	The second se	the second s	and the second se	a second s ing for Montaus, being accompanied	This evening at 7:30, in the High			a second second the home of her daughter in Walla		school auditorium, a joint detate on the proposed bond issue will be held	T7' 1	T
	R. A. Thompson has accepted a po-	A L. Swagnast saturned from Post.	between J. T. Hinkle of Hermiston,	K 110/7	Imploment Heile	10
sil	tion as salesman with C. A. Barrett	land this morning, after disposing of	favoring the bonds, and Eugene E. Smith of Portland, opposing. This		Implement Hous
lla Walla Monday.	Company.	a car load of bogs at the morth Forth	meeting affords an opportunity to hear	and the state of t	THIDIOTHOTIC TOOL	00
orn, to Mr. and Mrs. Rcy Walker, in	Miss Lein Garfield of Walls Walls, a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R.	a state of the sta	both sides of the bond question, and no doubt a large andience will greet	-		San - No
y 11th, 1916, a son. So	ott, in this city.	left Saturday for a fortuight's visit			the state of the s	111
	Mrs. D. H. Mansfield visited her		J. A. Bartlett, proprietor of Bart-	We hav	ve just received a new line of very	21.2.745
Ir. and Mrs. J. A. Kirk are in the Sa	ter Mrs. Wright, in Walla Walla	Hard a second	lett's Garage of this city, has been given the agency of the famous Chev-	fine Por	nges. They are guaranteed for 15	199.8
from their home at Holean	The Dobson home on east Main	given last Thursday and Friday to	rolet car. His territory embraces	Inc Kai	nges. They are guaranteed for 15	1. 1. 1.
irs. J. H. Stargis visited in Athena str	eet is receiving a new cost of paint		Atheas, Weston and Millon-Free- water. The Chevrolet is a new car	vears, at	nd the fire box for 5 years. These	Sec. 14
the strength of the strength o	d other improvements.	[Jos. N. Scott has finished plowing	in this section, but its splendid record			1912
Irs. Al Johnson bas been quite ill her home in this city, during the At	Jacob Booher, popular tailor of bens, spont the week with friends		for efficiency is placing it well up in the front racks of the best sellers. A	Ranges	are made in Portland and you save	1.12-55
ik. at	Ritter, on a fishing expedition.	top. Dr. W. R. Scott.	carload of these cars are expected to			1 61 X
	Mrs. C. A. Barrett was in Peudle-	Mrs. George Clark and baty of Peo-	arrive in Pendleton today, and a dem- opstrating car will be on exhibition		The Freight ved to the Brown cottage on Fourth ton set. ne	wly arrived granddaughter at the		at the garage and on the streets.	and the second second		127.64
ne nennt patatanà mignt dance,	epital.	Forrest home south of town.	The meeting of the auxiliary of the			S
	Grover Bowles who visited here a w days at the home of his sister,		Christian Woman's Board of Missions Wednesday afternoon at the home of	from ha	ck East, which insures right prices.	1
	rs. F. S. LaGrow, left Sunday mora-	this week for an extended visit with	Mrs. Henry Kcepke near town, as an ticipated was the annual event of that	nom ba	ick Bast, which moulds light prices.	1. S. P. relatives in Illinois and New Jorsey.	society. Six automobiles and several	cA full	line of Hardware and implements,	A 25 - 50 and the second second second			carringes were taxed to accommodate the fifty or more attending, and the
TIT Jan Diana	ad fam War	bekah lodge Tuesday evening. The	spacious rooms of the Koepke hone	Tents, F	Hammocks, Binder Twine, power	1813
We've Plann	ed lot. Ton 6	usual jolly good time was had by all.	were tilled with the members and in vited guests. A special room had been	Washin	g Machines, Fishing Tackle, etc. 🥩	S. Carton
		A nine year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, residents of Weston	set apart for the pleasure of the obil-	vvasiiiii	g Machines, Pisning Tackic, etc.	1977
Winter or Sommer, whatever the		mountain, died Tuesday, Funeral services were held at Weston, yester-	dren, and for this the youngaters showed their appreciation, by enjoy-	Make our store your headquarters. # # #
we have spent months in planning and time-that's part of the Davis-Kaser is		day.	ing it to the utmost. The regular program was carried out, with Mrs.	Mane our store your neadquarters, 4 4 4 interests of its customers in the matter	of quality, in the matter of	Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tay-	Errett as leader. Several new mem-	North Side Mai	St CHARLES KIRK Athana Om	enon price and by having the proper merobandise when wanted. Notice		lor, May 9th, 1916, a daughter. The little stranger bears the relationship	pers were added to the roll. Lavish refreshments were served by Mrs.	North Side Main St. CHARLES KIRK, Athena, Oregon lines tefore price advances became effective. As a result we are able Koepke, assisted by Mrs. Chester Davis			1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices	Mrs. David Taylor.	and Miss Lillian Gerking.
to sell most of our lines at last year's p lasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when		and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home	The
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misocllan- cous shower was given in anticipation	The	But yourself (
to sell most of our lines at last year's p lasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Massfield, a missellar- cous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss	The	Put yourself
to sell most of our lines at last year's p lasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Least Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mausfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel MoIntyre, whose nuptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an-	The	Put yourself in HER place
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stantield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- tranch home. Mr and Mrs. Thom-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were desintily draped in	The	in HER place
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now-	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Ocuch hammocks; Automatic	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stantield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and while, festoons covering the	The Chevro	Put yourself in HER place Mr. Man
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer harmooks and Rafrigerators: Ice Gream Freezers; Gr ing Machines; Wringers; ABC metal	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stanfield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta.	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im-	Chevro	in HER place
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purobas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks au Refrigerators: Ice Gream Freezers; Gr	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Ocuch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Oribs; Goodrich and Go.Carts; Monarch Mallesble	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has so- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Aiterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore mat of the week from a business trip	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im-	Chevro	in HER place
