

Press Paragraphs

Ad Rothrock of Walla Walla, was an Athena visitor yesterday.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp and daughter, Carrie, were in Pendleton Tuesday.

Found—A bunch of keys. Inquire of E. S. Chandler, Athena, Oregon.

Mrs. Charles McFarland is spending the week at Bingham Springs.

F. S. Le Grow and W. R. Taylor spent Sunday at Bingham Springs.

Miss Gladys Tabor of Walla Walla, is a guest of Miss Hazel McFarland.

A. L. McEwen was in Athena Saturday from his ranch, near Pendleton.

Rufus Campbell was in Athena Saturday, from his ranch, near Pendleton.

Watermelons in generous quantities have made their appearance in the local market.

A company of Hawaiian singers and players appear at the Athena opera house tonight.

Miss Edna Jones of Weston Mountain, is visiting at the Frank Jackson home, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall of Pendleton, were in the city Monday.

The Forest harvester will be moved to the Lionellen field today to commence harvest operations.

For sale—The Myrick residence, corner of Adams and Fourth street. Inquire of Mrs. Lillie Miller.

A friend is exhibiting a photograph of Vernie Grant, taken in his sailor togs, which makes the lad look like a sure enough marine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McAllister of Pendleton, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ware.

Charlotte and Isabel McKensie and Esther Williams, Weston Misses, were visiting Athena friends Wednesday.

Claude Steyer of Milton, was in the city yesterday, on his return home from a trip to Elgin and La Grande.

Mrs. A. A. Foss will have as her guests next week, Mrs. Jackson and Miss Stella Jackson, of Dayton, Wash.

Flint Johns and George Winship "forded" to Bingham Springs Sunday and enjoyed a swim in the pool.

Mrs. J. C. Burke is in Walla Walla this week, visiting at the home of her son Roy, whose wife is reported ill.

Clark Wood, Dr. Watts, S. A. Barnes and John Banister, prominent citizens of Weston, were in town Monday.

Harold M. West, traveling freight and passenger agent for the O.-W., was in the city Tuesday on a business trip.

Jack Vincent has a neat jeweler's sign in front of his place of business. It is done in gold leaf and is attractive.

Charles Grant, the former restaurateur man, is employed as chief chef for the W. S. Ferguson ranch employes.

Miss Anna Soll, formerly a popular Athena girl, will visit friends here in the near future. Her home is at Baker.

Sanford Stone has gone to the Watts Bros ranch, where he will operate as separator tender, during the harvest season.

A. L. Swaggart, returning from Walla Walla county, reports crops and stock looking well there. His son

Frank has a large body of land under lease.

John Banister's Holt caterpillar combined harvester started work yesterday afternoon in a field of barley just west of town.

John Banister mayor of Weston was in the city Wednesday, displaying a good crop of wheat grown on his place, east of town.

Sam Hutt brought in a load of barley from the Joe Hodgson place yesterday on his truck, that weighed 1640 pounds. Some load.

Mrs. Anna McIntyre and daughters Laura and Belle, and little grandson, Donald Johnson, are enjoying an outing at Lehman Springs.

Miss Agnes Booth, who has been teaching near Lewiston, Idaho, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Hutt and Mrs. Lee Johnson in Athena.

Wm. Dook, a former hand employed by James Hodgson was taken to the hospital at Pendleton, Sunday. He had a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. F. B. Radtke and children are visiting relatives in Portland, expecting to remain until school starts before returning home.

Athena allies attest to the fact that the winter's supply of wood is being stored. Long ricks are being piled in readiness for the sawyers.

Mrs. Charles Grant and daughter, Mrs. Walter Booher, will leave this week for a visit with relatives at Spokane and northern Idaho.

D. H. Mansfield has returned from Walla Walla county, where he purchased horses, among them being an especially attractive pinto saddle horse.

Mrs. James Hargett leaves this week for an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Knutson, near Wenatchee, Wash.

Miss Katherine Sharp has been in Walla Walla hospital this week, where she underwent a minor surgical operation for nasal catarrh.

The grain warehouses in Athena have been put in shape to receive the new crop, hauling of which will begin in the next two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier of Honolulu, visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharp in this city. Mrs. Sharp is the aunt of Mr. Frazier.

Miss Alice Gaines, who has been training for a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital, Walla Walla, is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Homer L. Watts.

A. L. McEwen has accepted the agency for the Iowa Live Stock Insurance Company, and will spend the next few days soliciting business in this vicinity.

Miss Lillian Winship, a teacher in the Harrison, Idaho, schools, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Wm. Winship, and aunt, Mrs. W. J. Gholson, in this city.

