The other day Alfred Pamtrun and his dogs killed a coyote near the city limits. It was the largest one the young man had ever captured, and when he went to remove the pelt, he was greatly surprised to find around its neck a leather collar which measured only two and three-quarter inches in diameter when tacked. It was entirely imbedded in the flesh of the neck, and how the animal ever managed to breathe is a wonder. It had been captured in puppyhood by someone, who put the collar on it then, and shortly afterward it had evidently made its escape. It was easily taken by Mr. Pamtrun's dogs, which is evidence that its training must have been greatly impaired by the tight clasp of the collar.

Visit Davis-Kaser Now

There's double inducement just now—the Rommage Sale with its numerous out price items, hundreds of useful, staple things that are needed in almost every home at prices that make it well worth while.

Then there are new Spring Goods. Three of the most interesting shipments received recently are: A new lot of Crotonas for dresses, the very latest effects—Stripes, Tapestry effects and others of the "different" sort.

New Hugs, too. Several lots are in, embracing nearly all grades from the inexpensive Tapestry to the wonderful new Hartford Saxony rug, rug that delight, rug that wear for generations, that become heirlooms.

Two Car Loads of American Beds and Springs make the third item referred to. These are the beds that are made of smooth steel tubing instead of ordinary iron pipe, that have the 25-year guaranteed malleable legs, which fit perfectly and hold the bed rigidly, instead of the usual bothersome, trittle, clumsy and rickety ornate castings. These beds come in white enamel, in the rich, Venia Martin and in brass.

All these were contracted for before the advance in prices became effective. Our advantage is reflected in the prices, which will appeal to you quite as much as the goods.

Come the very first chance, and don't forget the Rommage Sale which will soon end.

School Notes

The basket ball game played at Ferndale last Saturday between the Athena and Ferndale High boys' teams resulted in a defeat for the Athena quintet, the score being 25 to 13. The game was good, considering the handicap of the Athena boys, as the ball was under size and the goals were home manufactured. The lineup was as follows: Ferndale, Built and Good man, forwards; Harrison, center; Heiderlex and Saylor, guards; Athena, Sharp and McPherrin, forwards; Payne center; Booher and McIntyre guards.

The Milton High school girls' team will play the return basket ball game here tonight in the gymnasium with the local high school girls. These teams are evenly matched as was shown by the game played at Milton, the score being 19-13 in Athena's favor. The game will be played with the one line and a close contest is expected. An effort is being made to have a preliminary game between the local all stars and the High school team.

The party given by Der Fremdschaftsbund the German Club, last Friday evening, was well attended by the faculty, High school students and other invited friends. The Domestic Science room was used for the occasion. Various games were played and late in the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Out of the entire high school student body, only one student, Frances Febr, was able to pass the examination for exemption from the course in spelling during the second semester. The examination, which is very difficult, is given by Superintendent C. A. Guetere and the passing grade is 80 per cent. Fifty words were taken from the high school spelling text book for the test.
