F. S. LaGrow, Sam Pambrun and Marion Hassell had the sport fishing on the Salmon last week. Yellow jackets was the one discomfiting feature of an otherwise pleasant trip.

Yesterday was one of the most sultry days of the season. A hot wind came from the east and the thermometer registered around the hundred mark.

W. P. Willaby, who but a few days ago left for his home in Portland, returned Tuesday on account of the grain fire in his field near town, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dickenson and children, and Mrs. N. Dickenson and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Chandler, went to Ukiah for a visit with relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Watts and Miss Alice Gaines spent a couple of days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson on the Umatilla river.

A. L. Swagart shipped a carload of hops to Portland Saturday. He went down with the stock, which topped the market price in the Portland yards.

Frank Betlin recently purchased the Brookner residence in the northwest part of town and will move in from the farm to send his children to the Athens school.

F. B. Radtke, the merchant, has leased the residence of Mrs. Della Maloney on west High street and with his family, will occupy the same about October 1.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, who accompanied her husband as far as Wrangell, B. C. on his boating trip into the Cascades country, returned home Wednesday evening.

The little four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cannon has been seriously ill this week. Dr. Sharp, the attending physician reports it better this morning.

Miss Clare Partridge has arrived from her home at Stewart, Nebraska, and is a guest of Mrs. Dobson. Her school duties at LaMar, District No. 30 will begin on Sept. 6.

Dr. J. M. Hott and wife, of Kansas City, arrived in the city last evening, on a short visit to his brother, Sam Hott and family. The brothers had not met before for 17 years.

A Jersey cow on the C. T. Smith farm near town yesterday presented her owner with a fine pair of twin calves, male and female, and Charles is duly appreciative of the event.

Frank Jackson has moved his family in from the farm to the property he purchased from Mr. Watson, known as the Geo Schubert place, in the north part of town, to take advantage of our splendid school facilities.

Lloyd Mitchell had the misfortune to lose the end of one finger while working in the mill the first of the week. The finger was caught in some machinery and crushed, so that a small piece of the bone had to be removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Desper are moving to Orchard, Wa., on the place recently purchased near there. Their residence on Third and Adams street will be occupied by the family of Jack Reed, the popular meat outer, who will move there over from Weston.

Mrs. William Winslip and Mrs. Sam Esworth went over to Walla Walla Monday to visit their mother, Mrs. John Martin, who is in very bad health. The ladies brought their mother home with them, and she is now at Mrs. Winslip's home.

Twelve sacks of wheat were missed in the Dean Dudley field by the grain haulers and the work horse soon found them when turned into the field. Two, one a valuable mare, became fondered. The mare died and the loss is keenly felt by the owner.

J. H. Harmon, pastor of the Christian church, arrived home from La Grande Tuesday, and in this week assisting in a series of lectures at Weston. Mr. Harmon will preach in his pulpit Sunday morning, at which service Miss Lowrey will give a short talk.

Jim Myrick, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $7.50 in Judge Richards' court Monday. John Doe Zerk was squeezed out of town for vagrancy. He had a penchant for fruit and would help himself from peddler's wagons down at the feed stables.

School starts in Athens, Monday, September 6. Although the date comes on labor day, the holiday is not observed by the public schools of the state, generally. This fact should be borne in mind and a full attendance is expected by Superintendent Guerne.

Next Wednesday, September 1, the regular monthly meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions will be held at the Christian church. In place of the regular program, a discourse will be given by the lecturer, Miss Lowrey. The public is cordially invited.

Dreamland program for Friday and Saturday evenings: 1 and 2—"Merely Mother," Biograph. 3—"Made Herself Beautiful," Lubin. Sunday: 1—"The Way of His Father," Essanay. 2—"The Beloved Adventurer," No. 2. 3—"Sophie's Legacy," Essanay.

Miss Cecile Boyd is expected to arrive home tomorrow evening, after spending the summer at Columbia University, New York. Leaving that city Saturday, she spent a couple of days with friends in Washington, D. C., and will reach Pendleton tomorrow on No. 17.

Weston Leader: Fire broke out Saturday evening in Ralph Kinnear's barn on Coose creek, during Mr. Kinnear's absence. His wife tirelessly fought the flames, carrying water from a trough some distance away, and had them nearly out when neighbors began to arrive. For a time both house and barn were in grave danger of destruction.

