A Subdued Vocalist.
"Pa, you sing bass in the choir, don't you?" asked Bobby Smithers.
"Yes, my son," replied Mr. Smithers.
"And ma sings soprano?"
"That's right."
"Well, there's one thing I don't understand."
"What is it?"
"Mrs. Tompkins says you sing mighty big in public and mighty small at home."

A Solution.
"I see that the English newspapers complain because the British workman drinks a few glasses of beer and then can't do anything else all day."
"Why in the world don't the English government make a Christmas present of a day's supply of that beer to each German soldier?"—Judge.

Mr. Bradshaw was in a great hurry and breakfast was late.
"I wish you'd find out what this trouble is," he said to his wife.
Mrs. Bradshaw returned from the kitchen wearing a melancholy expression.
"Well, well," demanded the husband, "what did she say?"
"She said," responded the wife, "that we all have our disappointments."—Drowning's Magazine.

WILSON'S SOCIAL SEASON TO BE GAY

Two Diplomatic Dinners Will Be Given to Avoid Friction.

NEUTRALS WILL BE GUESTS OF BOTH

Allies' Turn to Come First; Germany, Austria and Turkey Second— Other Dinners to Follow.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson announced Monday a gay season for the coming winter. He and his bride will be the host and hostess at several receptions and dinners.

Among these dinners will be two given for the diplomatic corps. Hereafter only one dinner has been given. That, however, was in time of peace, when the British and German, the Russian and Italian, and all the other ambassadors representing the two armed camps of Europe, were on speaking terms. To overcome the present awkward situation, two dinners will be given.

Here, again, the President is likely to find himself in difficulties. Which side will be represented at the first dinner? In other words, who will have precedence? Again, who will be asked to meet the allies, and who the Germans and Austro-Hungarians?

The State department has carefully studied this question. The dean of the diplomatic corps is Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador. Naturally, he must be invited to the first function. This means that invitations must be extended also to the British ambassador, the Russian ambassador, the Japanese ambassador, and the Italian ambassador.

The understanding is that the representatives of all the neutral nations will be invited at the same time.

The second dinner will be given with Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, as the guest of honor. His colleagues of Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria likewise will be invited.

In order that no untoward questions shall develop, the representatives of all the neutral nations will be asked for the second time to dine at the White House.

SON, ONCE THOUGHT DEAD, HOME AGAIN; PARENTS COLLAPSE

Oregon City, Or.—Charles Sturgis, 42 years old, who disappeared two years ago after escaping from the insane asylum at Salem, and whose body some months ago supposedly was buried by his parents, walked into the home of his aging parents at Canby Tuesday night, a rejuvenated and apparently a rational man.

The shock was so severe that his father and mother both collapsed on hearing the news and before they could see or welcome him.

The return of Charles Sturgis vindicates the aged mother's intuition often expressed in the last few weeks that her son was not dead. She often feared that they had buried the wrong body and expressed a vague feeling that some day "Charley" would return. Only comparatively recently, after patient waiting for the son to return, had she appeared to accept his death as certain.

In May a body, on which was clothing similar to that worn by Sturgis when he was last seen, was found on the outskirts of Eugene. Word was sent to the man's parents and a relative went to the university city and there identified the body as that of Charles Sturgis.

The body was returned to Canby and the funeral services were duly performed on May 17 over the body supposed to be that of the lost son.

DEFECTIVE INFANT PERMITTED TO DIE

Death Sentence Is Praised, Also Severely Criticised.

MOTHER OF DEFORMED BABE IS FIRM

Doctor Who Condemned It Declared Tot Would Be Great Sufferer and Burden All Its Life.

Chicago—The Bollinger baby, a defective, whose mother, on professional advice, decided it should not undergo an operation which probably would have saved its life, died Thursday at the German-American hospital here.

The child was baptized with the name of John shortly before its death. Mrs. Bollinger was not immediately informed of the death of the baby. The subject of the propriety of the sacrificing the life of the infant, that it might not grow up a burden to itself and a possible menace to society, was the subject of widespread discussion.

Dr. H. J. Haiselden, on whose advice the mother acted, was visited by many medical men and telephone calls alternately accused and praised him. He remained unaltered in his conviction that death was the greatest blessing which could be hoped for.

"Would his mind be clear?" Would his soul be normally alive?" one of the visitors asked.

"That I do not know, but the chances are against it," Dr. John E. Murray, ex-president of the American Medical association, and physicians and professional men and women, including several clergymen, generally took sides with Dr. Haiselden. But his critics were few and far between.

Mrs. Anna Bollinger, the mother, remained in a room nearby. Many times she asked:
"Is it dead?"
She remained steadfast in her belief that death was best for the little one. She has three healthy children and the plight of the condemned one is believed to have been due to an attack of typhoid fever which the mother suffered recently.

The authorities took no action further than to determine that no death certificate should be issued until after an investigation by the coroner.

Young American is Free.
New York—Friends of Wolfgang C. Triest, a New York contractor, received word from London that Mr. Triest, who was interned in a prisoner-of-war camp, had been released from the British detention camp at Chatham and will start for America with his father. Young Triest ran away from Princeton and enlisted in the British navy, was arrested as a German spy and was saved from possible execution through representation by the State department that he was not responsible for his actions.

Apple and Potato Crop Big.
The average yield, all crops, per acre in the Pacific Coast states made a very favorable showing, according to a government crop report just issued. The comparison is made with the average yields of recent years and is shown in percentages as follows:
Oregon, 100%; Washington, 104.3%; Idaho, 97.9%; California, 103.8.

In the detailed report on the American apple crop, the department says: "The apple production for local and farm use, as well as commercial consumption, as reported November 1, 76,870,000 bushels, more than confirms the earlier promise of a large crop. The crop is approximately 8,000,000 bushels less than last year's bumper crop, but 18,000,000 bushels above the five-year average.

Of the American potato crop the government report says:
"The estimates of potato yield show a decline of 2.3 bushels per acre from the promise of a month ago. The estimated yield of 96.3 bushels indicates a total crop of 359,000,000 bushels, 47,000,000 bushels less than the large crop of last year, and 3,000,000 bushels greater than the five-year average.

Hog Market Good.
In general price conditions of swine in Portland are unchanged. Cattle values are quoted steady with demand for good quality. Sheep are firm. The undertone of the hog market is inclined to be weak in view of the large receipts of late, but a smaller run is looked for this week than last.

The Power behind the dough

You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K.C. Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain.

No Longer Responsible.
The dangers of travel by sea at this time have played havoc with the nerves of timid passengers.

Congressman Takes Money.
Patrolman Patrick J. Walsh of the South Englewood station, Chicago, was looking for some young trees to plant around his bungalow. Near there he came across a man clad in khaki, seemingly a laborer, hard at work in a grove.

Lawyer—Judge, I want you to fine this man who has knocked down by my client's car.

Polite Substitution.

Scares 'em.
"How did you get rid of that life insurance agent so quickly?"
"Oh, I'm always prepared for those fellows. I keep a large bottle of cod liver oil in plain sight on my desk, and when an agent calls I greet him with a hollow cough."