A large audience greeted the "Iron Claw" at the Peoples Theatre Friday night. It proved to be a great picture feature, the second episode of which will be given tonight.

W. P. Leach passed through town Wednesday by automobile. He had been on a trip through Morrow county, and reported the best crops he had ever seen in that county.

The motor in the Press office burned out and has been sent to Walla Walla for repairs. The type for today's paper was set at the East Oregonian office in Pendleton.

Mrs. N. J. Garfield and her two daughters, Mrs. Wm. R. Scott and Mrs. Carey Foster, left yesterday for Portland, where they will visit friends before going to the beach for an outing.

Donald McFayden offers a choice lot of S. C. White Leghorn hens for sale. These hens are of his best laying strain, and are sold within a few days at a make room for new stock.

A number of machines will begin harvesting next week in the grain tributary to Athena, the start as a rule being made in the barley fields. A normal crop is expected to be harvested here.

Bert Cartano, accompanied by Charles Brown, made a trip to Walla Walla county Saturday, returning to Athena Monday. Mr. Cartano endeavored to buy hogs, but found none ready for market.

The weather man continues to be good to Athena and vicinity. Cool days and nights prevail and as yet no indication of the Eastern hot wave has made its appearance, if last Sunday may be excepted.

The subject next Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal church will be "What Constitutes a Strong Church?" At night, 7:45, praise and preaching service. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. All are invited.

H. A. Barrett has commenced threshing on his Pine Creek ranch. Mr. Barrett finds the quality of grain to be good, and the yield will be about 20 bushels per acre, considerably less than the yield of last year.

Considerable wheat has been sold to buyers in Athena this week at 90 cents per bushel. These transactions are on a contract basis, there being but little old wheat in the grower's hands at the present time.

Joe Hodgson is operating his combine in barley on his Meadowbrook ranch, northeast of town, and finds the yield satisfactory and the quality good. The first consignment from his new crop was made to the Richards chop mill in this city.

Dr. E. B. Osborn, deputy state veterinarian, was in the city for a few hours Tuesday, and left for Saleas where he expects to do office work for some time. He recently was in the Malheur county, inspecting stock.

Mrs. L. Sherman, Mrs. W. E. Dobson and Misses Clare Partridge, Margaret Lyons and Maud Sherman, formed a party who motored to Pine Creek and Reed and Hawley mountain, Sunday, for an afternoon outing.

Announcement is made of the birth of a daughter on July 11th to Mr. and Mrs. Max Schwartz, at their home in Napa, California. Mrs. Schwartz was formerly Miss Jeanette Manasse, and is remembered by many friends in Athena.

Watts Bros. big engine, which furnishes power for their stationary threshing outfit, is being overhauled and repaired at the Zerba shop. The machine will begin operation on the Thos. Deffence place, northwest of Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Newsom, Will Konasek and Jesse Myrick spent Sunday on the Walla Walla river. Temporary camp was made just above the Power company's dam.

A hired man at the Weddward ranch, west of town, while rambling about the barn in a somnambulist state, fell through a hole in a distance of 12 feet. He received injury to his hip, but Dr. Sharp and Stone, who were called, could find no fractures or dislocations.

W. B. Shaffer of Waiilatburg, and M. L. Watts of this city, motored to Ione, Morrow county, Sunday. Mr. Watts reports the best crops in Morrow county this season he has ever seen there, the grain being of extra good quality around Ione.

Miss Lillian Ware arrived in the city Monday evening from Burley, Idaho, and has assumed her duties as bookkeeper at the office of the Preston-Shaffer Milling company. Miss Ware will make her home with her brother, I. W. Ware, and wife.

Mrs. S. C. Stanton left Wednesday with her nephew, James Callivan, for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Montague, of Arlington. Mr. Callivan resides in California, and had not seen Mrs. Stanton for 40 years. His visit here was an interesting one.

Mrs. W. E. Dobson will leave tomorrow for a month's visit with her mother and sister at St. Johns, a suburb of Portland. Mrs. Dobson has contracted to again teach in the Waterman district, northwest of town, and will begin her school early in September.

A pleasant feature of the picnic at the City Park Wednesday, was the special attention paid the grandmothers of the city. They were received as honor guests of the Christian Sunday school. Automobiles were sent to their homes, conveying them to the Park.

Henry Keen is a Portland visitor this week, going down as a delegate from Pythian Lodge No. 29, K. of P., to the grand lodge session. The supreme lodge is also in session at Portland this week and is being attended by delegates from every state in the union.

