Mr. and Mrs. George Gregory and Miss King and Miss Kennedy of Walla Walla, were guests of Miss Zelma DePeat, Sunday. This is the week for Pioneer Picnic and the music is already on. See how Watts and Rogers will make you the richer for coming. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stone will reside in Athens. They will occupy the residence just vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haworth. Mrs. Elizabeth Mansfield went over to Weston last evening to attend the Pioneers picnic, of which association she is an honored member. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ely of Nampa, Idaho, were in the city this week, guests at the home of Mr. Ely's mother, Mrs. Henry Pinkerton. The weather has been right for maturing roses, and the result is that many beautiful blossoms may be seen in Athens flower gardens. Only three miles over the hill to where Watts and Rogers will offer to make you richer in going home than when you came. See Lig Ad. Tharp & Son will run auto stages between Athens and Weston today and tomorrow, for the convenience of those desiring to attend the picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koopke entertained Mr. and Mrs. Duason of this city, and Mr. Gildersleeve of New York, at their home south of town. Wm. Winship returned home Saturday afternoon from a business visit to Spokane. He was within two blocks of the scene of the bank robbery in the Falls city last week. Mr. and Mrs. William Tompkins returned home from California Friday evening. Mr. Tompkins is somewhat improved in health as compared with his condition before leaving home last fall. Mrs. A. R. Little, of Port Huron, Mich, who has been visiting her brother, F. B. Boyd, left Wednesday for Milton, where she will spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. D. Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. George Banister and Miss Helen Russell left on yesterday morning's train for Portland, where they will remain for a couple of weeks before proceeding to San Francisco to visit the Fair. Mrs. R. G. Saling, who favored the Picnic with a solo Saturday morning, left this week for Portland where she will receive instruction from Professor Ehrins of New York City, a vocal instructor of note. The weather conditions were perfect for holding the Athens picnic, and large crowds were in attendance both days. The literary program at City Park and the sports and games were especially interesting. A splendid specimen of woodwork may be seen at the office of B. B. Richards. The product is a beautiful table, made by Scott Fisher, the carpenter. Fir timber was used throughout and the effect is splendid. Today and tomorrow the Pioneers are holding their annual reunion at Weston. If the weather man will only be good, Weston people will again display their hospitality and the usual good time at Weston will be had. A. M. Boyden proprietor of the auto stage line between Weston and Pendleton, was married Saturday, May 29, to Miss Mand E. Suiste, recently graduated from the Pendleton High school. They will make their home in Weston. Joy Hayes was jugged Saturday afternoon for appearing on the streets driving a team while boozed up, and letting the team run away through crowd the dancing the picnic. The team ran into the corner at the McGrove store, where it left the rig against the curb. A number of women and children came near being injured when the team dashed through the crowd. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stewart and son, Louis left Wednesday evening for Portland, where they will take the boat for San Francisco, making the trip in the steamer Rose City. They will be joined en route by Miss Ruth