The ladies of the Methodist Aid society are arranging to hold a party sale Saturday, tomorrow afternoon in the Carden building, next door to the Carpenter Jewelry store. The very best of cakes, pies, bread and other pastry for which these ladies are so justly celebrated will be on sale, and Athens ladies will take advantage of the fact to avoid baking for Sunday dinner. The sale begins at 1 o'clock p. m.

O. M. Mortenson, traveling freight and passenger agent of the North Bank road, was in the city yesterday interviewing Athens business men. Mr. Mortenson offers splendid passenger and freight service to and from San Francisco via the Hill steamers, the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern. Shipments on these vessels out of San Francisco only take four days to reach Athens.

The ladies of the Library Board, who have announced a reception to the teachers and board of the Athens schools and the patrons, on September 10, will have the program in readiness for next week's paper. The reception, as announced in last week's Press, will be given in the auditorium of the new school building, and will open the season's social functions most auspiciously. A splendid program by local talent is promised.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the local Methodist Episcopal church was held Monday forenoon, with Rev. Andrew Warner of Walla Walla, district superintendent, presiding. This conference finishes up the year's work, and next week Rev. A. M. Lambert, accompanied by E. O. Worthington, will attend the annual conference which is to be held in Spokane. It is not yet known whether Mr. Lambert will be returned to this charge.

Mrs. Henry Koepke and daughter, Dorothy, arrived home Wednesday after a most pleasant visit of several weeks in California. Mrs. Koepke spent a week at her former home at Los Angeles, and noted many changes and improvements since her residence there. Her eldest son, Arnold, who accompanied her on the trip, has matriculated with the Watsonville, Calif., high school, and will remain for the school year, making his home with his brother, Dr. Koepke, a prominent physician of that city.

More than two hundred Pullmans including diners and sleepers have been ordered by the Portland division of the Union Pacific from Omaha and other points east to accommodate the specials which will be required to handle the big crowds attending the Sixth Annual Round-Up, September 23, 24 and 25. The Northern Pacific will draw about one hundred such cars from St. Paul and other Eastern points. All these will be parked in the yards where the passengers will eat and sleep during their stay in Pendleton.

Through the splendid artistic work of P. B. Adams assisted by E. B. Lee, the stage of the auditorium in the new school building has been furnished with settings and scenery. For the drop curtain, Mr. Adams did a superb painting of Multnomah Falls in oil. For the back curtain a painting of Mt. Hood makes a splendid background. Two settings, one interior and one exterior, with the wings, completes the equipment of scenery. With the installation of opera seats the new auditorium will be one of the best in the Inland Empire.

Sparks from an O-W-R. & N. locomotive set fire on the right of way between the Willaby and Taylor farms Northeast of Athens. Sufficient wind was blowing to fan the flames, which soon spread to the adjoining fields. Five hundred sixty-seven sacks of wheat were burned in the Taylor field of 80 acres, the grain belonging to John Bannister. Marion Hassell lost 60 sacks in the Willaby field. Besides all the grain in both fields a rail division fence on the Willaby place was practically consumed. A locomotive stood by during the fire and a large number of automobiles carried people to the scene.

Prof. O'Riley has been in Athens and Adams as the guest of Father Joy. Mr. O'Riley was here looking for pupils for St. Andrews School, Pendleton at which place he is to be teacher. Rev. Thos. Neale has been again appointed Superior and it is his intention to have one of the best schools in the state. The band will be under the direction of Father O'Riley, formerly band instructor at Gonzaga University, Spokane, Wash. This is an excellent opportunity for parents to send their children to a good school. School opens Sept. 1 and all should be enrolled as early as possible.—Adv.

For six rounds of a scheduled 10-round boxing contest at Urquhart's pavilion Friday night, Tommy Clark took the fight over to Farrell, and repped the Pendleton man seemingly at his own sweet will. Then in a clinch, both men went to floor, and Clark hurt his left knee. He was unable to go on and the bout was awarded to Farrell. Both men were in good condition and put up a slashing exhibition while it lasted. Earl Snyder and Buddy Stevens of Pendleton and Lawrence Duff of Pendleton and Ed Sebaski of this city went to draws in the preliminaries.

Carl Gulott, the Pendleton musician who so miraculously regained his eyesight a couple of weeks ago, came to Athens Friday evening to meet his friends here whom he had never before had the pleasure of seeing. It gave him joy to look into the face for the first time of some friend whom he had known for years by voice alone. Some would approach with outstretched hand of welcome, and always when he spoke, Mr. Gulott would beam with surprise when greeting him by name. Doubtless in every instance his conception of what the features of friends looked like were at great variance with what they really were. Mr. Gulott will probably organize a class in Athens again, for piano instruction.