Owing to the burning out of the coils in the motor on our type-setting machine, necessitating having the paper set at Pendleton, news events from 12 o'clock, noon yesterday up to 12 o'clock noon today could not be covered. Any omissions, therefore will be understood by our readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Gerking and family and Rev. and Mrs. Errett motored to Pendleton yesterday to visit Mrs. John Thompson, who is at the hospital. It is thought that the lady is slightly improving, but that another surgical operation will doubtless be necessary, before full recovery is assured.

"The Front Rank Church," and "Why More People Are Not Saved," will be the themes at the Christian church, Sunday. Bible school, 9:50 a. m. Christian Endeavor, 7 p. m. Mid-week meeting Wednesday, 8 p. m. Christian church choir, morning and evening. The public cordially invited and welcome.

Interest is being manifested in a swimming pool at Athena. The new natatorium at Helix, which has been popular from the start with the people of that neighborhood, will be investigated. It is realized here that a pool would be of great benefit to the town, and arrangements will probably be made for the construction of one in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams of Malden, Wash., arrived in the city Sunday and spent two or three days at the Ware home, leaving Wednesday morning for Medford, Oregon, and California points. Mrs. Williams is a sister of Mrs. Ware and visited here in June. Mr. Williams is a locomotive engineer on the Milwaukee road.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Newsom arrived in the city the latter part of last week, and have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards. Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Newsom and their two little sons are at Cold Springs on Weston Mountain, where a comfortable camp has been made for them, and where they will remain until cooler weather.

Claude Leet, nephew of H. C. Catton, died last week in Indiana, where he went recently from his home in Davenport, Wash., for medical treatment. The funeral was held at Davenport Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Catton and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kidder motored from here to be in attendance at the funeral. A wife and two year old son survive.

The barley famine has been relieved to a certain extent by the starting of a few combines in the fields. The mills here were put to a great deal of trouble for a couple of weeks past, in getting enough grain to tide them over until the new crop came in. By diligent hustle, both the Preston-Shaffer mill and the Richards mill, managed to serve their customers.

Weston Leader The process of oiling Weston's streets was begun Wednesday with the county sprinkler, under the direction of Chas. Winkler. One car of crude oil containing 150 barrels of 42 gallons to the barrel, was shipped up from Portland. The oil cost $1.15 per barrel f. o. b. Portland, and the freight bill was $123.10.

French Criglar was the only Athena representative lucky enough to get on the right side of the ledger in the land drawing contest conducted by Uncle Sam at Spokane. His number was 1053, just a few numbers ahead of Allyn Steele, who drew "heads" twice in flipping a four-bit piece to warm up his hunch that he had better go and register.

A happy time was spent Wednesday, at an all-day picnic in the City Park, which was given under the auspices of the Christian Bible school. A general invitation was extended the public and the well laden tables were surrounded with guests, both young and old, who most heartily enjoyed the school's hospitality. Lunch, which might more properly be termed a bounteous dinner, was served at noon. During the forenoon and afternoon, games were played by the young people, while the elders enjoyed the cool shade of the Park.

Whose New Tailor?

TRADE MARK REG. 1900 BY ED. V. PRICE & CO.

Our FALL LINES

have arrived and are on display for your inspection. The best fabrics the market affords are at your disposal in stylish fashions.

We guarantee our cloth materials, as well as tailored fit. The firms we represent are the leading tailors of the country — hence, giving satisfaction is easy. Our cleaning and pressing department is at your service.

Main Street - JAKE BOOHER - Athena, Oregon

By the Time You Read This

When you see this Davis-Kaser's Great Mid-Summer Clearance Sale will be in the third week—nearing its end. Be sure and come, take advantage of this great opportunity to save on your home furnishing needs. The time is growing short. Come the very first chance. Let nothing keep you away.

Davis-Kaser Sales Important

Davis-Kaser Sales have always been compelling bargain events but in view of present market conditions, none of our former sales were so important to thrifty home makers as this one. Sale reductions this year count double because most of our goods are still marked on a basis of before-the-war prices hence are dislodge bargains at the regular prices. Big, substantial reductions, (from 10 to 35 per cent on nearly everything) on top of that means a bargain event not one can afford to miss.

As heretofore, the regular, plain figure price tags are left on the goods. Red tags (a perfect set of the) show the special sale prices, so you can see the whole story at a glance.

Come. A big $100,000 stock of the choicest of home furnishings is here for your selection, at prices that mean big savings.

THE DAVIS-KASER CO., WALLA WALLA
Complete Furnishers of Homes, Offices and Schools—10-20 Alder St.