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Crite; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleshie brand Silverware; Fine Cot	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stantield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a bainess frip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molntyre, whose nuptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertaioment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea-	Chevro)- in HER place Mr. Man
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay puronas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Actomatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Mallesble d trand Silverware; Fine Out rs of Roge have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain-	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has so- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Aiterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore mat of the week from a business trip	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel MoIntyre, whose nuptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were disintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three mains norms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white tu- lips gracing toe tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re-	Chevro	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur. There's no overheating
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay puronas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carte; Monarch Malleable 1 trand Silverware; Fine Out are of Ruge have advanced prices e colorings will not te obtain. . Theo, too, our stock is un-	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- scon, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the oploion that the country across the	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- messe boquets of pink and white tu- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- porter will the left to the imagination of the general public. An original	Chevro	0- in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather There's no overheating the kitchen withanup-to-
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay puronas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when my almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carte; Monarch Malleable 1 trand Silverware; Fine Out are of Ruge have advanced prices e colorings will not te obtain. . Theo, too, our stock is un-	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stanfield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her sobool at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the opinion that the country scross the border has a splendid future agiioul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene,	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the celling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white ta- lips gracing the tables. The special entertaioment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will te left to the imagination of the general public. An original poem. "A Topst to the Bride," was	Chevro let	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother or sister or daughter.
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleshie i trand Silverware; Fine Cut are of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not te obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Staufield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- sco., who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the oploion that the country across the border has a splendid future agricul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have moved in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baytist parson-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- meose boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing tue tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will to left to the imagination of the general public. An original poem, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the	Chevro let	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother or sister or daughter, can prepare the with
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasta. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carte; Monarch Mallesble I trand Silverware; Fine Cut are of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not to obtain. A Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices on size, while at present prices	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr, and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the opioion that the country across the border has a splendid future splical- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engene, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parson- age. Mre. Rice is an expert dress-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- meose boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will the left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of	Chevro let A New Car W	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother or sister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, com-
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Orits; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Rugs have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices on, WALLA WALLA an and Schools-10-29 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stanfield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the oplaion that the country across the border has a splendid future agiioul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have moved into the Baptist parson- age. Mre. Rice is an expert dress- maker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time.	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were dsintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- tips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will the left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Mies Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the dsintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each gneet. A diminutive bride with her	Chevro let	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, com- fortable kitchen? There's no overheating the kitchen with anup-to- date oil cook stove. It's just like cooking with city gas. The burners con- centrate the heat at the different cooking points
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasta. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Orits; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Rugs have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices on, WALLA WALLA an and Schools-10-29 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Stantield schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thom- sco., who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country scross the border has a splendid future agitoul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engune, here arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parson- age. Mrs. Rice is an expert dress- mather, and is prepared to take orders at the present time.	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- messe boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will be left to the Imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the desintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminotive bride with her- retinue formed the center-place, while on another table was disclosed her	Chevro let A New Car W	0- Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, com- fortable kitchen? There's no overheating the kitchen with anup-to- date oil cook stove. It's just like cooking with city gas. The burners con- centrate the heat at the different cooking points
