of your Barn Roofs and Fence Posts.

Genuine Coal Tar in Barrels of 50 Gallons
$3.50

At the Gas Plant,
PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.
Pendleton, Oregon
Phone 40

Athena Auto Company

C. Chaney, Manager

Up-to-date repair shop and supplies. Wash rack and vulcanizing. All work guaranteed; the prices are right. A trial is all we ask. Ford cars a specialty. Carries Firestone and Goodyear tires.

Russell & Son

The Market That Lowered Prices
J. W. Da. by, Manager.

Don't Forget

that we are still in the Meat Business, and prepared to give you the choicest of meats. We kill nothing but top-grade stock. We have our home-made Bacon and Bologna. Try our Jelly Tongue.

We have the purest of Lard at $1.25 for 10s; 65c for 5s; 40c for 3s. Our Phone number is 493, and we give special attention to Phone orders.

We Strongly Recommend Our

White Pine, Tar and Eucalyptus

For Colds. Give it a Trial.

Byron N. Hawks, The Druggist

MAXWELL AUTOMOBILE

A Real Car for $850

Farm Implement and Vehicle Lines

include Rock Island and Southbend Plows, the Peoria Drills, Discs, etc. Litchfield Manure Spreaders, Gasoline Engines, Birdsell Wagons, Rex Buggies and Hacks.

Third Street CHARLES KIRK, Athena, Ore.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon, January 17, 1915, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thompson, in this city, at which Miss Harriet A. Edwards and Mr. William Edgar Davidson, both of Heppner, Oregon, became man and wife. Only a few guests were present, besides J. H. Harmon, pastor of the local Christian church, who performed the ceremony, and his wife. In the evening, the bride and groom took the 6:35 train for Walla Walla for a few days' visit, after which they will make their home in Heppner. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Thompson and has been visiting here for several days.

Love's Labor Lost.
"What on earth has become of my Meerschmum pipe?" inquired an inveterate smoker.
"Well, my dear," his wife replied. "It was getting awfully discolored, so I gave it a coat of white enamel, and it is not quite dry yet!"

Didn't Want 'Em.
"That beauty expert is a fake."
"Why?"
"Wanted to give me some wrinkles on how to look young."—Baltimore American.

The blessedness or misery of old age is often but the extract of our past life.—Dr. Maitland

All the Luxury of the best box spring at 1/2 the cost

DeLuxe
MINNEY'S
GUARANTEED
20 YEARS
MINNEY-ROME CO.
CHICAGO

NO HAMMOCKING
NO HUMMOCKING
NO SAGGING

NO BAGGING
NO DRAGGING
NO PITCHING

INSURES PERFECT REST

IN HEALTHFUL POSITION

See the "DeLuxe" Bed Springs at

MILLER'S FURNITURE STORE.