"They say the theatrical business is bad," said a man from the west in a New York cafe. "If that's so I'd like to see it when it's good—just out of curiosity. I went to a place where they sell theater tickets today and asked for one seat for a certain hit. The young woman behind the counter inquired me smilingly that the best she could do was two in the balcony at $4 each. 'But,' I protested, 'I need only one. I haven't anybody to take with me.' She gave me another smile. 'My sister isn't doing anything tonight,' she said. 'Unless it is staying at home,' I said. Now, what do you know about that?"

RESINOL WILL SURELY STOP THAT ITCHING

Virtue Not Rewarded.

Willie came home from school crying bitterly. "Mother," he sobbed, "I'm not going to try and be good any more."

"Why Willie, whatever is the matter?" inquired his mother.

"Boo! hoo!" sobbed Willie. "I was in school today and I saw Teddy Smith put a bent pin in the teacher's chair, and because I did not want to do that, he pulled me out of my seat and he put me on the floor. He gave me a thrashing for pulling his chair away when he got up, and when I got outside the school Teddy Smith hit me for pulling the pin away and not mindin' my own b-b-busness."—London Tit-Bits.

Mother can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Mothers of mothers keep it handy because it knows its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

WHY GRIP IS DANGEROUS.

It requires a good tonic laxative to keep the body of the patient as strong as possible to counteract the effect of the poison created by the grip bacillus. An expectorant tonic with some laxative qualities is the safest remedy. Such is Peruna.

Mrs. Gentry Gates, 2219 First Ave., East Lake, Ala., writes: "I had a bad case of grip. I tried Peruna and it cured me. I can safely say it is a fine medicine."

Mr. George E. Law, 1314 N. Franklin St., Brazil, Ind., writes: "I am satisfied that Peruna is a wonderful remedy for grip, and I do most heartily endorse and recommend it."

Most Skin Trouble Readily Overcome

The Active Principle of a Famous Remedy Works Wonders.

Many people have marveled the way a S. S. S. overcomes skin troubles. The explanation is the fact that S. S. S. works in the blood and the blood is really a most intricate and extraordinary mass of arteries and veins.

When you come to realize that the skin and the flesh beneath are composed of a network of tiny blood vessels you solve the mystery.

There are wonderful medicinal properties in S. S. S. that follow the course of the blood streams just as naturally as the most nourishing food elements.

It is really a remarkable remedy, it contains one ingredient, the active principle which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutrients. And the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food.

Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and just insist upon having it. And if you desire skillful advice and counsel upon any matter concerning the blood and skin, write to the Medical Department, The Swift Specific Co., 239 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some zealous clerk's eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. to fool you with the same old mineral drugs. Beware of all substitutes. Insist upon S. S. S.

NORTHWEST MARKET REPORTS.

Portland—All wool men agree that the coming season will be the most interesting, and perhaps exciting, that the Western markets have seen in many years. Beyond this they will make no prediction. Prices, of course, will be good, but whether they will be high, or how high, no one cares to guess.

A dealer needs a brave speculative disposition to undertake forward business in the face of the conditions this year. Nevertheless it is said contracting has been done to a considerable extent in Utah and it is also reported that some contracts have been signed around Arlington. The terms were not mentioned, nor could the reports be verified.

Sheep growers are confident that prices will go to a high range and some of them are talking of a 25 or 30-cent market. With stocks in America as low as they are and spot prices here and abroad continually advancing, there is no doubt the 1915 market will open very strong, but buyers are not willing to concede that farmers will get the prices they are expecting.

The demand for eggs was better the latter part of the week, and receipts cleaned up quickly. Oregon eggs were held at 32 cents, case count, and 33 cents candled.

Wheat business came to a stop in the local market this week, and for the first time this year there were no sales on the Merchants Exchange. Most of the dealers evidently had nothing to offer, and those with a supply on hand wanted too much for it. Bids for most deliveries were advanced from half a cent to 1½ cents, while asking prices were generally 1 to 2 cents above bids, and in the case of prompt bluestem the spread was 3 cents.

Arrivals of poultry and meats were moderate and prices were steady and unchanged.

Butter and cheese moved at last quotations.

IMPORTANT THAT PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW ABOUT GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

The testimonial I am to give you comes unsolicited. I have been suffering from lumbago for ten years and am unable to stand erect. A Mr. Dean of this city, saw me in my condition (bent over) and inquired the cause. I told him that I had the lumbago. He replied, "If you get what I tell you to, you need not have it." I said I would take anything for ease. He said, "You get two bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root and take it, and if it does not fix you O. K. I will pay for the medicine myself." I did so and am a well man. For five months I have been as well as could be. Before I took your Swamp Root I was in constant pain day and night. This may look like advertising, but it seems to me most important that the public should be made familiar with this treatment as it is the only one I know which is an absolute cure. I owe a great deal to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and am anxious that others situated as I was should know and take advantage of it. Hoping that this testimonial may be of benefit to some one, I am,

Our Own Popular Ballads.

A working girl lived in a flat that looked out on the court; She loved her fiddler haddie, but she wasn't any port.

The fumes that rose from Nelly's flat 'bout 6 o'clock each night, Were pungent, penetrating and they brought about a fight.

"Cut out the honey odors," yelled a mean old man next door, And as he snarled through the hall, They made an awful roar.

"Who's cooking fish for supper?" cried a woman with a grouch, "This ain't no Friday feast day. Do you get me? I'm no slouch."

But Nelly faced them calmly, as she sauntered through the hall, And as aromas wafted round, she warbled to them all:

Chorus: "I may not suit your sniffers, but I know what's good to eat, My fish may be quite smelly, but that's because it's pure and sweet; You guys can eat your sauerkraut and cabbage, if you wish, But heaven will protect the girl who works to buy her fish!"

His Favorite.

A country clergyman on his round of visits interviewed a youngster as to his acquaintance with Bible stories.

"My lad," he said, "you have, of course, heard of the parables?"

"Yes, sir," shyly answered the boy, whose mother had instructed him in sacred history. "Yes, sir."

"Good!" said the clergyman. "Now, which of them do you like the best of all?"

The boy squirmed, but at last heeding his mother's frowns, he replied: "I guess I like that one where somebody 'loafs and fishes.'"—Advance.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N. J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N. J.

From Hanover, Penn.

HANOVER, Pa.—"I was a very weak woman and suffered from bearing down pains and backache. I had been married over four years and had no children. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RICKRODE, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
