ATHENA, ORE. NOV. 12, 1915

With the appointment of a committee on plans, ways and means the Portland Chamber of Commerce will endeavor to secure a state-wide survey of the manufacturing needs of Oregon. The effort will be directed toward ascertaining what is now being manufactured in the state and under what conditions of transportation and labor, as well as an intelligent plan for reaching the markets of the world. It is a movement that will entail great labor and much expense, and it is probable that the committee will ask the state legislature of Oregon to assist in financing the work. It is conceded that Oregon should have additional factories, but with a limited population west of the Rocky Mountains, the thought has been advanced that manufacturers can only be brought to this state when it can be shown that they can reach world markets at a minimum cost. It is a work of vast importance to gather the data necessary to a proper presentation of all these conditions.

The Pacific Coast Manufacturer, edited by E. Hofer, believes that a policy of encouragement both state and national, toward our industries, railroads, public utilities, etc. whether coming from a democratic or republican administration would bring good times at once. Why should the continual agitation be kept up? We all have to make a living and it is hard to do when the wheels of industry are clogged and stopped with unnecessary legislation and high taxes. Punish the offenders whether "big" or "little" business but leave the field open so that those who are honest can prosper whether they represent an investment of $100 or $100,000,000.

Who will be selected as republican candidate for president next year will be determined by a process of elimination—unless Justice Hughes could be induced to accept the nomination, which does not appear likely, says the Walla Walla Union. The first prominent figure to be apparently eliminated is Elihu Root. We never could agree that Root would make a strong candidate, though he is unquestionably a great man and would make a good president. But the overwhelming defeat of the proposed constitution in New York, which Root took a prominent part in framing, ought to entirely silence those republicans who have advocated his nomination as a presidential candidate.

Was there something in connection with yourself or your family or your neighborhood that should have been mentioned in the paper this week? The fault of the oversight was more yours than ours. Editorial eyes are popularly supposed to see everything, but they don't, as this very omission proves. Had we known it, it would have been there. Next time anything occurs, just tell us about it. The phone is handy, and you will find us very thankful for any item. How we appreciate those few (they know who they are) who are kind enough to remember the paper and give us the news of their community.

It is one of the remarkable things that men will lay down their lives for their country when they feel that their country is in danger, but will frequently not cross the street or stop at the door of a booth to vote, when the voting may be almost as important as following the colors. It does not matter so much how men vote as it does that they go out and vote, for if they will take the pains to do that they will take some pains to inform themselves about the best way to vote, and almost any way of voting is better than the utter neglect of the franchise of which so many well meaning citizens are guilty.

The records of deaths of pedestrians and automobile parties on railroad crossings is appalling. It is impossible for a railroad company to always protect a person against his own foolishness. Stop, look and listen when you come to a railroad crossing.

The Hudson Bay News, published at Vincent by Griswold & Shely, is the latest journalistic venture in Umatilla county. It is a bright, new little sheet and deserves the patronage given it.

Buy it at home this Christmas. Keep prosperity in this town. It's good for all of us.

Get into the "buy at home" crowd. All mighty good people.

Pianoforte Recital.

A pleasing program was given by pupils of Miss Nellie Dea Whiting of the Malen Barnett school of Piano Playing at the home of Mrs. D. H. Mansfield Wednesday afternoon of last week. Those present were enthusiastic in their praise of the work done and the progress made since the last recital was favorably noted. Miss Whiting plans to have frequent musicales during the winter, in which all of her pupils will take part. The following program was given:

"Con Amore," Beaumont
"Valse Maestri," Elret
"Valse Waltz," Elret
"Birds in the Branches," Rodgers
"Lucinda Ball," Lucinda Ball
"Fireflies," Grant Schaefer
"Rocking the Cradle," Dutton
"Sadie Pambro," Satoris
"Italian Ditty," Streibog
"Woodenymphs," Heron
"Areta Littlejohn," Orth
"Little Waves," Orth
"Carolyn Koepke," Rodgers
"The Kangaroo," Maxine
"Wendell La Brasche," Gabearts
"La Violette," Gabearts
"Near the Fireplace," Sobmann
"Impromptu," op. 42 No. 2, Schubert
Kathren Froome.

The Story of "Hard Hit."
The Orchardson. "I thought that by killing you I could paint a picture like yours I would stab you to the heart." Such was the remark made by Pellegrini, the famous caricaturist, to the Royal Academician, Sir William Orchardson, when at a private view he first saw "Hard Hit," the picture of the ruined gambler. "It was," said the artist, "the greatest compliment I could have had." Curiously enough, the model who sat for the ruined gambler was rather fond of cards himself. One day the artist noticed that he looked somewhat depressed. "What is the matter?" he asked. "I was awfully hard hit last night," he answered. "By Jove," replied the artist, jumping up with delight, "I've got it at last! 'Hard Hit,' of course." And that is how the picture got its name.

Where Shelley Was Drowned.
Spedia, the principal naval station of Italy, and about fifty miles southeast of Genoa, described as "the Portsmouth of Italy," has interesting literary associations. It calls up memories of Byron, Shelley, Leigh Hunt, Charles Lever and Mary Somerville. Lever was in residence at Spedia intermittently for some years, and there wrote three of his books. But a more tragic interest is attached to the magnificent bay, for it will be recollected that it was while sailing in a new boat across the gulf to his home at Lerici that Shelley was drowned.

Musical Note.
"What opera did you hear last night?"
"Cecil had the program, and he said it was Libretto."
"How amusing!"
"Yes, wasn't it? Because it really wasn't Libretto at all."—Harvard Lampoon.

It Was a Fine Cod.
The artist William M. Chase once hired a fish, painted a picture of it in two hours and afterward sold it to the Corcoran Art gallery at Washington for $2,000. Mr. Chase afterward informed the fish dealer who had rented him the fish of the price he had received for the picture. "Well," commented the fishmonger, "it was a fine cod."—Philadelphia Record.

Economy vs. Quality

Everybody

no matter how full their purse, want their money to go as far as possible, but there is only one kind of real economy and it is summed up in the word QUALITY. Anything short of that is sure to bring dissatisfaction, for Quality means not only goodness in material, but the workmanship as well. You can assure yourself of this every time you do your trading at our store.