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Orits; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Rugs have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices on, WALLA WALLA an and Schools-10-29 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr, and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the opinion that the country across the border has a splendid future splical- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engune, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mre. Rice is an expert dress- maker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evening in the dining room of the M. E. church, a basquat will be given by mumbers of the	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel MoIntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- meose boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will to left to the Imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminutive bride with her "patron saint." Four ruled the even-	Chevro let A New Car W	 in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that during the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, comfortable kitchen? NEW PERFECTION
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Orits; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Rugs have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices on, WALLA WALLA an and Schools-10-29 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her sobool at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr, and Mrs. Thomp- son, who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the opicion that the country scross the border has a splendid future agitoul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engene, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mrs. Rice is an expert dress- maker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evaning in the dioing room of the M. E. church, a basquet will be given ty members of the Junior. Sophomore and Freedmen	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing tue tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will to left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminutive bride with her "patron saint." Fon ruled the even- ing, and the bide-to-be roceived many present of linen, out glass, silver etn.	Chevro let A New Car w a Glorious Rec	 in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that during the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, comfortable kitchen? NEW PERFECTION
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks and Rafrigerators: los Gream Freezers; Or ing Machines; Wringers; ABC metal Chiettain Reel Hose; Storgis Loury Ranges; Tudor Porch Shades; World Glass; Rugs all grades. Buy Rugs now. All manufactures very abarply on many grades and some able when present stocks are exhausted usually complete as to styles, quality of they are distinct bargains. THE DAVIS-KASER CO Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office TUMM-A-LUMBER	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not te obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices of scools-10-20 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr, and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the opinion that the country across the border has a splendid future splical- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engune, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mre. Rice is an expert dress- maker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evening in the dining room of the M. E. church, a basquat will be given by mumbers of the	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mease boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- porter will be left to the Imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the deintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminotive bride with her- retinue formed the center-place, while on another table was disclosed her "patron saint." Fon ruled the even- ing, and the hide-to-be society many presents of linen, out glass, silver eth.	Chevro let A New Car w a Glorious Rec	 in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that during the hot weather your wife or mother or sister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, comfortable kitchen? NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK-STOVE
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not te obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices of scools-10-20 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country across the border has a splendid future agricul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mrs. Rice is an expert dress- matker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evening in the diotong room of the M. E. church, a bacquet will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Frestmenn elasses in honor of Supt. C. A. Guerne and the Senior class.	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misocilar- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were desintly draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- tips gracing the tables. The special entertaioment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will to left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Miss Bells Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the deintiest of Gupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminotive bride with her "patron asint." Fon ruled the even- ing, and the hide-to-be isocived many presents of linen, out glass, silver etn. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the patry, the anocess of which was due to the efforts of Miss	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec	 in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that during the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, comfortable kitchen? NEW PERFECTION 	or
