ATHENA, ORE., APRIL 30, 1915

ATHENA WINS OUT AT WESTON
 Osborn's Crew Cleans Up the Colonel's
 Bunch 10 to 3.

League Standing:

Played	Won	Lost	PC
Milton-Freewater	5	4	1	800
Weston	5	3	2	600
Athena	5	2	3	400
Helix	5	1	4	200

Sunday's scores: Athena 10, Weston; Milton-Freewater 5, Helix 1.
 Next Sunday's games: Milton-Freewater at Athena; Weston at Helix.

Don Osborn and his lusty crew of athletes dropped over into the Colonel's back yard Sunday afternoon and gave his star twister, O'Hara, an awful drubbing. The net result of the housecleaning as posted on the bulletin boards read 10 to 3.

It was an interesting session, especially the seventh and eighth innings,
 when O'Hara's goat was chained to the tacketop and in each canto four runs blered over the platter as the result of eight screaming smashes square on the spher. The squally seventh for Weston opened with De-Peatt's easy death. Fulford to Turner, Coshaw poled out a double and King
 followed with a home run smash.
 The nanny bleated and Shick antled
 a two-base swat and scored on Brooks' single. Brooks moved on to second when Kennard mused up, Williams'
 grounder and scored on Stone's single.
 Two n baggers, a double and two errors by Beathe tell the story of the eighth. DePeatt figured in the trimmings as first batter up with a 3-link swat. Coshaw scored him with his second two ply poke. King flew out to Wood. Shick was retired, Blomgren to Turner. Brooks beamed the pill for three bases, Coshaw scoring. V. Williams was safe at second on Beathe's error No. 1. Brooks scoring from third.
 Stone sent a long one to Beathe who strred again, Williams coming in from second. Keefe fanned.

Athena scored King on two hits
 and an error in the third and DePeatt
 in the sixth on wild throw, a bit and a passed ball.

Weston opened her part of the game
 auspiciously with Blomgren her first batter up. He singled and took second on Fulford's out. E. Williams to Keefe,
 and scored on Kennard's bit.

In the fourth Wood struck out. F.
 Turner bit safely, took second on passed ball, scored on Kirkpatrick's hit, Kirkpatrick taking third on throw home and scored when King threw wild to third.

School Notes.

The local oratorical and declamatory contest was held at the Christian church Friday afternoon, when the following were declared winners in their respective divisions:

Division A.—First place, Zola Keen, "The Unknown Speaker"; second place Louis Stewart, "The Last Speech of Robespierre."

Division B.—First place, Rex Payne "The Ballad of Hardluck Henry"; second place Maehelle Dauoon, "The Theatre Party."

Division C.—First place, Dorothy Koepke, "The Bear Story"; second place, Edra Castano, "Little Orphan Annie."

The winners of first places are entitled to represent the school at the county contest which will be held at Pendleton this evening, April 30. The judges of the contest were M. L. Watts, Rev. J. H. Harmon and Superintendent L. E. Young.

SHORT LIFE OF BIG GUNS.
 Every Time a Rifle is Fired Some of its Bore is Worn Away.

The life of the gun, so far as its absolute destruction by bursting is concerned, is practically unlimited, but not so its accuracy life. Every time a gun is fired some of the interior surface of its bore and delicate rifling are wiped away, and a certain degree of its accuracy is lost.

This is true of the shoulder rifle, with its bore so small that it would not much more than admit a lead pencil, no less than of the great sixteen inch siege gun and the other grades of artillery pieces.

Fortunately for the infantryman, the wear on the bore of the shoulder rifle is much slower, as the wearing out of the bore decreases rapidly with a decrease in the size of the bore. Erosion, as it is called by the artillerymen, is greatest in the large guns and least in the 30 rifle.

The big guns which form the main batteries of our warships and are placed in our coast fortifications can fire from 150 to 250 rounds (dependent upon the pressure and heat in the powder chamber) before they begin to lose their accuracy.—Scientific American.

Doors in China.
 In China doors are often round, leaf shaped or semicircular. In placing them the builder usually avoids having one opposite another lest evil spirits find their way from the street into the recesses of the building. The doors separating the courts of a garden are usually of an elaborate kind, and the octagonal form is one of the most popular. Religious superstition asserts itself in Chinese architecture, and the universal sacredness of the numerals 3 and 9 is shown in the arrangement of temple doors. There is a triple gateway to each of the halls of the imperial palace, and the same order prevails at the Ming tombs. The Temple of Heaven has a triple roof, a triple marble staircase, and all its mystic symbolism points either to 3 or its multiples.

The Yaws.
 On the west coast of Africa the natives call the raspberry a yaw. It happens that one of the pleasing diseases that come out from that quarter of the globe is characterized by dusky red spots that appear on the body and soon grow into ulcers about the size and looks of the rasperry. So this disease is called the yaws. It is contagious and downright disagreeable. White sailors bring it back with them to their own discomfort and the disgust of those at home. Yaws prevails also in the Fiji islands and in Samoa, but in these two places children mainly are attacked, and the natives regard the disease in the same light as civilized persons look at measles—almost a certainty to have and the sooner over with the better.

His Business.
 "There is a man who can always be depended on at a pinch."
 "Who is he?"
 "A policeman."—Baltimore American.

GRANT GIVES YOU ANOTHER ROUND

There will come a time some day,
 When you will be willing to pay
 That you might have Grant tack in the Lunch Room, as he is today.
 Some may think it's very funny
 That Grant can get the money.
 His cooking is so clean and neat,
 And people say it can't be best;
 It is always up to date; when he serves
 it on a plate
 He is happy as a big sunflower that nods and bends in the breeze;
 In the summer time it buds and blooms
 in the winter time it freezes.
 But Cooking is my trade I'm proud to say;
 I am stirring up something every day
 —Meat and vegetables, Pastry as well.
 They all say you can't beat me this side of—Adams.
 When you light in town with wrinkles
 in your tummy,
 Stop at Grant's—don't be a rummy;
 Don't stay away till you're almost dead
 For we're still handling Pendleton
 Bread.

Bill of fare for Saturday:
 Beefsteak, pork chops, sausage,
 Hamburger, liver and bacon, Winer-
 warts, coney islands, all ready put up
 at a women's notice.
 Dinner: Sats and pint them; Mrs.
 Morphy with a sealskin coat, Fido, Shep and a bale of hay. Chikens perforated popie, Doughnuts loaf in disguise; Adam and Eve on raft and wreck them; transparent soup.

—Grant.
