OREGON TO FORESTALL POSSIBLE INFANTILE PARALYSIS EPIDEMIC

Portland-The entire state of Ore Portland - Hay - Eastern Oregon gon will be protected by strict preventative measures against the possible introduction of infantile paralysis infection, through orders issued Sun-day by the State Board of Health, and day by the State Board of Health, and forwarded by State Health Officer David N. Roberg to all local health officers, and county judges, throughout the state.

To further insure the observance of these precautions against the plague that is terrorizing New York, Gover-nor Withycombe has been requested by the State Board of Health to issue a proclamation to the county judges of Oregon, instructing them to establish the quarantine at every railroad station within their jurisdiction.

The plan is simple, though necessar-ily involving a great deal of close ob-servation and employment of a regi-ment of medical inspectors and assist-

Incoming passengers, under 15 years of age, from all Eastern points, will be met at each station by authorized inspectors. Their temperatures will be taken. If the temperature be above normal, or if any other indication of the dread malady is observed, the child will be placed under strict quarantine.
