Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backsorts of distress, particularly back-ache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headachs, torpid liver, sleeplessness, biadder and torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous saits is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, comacid of grapes and lemon juice, com-bined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kid-neys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Money in Dandelion Roots.

Selling dandelion roots at 4 to 6 cents per pound offers a pretty fair premium on removing the dandellon pests from lawns, fields and pastures. Since 100,000 pounds or more are imported annually into the United States it seems that many a young boy or girl ought to make fairly good wages by collecting and preparing dandelion roots for the drug trade. The root is used medicinally in dis-cases of the liver and dyspepsia, re-ports H. S. Hammond, of the O. A. C. Botany department, Corvallis Ore.

Gentle Criticism.

No Accounting For Juriss.

Many verdicts of a strange, curious and humorous nature find birth not infrequently in coroner's juries and juries in justice's courts.

Uncommonly intelligent are the coroner's juries in Mississippi. Twelve men in Warren county, in that state, returned a verdict several years ago which read: "The deceased died by the will of God or some other disease unknown to the jury."

Another verdict, equally as solemn, anknown to the jury."

Another verdict, equally as solemn, reads: "We are of A Pinion that the Decest met with her death from Violent Infirmation of the Arm, producest from Unoan Cauz."

An old story, oft repeated, is that an English jury in a criminal case once brought in the following. "Guilty, with some little doubt as to whether he is the man."

Another is told of a Welsh jury, which reads: "We find the man who stole the mare not guilty."—Docket.

A young man who had been snub-bed at the theater door decided to get even with his girl friends.
