ATHENA, ORE. SEPT. 10.....1915

A Mulligan Stew

I have another friend. He delights in fishing—and spinning snake yarns. Last year while fishing in Wallowa county, (so he tells me,) he ran across many rattlers. They just became so blamed plentiful that he studied 'em from a snakeological standpoint (so he tells me) and one in particular, he let crawl across his brogan and rest while it lapped a drink of water from Big Sheep creek. This year he went over to Wallowa again, and I. John Dobson relates how our friend swathed his legs in a pair of rubber boots and kept to the middle of the stream. Guess why.

Alfred Pambrun is again handling the ribbons on the twice-a-day stage to and from the Pambrun ranch. His passengers are the same as last year. His schedule will terminate as usual with the school year.

There was a time when a man in this town spoke well of his neighbors, and his friends, and the church, and society, and the business men, and the farmers, and the whole community in general. But he died!

Good! If that old green bench down at Froome's could only talk, and repeat what is discussed there day by day! However, I firmly believe some people's sense of humor was hatched in a garbage can, anyway. So let 'er flicker.

"Two gentlemen were walking down the street. One of them was a newspaper man and the other one didn't have any money, either."

With the attention of His Honor, Mayor Watts, I rise to place in nomination for the office of City Marshal, a man who has made an enviable reputation in Umatilla County as political campaign manager of Georgia Robbins' Pendleton (dead) Live Wire; a man who cleverly carried and delivered the great Webfoot commonwealth of Oregon at the feet of the legislature as a prohibition state without frills or trimmings; a man, albeit, who has risen in managerial status until at present he manages to manage a movie shack in Portland. Mr. Mayor, I have the honor of presenting the illustrious name of Hon. Orton E. Goodwin.