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplets our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for.	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not te obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices of scools-10-20 Alder St.	 Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking district last week. Miss Barnes has eccepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country scross the border has a splendid future agticulturally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baytist parsonage. Mrs. Rice is an expert dressmaker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evaning in the diong room of the M. E. oburch, a bacquet will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freehmen classes in honor of Supt. C. A. Guerne and the Scelur class. 	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misocilar- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- lips gracing toe tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- porter will to left to the Imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tossi to the Bride," was read by Miss Bells Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminuitive bride with her "patron asint." Fun ruled the even- ing, and the hild-to-be received many presents of linen, out glass, silver eth. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the patry, the snocess of who formed the patry, the snocess of who was due to the efforts of Miss Mansfield and Miss Lula Tharp.	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec	with cord NEW PERFECTION NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK-STOVE	or No to
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplate our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks and Rafrigerators: for Gream Freezers: Or ing Machines: Wringers: ABO metal Chiettain Reel Hone; Stargis Lozory Ranges; Tudor Porch Shades; World Glass; Rugs, all grades. Buy Rugs now. All manufactures very sharply on many grades and some able when present stocks are exhausted usually complete as to styles, quality of they are distinct bargains. THE DAVIS-KASER CO Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office ("Tum-a-Lumber"-a Buy	prices so long as present slock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic orgest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Orits; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleshie a trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Rugs have advanced prices s colorings will not to obtain- d. Theo, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices and Schools-10-20 Alder St.	 Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking district last week. Miss Barnes has accepted a position in the Standed schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and resturned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country scross the border has a splendid future agriculturally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engune, here arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baptist parsonage. Mre. Rice is an expert dressmater, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evening in the dining room of the M. E. church, a bacquat will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen classes in honor of Supt. C. A. Guerne and the Senlur class. The Athena and Weston High school base ball team are playing this afternoon on the local diamoud. A game is being arranged with Peudleton High 	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- cous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel MoIntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nonneed to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tores which, though known to the re- portor will the left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Gupids indicating the place of each great. A diminotive bride with her "patron saint." Fan ruled the even- ing, and the hide-to-be received many presents of linen, out glass, silver etc. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the party, the success of which was due to the selorts of Miss Mansfield and Miss Lula Tharp.	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec	with cord Fr The formation of the forma	or No to ng
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks and Rafrigerators: los Gream Freezers; Or ing Machines; Wringers; ABG metal Chiettain Reel Hose; Storgis Luxury Ranges; Tudor Porch Shades; Work Glass; Rugs, all grades. Buy Rugs now. All manufactures very abarply on many grades and some able when present stocks are exhauster usually complete as to styles, quality of they are distinct bargains. THE DAVIS-KASER CO Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office ("Tum-a-Lumber"—a Buy You never had a better obsance in p	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Oauch hammocks; Automatic oquest sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable is trand Silverware; Fine Out and of Ruge have advanced prices a colorings will not te obtain. A Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices and Schools-10-20 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- sco., who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country across the border has a splendid future agricul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mrs. Rice is an expert dress- matker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evaning in the dioing room of the M. E. church, a bacquet will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen classes in honor of Supt. C. A. Guernes and the Senior class.	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a miscellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molntyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralph Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were desintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- tips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- portor will the left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tosst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the deintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each spects. A diminotive bride with her- retinue formed the center-place, while on another table was disclosed her "patron smint." Fou ruled the even- ing, and the hide-to-be received many presents of linen, cut glass, silver etc. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the patry, the success of which was due to the efforts of Miss Mansfield and Miss Lula Thurp. Athena and Umapine Win.	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec	with cord For Bency For Rency	or No to mg do ull