Stewart, who has been attending Pacific University, and also a sister of Mrs. Stewart, both of whom will accompany the party in their visit to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Athens was honored with a visit Saturday from Governor Withycombe, who remained in the city several hours. The governor was accompanied to Athens by Dr. W. D. McNary, superintendent of the Eastern Oregon hospital at Pendleton. Mrs. Bowles and daughter, Miss Laura Bowles, arrived in the city Sunday evening from California, where they spent the past winter, and will visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. F. S. LeGrow, before going to their home in Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bagley and daughter, Miss Elva, stopped over Monday night and visited Athens friends. They were en route by automobile from their home near Buhl, Idaho, to Portland for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bagley formerly conducted a grocery store in Athens, and are now prospering in their Idaho home. On Thursday, June 24, a demonstration car in charge of Mrs. M. E. King will be in Athens to demonstrate the making of jams, jellies and preserves for consumption in the home. The demonstration is to take place in the car at the O. W. R. & N. depot. The lecture will take place at 2:30 p. m. and will doubtless be largely attended by the ladies of Athens and vicinity. An automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Scott of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and their niece, Miss Katherine Donlevy, passed through Athens Wednesday morning en route to Los Angeles, California, and other points, where they will spend the summer, returning by way of Seattle. Mr. Scott is editor and proprietor of the Coeur d'Alene Evening and Weekly Press. A serious automobile accident occurred on Main street during the picnic Saturday afternoon. Charles Stanton of Helix, backed his car into the Mc Bride automobile. A little son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock was standing on the running board of the Mc Bride car, and the impact crushed him up against the side of the auto, resulting in a compound fracture of the leg. The bone was broken square-off above the knee, and the knee was also fractured. Dr. Stone carried the little fellow into his office, and he was later taken to Pendleton, and placed in the hospital, where he is getting along as well as could be expected. Irving Brooks, of the Athens Tennis Club participated in the tournament at Walla Walla Wednesday. He entered the finals and was defeated by Kroeseb the crank player, who for three years was champion of Chicago. Brooks gave him a good game, however, losing three out of four sets by the score of 6-4, 6-8, 6-0, 6-4. In the preliminaries Brooks defeated Young 6-0, 6-1; Fleming, 6-0, 6-2, 6-0; and in the semi-finals defeated Harwood 6-1, 6-4. In the preliminary doubles Brooks and Harwood won from Turner and Thompson, 6-6, 6-0; and in the semi-finals from Brown and Livingston 6-4, 6-0. They were compelled to let the finals go by default, because Mr. Harwood was obliged to leave before the sets were played off. A double murder was perpetrated at the Charles Ogilvy farm near Pilot Rock, Thursday evening of last week, when Mrs. Ogilvy was instantly killed and her husband shot in the stomach, which resulted in his death the next day. Lee Dale, a homesteader, residing near the Ogilvy farm, is in jail, charged with the awful crime. Ogilvy, thinking he would die before being found, wrote a statement on a calendar, saying that Dale committed the murder of his wife and shot him. Later when found, Mr. Ogilvy repeated that Dale shot him and his wife. Dale had been on a drunken debauch at Pendleton, and it was while returning home that he is alleged to have committed the deed. He claims no remembrance of having been at the Ogilvy ranch on the evening of the crime. Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy were the parents of Mrs. Earl Dudley.

Money is Going We Shall Keep Those 10,000 Pennies Going

Ten per cent off means a LOT. Supposing you try for cash every time you go in town and you go once or more times each week. That means 53 or more times a year and that you get 10 per cent each time making a total of over 530 per cent or more than five times the cost of the article. Can you see five of those articles laid in a row that you have saved by paying cash at Watts and Rogers? Now here goes some cash bargains for Pioneer Picnic week. The time when we guarantee that some people are going home RICHER THAN WHEN THEY CAME and we will make that Home Fellow wish he had been there too. We have six or eight new road carts, built alike, same style and color, look alike and ride alike. We defy anybody to show us one dollar's difference between any two of them. Prices for the two days of the picnic are $6.00, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50, $14.50, $16.50, etc. Dandy bicycles worth $28, $30 and $45. They will go the toboggan slide those two days at $1.00 off each hour from 9. a. m. to 5 p. m. We have six styles of washing machines and some of them will be put on the slide at 25 cents per hour off. One of the best sewing machines made, a Rotary Standard worth $45.00, we sell for $35.00, also the New Royal worth $30.00. Put a blanket over them and take you pick for $25.00. There will be three top and open buggies placed on the street each day at such prices that you will clutch when you hand us the price; and as for wagons, just try us—nothing in them but we will give YOU something out of them.

ZERBA-SCHRIMPF WEDDING

At high noon Sunday, June 6, 1915, occurred a happy event, when Virgil Zerba and Miss Eva May Schrimpf changed the loneliness of single life for the happy relation of married life, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Lambert of the M. E. church, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schrimpf, three miles north of town. The young couple were attended by Miss Beale Key and Mr. Eugene Schrimpf, brother of the bride. About twenty of their friends and relations witnessed the ceremony, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Ed Banks of Milton, and Mrs. Mumford of Pendleton. Both bride and groom are Athens products, having grown up in this vicinity. Mr. Zerba is one of the most highly respected and capable young business men of the city and his bride is also a favorite among the young people, and a bright future is predicted for them. Rev. Lambert, who furnishes this announcement, says he could hardly be expected to be quite himself this week as he made an honest effort to do his part to relieve the dinner table of its burden of good things set forth for the guests, after the ceremony.