Blydenstein's Self Rising Pastry Flour

A Pancake Flour that also makes Biscuits, Cake, Waffles, Etc., better and more economical than ordinary flour, as it takes less shortening and eggs in making a finer grained cake

Blydenstein's Prepared Dietary Flour

Made from the best parts of wheat. A cure and preventative for constipation and indigestion. Better than drugs. Recommended by physicians. Now for sale by Athena merchants. Buy a sack today. Made by

H. G. BLYDENSTEIN, Pendleton

HARVESTERS Find Comfort

In our Summer Underwear. Have it in short or long sleeve, knee or ankle length at prices that can not be duplicated. Elk and Muleskin Shoes at $1.49, $1.79, $1.98.

Muleskin shoes, others price $2	Ribbed union suits, all sizes....	.40
our price.....	Mesh " " " " " " " " " "	.49
Elk shoes, others $2.50.....	Athletic " " " " " " " " " "	.49
Blankets.....	B. V. D. " " " " " " " " " "	.89
49-69-98 $1.49-$1.98	Chalmers' Foreknit " " " " " "	.59
Quills.....	Warner's Spring needle union
6x12 8-oz. Tarp.....	suits others' price $1.50.....	.98
6x12 8-oz. " " " " " " " " " "	Boys' union suits, short or long
6x14 12-oz. " " " " " " " " " "	sleeve, knee or ankle length 35-40	.45
30-in. canvas 120; 30-in. 25c; 6-ft. 79	Poys' Chalmers Poroknit.....	.45

Don't forget the Oshkosh—Big 3—and "Elouan, Never Wear out brand overalls" at a saving of 25c to 35c a pair. Khaki Pants, 98c.

The Golden Rule J.C. Penney Co. Inc. 125 BUSY STORES.

Peoples Theatre

"Always The Best"

A SCENE FROM "THE IRON CLAW," EPISODE NO. 2, (PATHE)

Tonight-Don't Miss It

It's Bigger and Better Each Week

SATURDAY

"THE LAW'S DECREE"

An Essanay Drama in 3 Reels Presenting

Nell Craig and Edmund F. Cobb

"Them Was the Good Old Days"

Vitagraph Comedy

Bud Duncan and Ethel Teare in "The Hoodoo's Busy Day"

A Kalem Comedy

Peg o' the Ring is coming—it's the most wonderful Circus Serial ever produced.

Mr. FARMER TAKE NOTICE!

If you are looking for Bargains, you can find them here.

We have 1200 rods of 26 inch Hog Wire, you may have at 25c per rod.

Six-Horse Gasoline Engine, $175.

Sprockets, 20 per cent off.

Holt Chain, 10 per cent off.

Cylinder Teeth, 10 per cent off.

Binding Twine, 13c per lb.

In fact, we can supply your wants in anything you may need in harvest.

Kirk Implement House

North Side Main Street, Athena, Oregon

Straight Distilled Refinery Gasoline

RED CROWN

the Gasoline of Quality

reduces your gasoline cost because every drop atomizes evenly through the carburetor and gives full power.

Dealers everywhere and at our SERVICE STATIONS.

Standard Oil Company (California)

Use ZEROLENE, The Standard Oil for Motor Cars

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Death of Mrs. LaBrasche Franz.

Mrs. Maggie LaBrasche Franz died at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton yesterday morning, where she was taken for treatment some weeks ago. The body was brought to her home south of Athena by Undertaker Miller and the funeral services will be held at the Catholic church in this city Sunday at two o'clock.

Mrs. Franz was aged 54 years, seven months and six days. She was born at Frenchtown, near Walla Walla, December 28, 1862 and was married to Louis LaBrasche in 1880. She was the mother of four children, three of whom with the father have preceded her to the grave. The daughter, Mrs. Joseph Baddeley of Fouchet, Wash., and two grandsons, Wendall and Kendall LaBrasche, her husband, Alfred Franz and a half brother, Frank Frazier, survive her. Mrs. Franz had made her home on the farm south of town since 1882 and leaves a large circle of friends in this part of the county.

For Sale.—A sound, well broken mule six years old, wt. 1150 lbs. Geo. P. Woodward.

We would not guarantee the gold piece, but I will guarantee my Hudson Six 40—the best bargain in this county. Would take a good Ford in exchange. F. D. Watts.

Dressmaking done, satisfaction guaranteed. Apply to Mrs. Della Wright.

Livestock Dealer.—Bert Cartano has engaged to the livestock business. He is prepared to pay the highest market prices at all times for chickens, hogs, cattle and sheep. If you have stock to sell, be sure and see him.