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks and Ratrigerators: Ice Gream Freezers; Or ing Machines; Wringers; ABC metal Chiettain Reel Hone; Storgis Luxury Ranges; Tudor Porch Shades; World Glass; Rugs, all grades. Buy Rugs now. All manufacture very abarply on many grades and some able when present stocks are exhausted usually complete as to styles, quality of they are distinct bargains. THE DAVIS-KASER CO Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office Muther of Homes, Information ("Tum-a-Lumber"-a Buy You never had a better obsance in y been hanging fire. If there every was a It is very unlikely that lumber will here the mat two or three years. Will	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the senson is over, and when any almost as much is some causes -It pays. add prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Aatomatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wash- Beds and Cribs; Goodrach and Go-Carte; Monarch Mallesble d trand Silverware; Fine Out are of Rugs have advanced prices o colorings will not te obtain. A. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices o colorings will not te obtain. A. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices of Schools - 10-20 Alder St. CONCES STILL LOW word for good lumber) 	 Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking district last week. Miss Barnes has excepted a position in the Standeld schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who cocupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country scross the border has a splendid future agticulturally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Eugene, have arrived in Athena to reside, and have moved into the Baytist parsonage. Mrs. Rice is an expert dressmaker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evaning in the diong room of the M. E. obneth. a basquet will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freehmen classes in honor of Supt. C. A. Guerne and the Scelur class. The Athena and Weston High school base ball team are playing this afternoon on the local diamond. A game is being arranged with Peudleton High for May 19th, the last of the season for the school teams. 	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misoellan- eous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of plak and white to- lips gracing the tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tores which, though known to the re- porter will to left to the imagination of the general public. An original posm, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Belle Molatyre. In the dining room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each great. A diminutive bride with her "patron saint." For ruled the even- ing, and the bride-to-be received many presents of linen, out glass, silver etc. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the party, the success of which was due to the efforts of Miss Mansfield and Miss Lula Tharp. Athena and Umspine Win. While Athena was dafeating Adams S to 4 Sunday, Umspins defeated He- ling the spine of 12 to 8.	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec	<pre>in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, com- fortable kitchen?</pre> There's no overheating the kitchen with anup-to- date oil cook store. It's just like cooking with city gas. The burners con- centrate the heat at the different cooking points NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK-STOVE Name Store Bett Result: Use worolet New Y with a smoke and smet In 2, 3, and 4-burners com- cather of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store o	or No to ng do 111
to sell most of our lines at last year's plasts. But none should delay purchas are likely to so deplete our stocks befor we have to replenish we will have to p as we are now selling for. Buy now- Among the lines we are selling at the following: Palmer hammooks and Rafrigerators: los Gream Freezers; Or ing Machines; Wringers; ABO metal Chiettain Reel Hone; Storgis Luxury Ranges; Tudor Porch Shades; World Glass; Rugs, all grades. By Rugs now. All manufactures very sharply on many grades and some able when present stocks are exhauster usually complete as to styles, quality of they are distinct bargains. THE DAVIS-KASER CO Complete Furnishers of Homes, Office ("Tum-a-Lumber"-a Buy You never had a better obance in y been hanging fre. If there ever was a It is ever unlikely that humber wins a to be are used as better obance in y here hanging fre. If there ever was a It is ever unlikely that humber wins and they are disting the thomes wins a State was marked as better obance in y here has here wins in the sever wins a It is ever unlikely that humber wins a	prices so long as present stock sing. Our advantageous prices re the season is over, and when any almost as much is some cases -It pays. old prices for the present are d Couch hammocks; Automatic oquet sets, $1.00 to $4.00; Wasb- Beds and Cribs; Goodrich and Go-Carts; Monarch Malleable is trand Silverware; Fine Out ra of Rugs have advanced prices a colorings will not to obtain- d. Then, too, our stock is un- and size, while at present prices and Schools-10-27 Alder St.	Mrs. David Taylor. Miss Anice Barnes closed a success ful term of school in the Gerking dis- trict last week. Miss Barnes has ac- cepted a position in the Standed schools for next year. Mrs. W. E. Dobson has finished her school at Waterman station and re- turned home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomp- son, who occupied her home during the winter, left Saturday for Alterta. W. S. Ferguson returned the fore part of the week from a business trip to Alberta. Mr. Ferguson is of the option that the country scross the border has a splendid future agricul- turally speaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rice of Engene, have moved into the Baptist parson- sge. Mrs. Rice is an expert dress- maker, and is prepared to take orders at the present time. Tomorrow evening in the diotng room of the M. E. church, a bacquat will be given by members of the Junior, Sophomore and Freedmen and the Senior class. The Athens and Weston High school base ball team are playing this aftor- noon on the local diamoud. A game is being arranged with Peudleton High for May 19th, the last of the season for the school teams. Miss Gladys Andre will leave to-	and Miss Lillian Gerking. Last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Maude Mansfield, a misocilar- cous shower was given in anticipation of the approaching wedding of Miss Ethel Molatyre, whose noptials with Mr. Ralpb Cannon have been an- nounced to take place on May 24th. The rooms were daintily draped in pink and white, festoons covering the ceiling of three main rooms, and im- mense boquets of pink and white to- lips gracing toe tables. The special entertainment of the evening was a mock wedding, with some special fea- tures which, though known to the re- porter will te left to the Imagination of the general public. An original peam, "A Tonst to the Bride," was read by Miss Bells Molatyre. In the diving room, covers were laid for twenty-six, and with the daintiest of Cupids indicating the place of each guest. A diminuitive bride with her "patron asint." Fun ruled the even- ing, and the hilde-to-be received many presents of linen, out glass, silver eth. from the maids and younger matrons who formed the patry, the success of Muss fuel and Miss Lula Tharp. Athena and Umapine Win. While Athena was defeating Admass S to 4 Sunday, Umapine defeated He- lix by the acore of 12 to 8.	Chevro .let A New Car wa a Glorious Rec Line thave secured the ag for the famous Chevro	with cord with cord wrolet wrolet wrolet in HER place Mr. Man Why not get a good oil stove so that dur- ing the hot weather your wife or mother orsister or daughter, can prepare the meals in a cool, com- fortable kitchen? There's no overheating the kitchen with anup-to- date oil cook stove. It's just like cooking with city gas. The burners con- centrate the heat at the different cooking points NEW PERFECTION Source of the store of the comparison of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store of the store o	or No to go do lill

Hurry Along Your Building

tions are AIGHT and that America IS prosperous-Well our best advice

Press m Mzs. J. I. Walla Walls Born, to M May 11th, 1 Mine Maude io Walls W Mr. and M city from the Mrs. J. H. from Pendlet Mrs. Al Jo at her home week. Mr. and moved to the street. The usual with Urgub the music, evening.

to you is to

4

Many of our oustomers are using the complete blue printed plans with our correct estimates on material costs prepared and furnished by our Architects and Engineers—on Homes, Barns, Silos, Hog-sheds, Granaries, Elevators, and all other buildings.

morning. Bible school at 10; no ser-vices at the preaching hour. Junior C. E. at 3; C. E. at 7 and preaching and communion at 8 p. m. Midwaek meeting Wednesday evening, chorus rebearsal Friday evening. With everything in readiness for the 12th annual convention of the 5th district Woodman of the World, to be held in this city next Wedness day evening the members of the local camp are looking forward to a large attendance on that evening.

will go in training in St. Elizateth's Hospital. She will te ancompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson.

who will see her settled in the insti-

At the Christian church Sauday

tution

Summary-Two-base hit, Brooks. Winship, Parker, Wallan; home run,

Adams put the rollers under Athens in the first inning for three runs off Sharp and carried the hatit into the other off Shick. But they tailied au-other off Shick. But that's as far as they got, for with a steady uphill uphill heave, Rusty held Carl Christian's Mavericks safe and Athena won the game 8 to the above mentioned 4. Wilson scored for Athens in her balf of the second. In the sixth, Brooks broke in with the first of his rous and Winship floated over in the seventh. Brooks and King tallied in the eighth and in the ninth Brooks and Sharp repeated. The score: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Atbens 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 3 2-8 Adams 3 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-4 demonstrate its qualities as a Family Car.

Motor Cars for the Athena Weston, Milton-Freewater Territories, and hereafter you can see one of these wonderful little Cars at my Garage here in Athena, or I will come right to your door and give you a ride to

cooking oven. STANDARDOIL

For Sale By

KIRK IMPLEMENT HOUSE.

FOSS-WINSHIP HHRDWARE CO.

COMPANY

(Calife

