Versatile.

A lady stopping at a hotel on the Pacific coast rang the bell the first morning of her arrival and the very next evening when a Japanese boy opened the door and came in.

"I pushed the button three times for a maid," she said sternly, as she divided under the bed covers.

"Yes," the little fellow replied, "me abe."

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home for a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARENCE MORAN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

"Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs much suffering might be avoided.

Central Washington Sheep Shipments.
Wenatchee—The Great Northern railway estimates that between now and the middle of October, 350 cars of sheep will be shipped, as compared with 200 cars during the whole season last year. Fifty cars have already been shipped. The value of the season's shipment will run close to $500,000. Arrangements have been made with the Canadian government to drive sheep across the line into British Columbia next summer. The first trainload of lambs will leave Thursday for the Chicago market.

Rot Hits Douglas Prunes.
Roseburg, Or.—Word that the situation in regard to the prune crop in Douglas county is alarming because of the recent rains and the attendant setting in of brown rot caused Walter S. Brown, of the Oregon Agricultural College, and Fred Strang, county fruit inspector, to hasten to the orchard districts. Wherever spraying had been done in compliance with the request of the county fruit inspector, little disease was discovered. Those who failed to spray, however, probably will lose a portion of their fruit.

CASH PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST DISPLAYS

More Than $700 Will Be Distributed at Seattle Land Show for Best County or Community Exhibit.

The best county or community display at the land show in Seattle from October 4 to 14 will receive a cash prize of $400 and a handsome trophy banner. The second prize is for $200 and the third prize $100.

Already there is interest over Washington, Oregon and Idaho in this contest and a large number of Washington communities will try for the prizes. Oregon counties and communities will also be well represented, the displays coming from the state fair at Salem.

The contest has been thrown open to any commercial club, grange, farmers' association, improvement club or other county or community organization in the Northwest.

The management of the Northwest Land Products exposition has set aside $225 in gold for the best individual farm exhibit. The first prize calls for $150 and the second prize $75.

Indications are that the first land show ever staged in Seattle will be the greatest agricultural exhibit since the exposition of 1909. The Great Northern railway has taken space for an agricultural display and the Milwaukee will make a similar exhibit and in addition will bring the Montana state exhibit to the show.

The Alaska display will be the greatest ever made and the entire exhibit of grains, grasses and vegetables from the annual fair at Fairbanks will be shipped to Seattle the latter part of this month.

The land show at Seattle will cover more than 70,000 square feet in the heart of the business district, the city authorities giving permission to tent over Fifth Avenue adjoining the arena, the city's largest assembly hall.

Hop Demand is Good; Picking is in Full Blast

A more general demand has developed in the hop market and buyers are offering higher prices throughout the state of Oregon. Eight cents was being freely bid on contracts in the Willamette valley, with a substantial premium for fuggles. McNeff Bros. have purchased between 500 and 600 bales of fuggles at 12 cents.

In Western Washington the market has also become more active. Seven hundred bales of clusters were bought in that section at 8 cents, including the crops of Frye, Bremer, Cooper and Perfield.

No trading was reported from Yakima, but the market there was also firm. The first sample of Yakimas were received by McNeff Bros. and the quality was fully equal to that of the best previous years. California advices were of the sale of 600 bales of new Sacramentos at 8 and 8 1/2 cents.

Pickers are busy in all the Oregon hop sections. The favorable change in the weather enabled the pickers to resume operations, and it also held back the mold. It is too early for a definite estimate as to the size of the Oregon crop, but many of the dealers believe it will run close to 100,000 bales.

New York wires estimated the yield in that state at 8000 to 10,000 bales, and the quality very fine. Offers up to 30 cents are being made for states and growers are asking 32 cents.

Letters received from London dealers put the English crop at 300,000 to 310,000 hundredweight. The London Times has the following from Canterbury, dated August 24:

"The hops have not made so much progress during the past few weeks, owing to the pronounced drought. The crop will vary in yield according to districts, many of the hops being on the small side. In the districts where rain has recently fallen the prospects are the best. Vermin has disappeared and mold is not spreading to any extent. It is now expected that the picking will commence earlier than was anticipated. Trade on the market is quiet, and in the few sales effected prices are below recent quotations."

Across the Continent in Five Days—18 1/2 Hours.

Fred W. Vogler, president of The Northwest Auto Co., of Portland—premier speed boat enthusiast of the Pacific Coast—all-round sportsman and general good fellow, has been prevailed upon to bring a duplicate of the famous Marmon 34, that crossed the country in less than six days, to Pendleton during the Round-Up week—so that some of our real riders may have a chance to see this wonderful car.

When the railroad situation looked as if it might tie up every road in the country Mr. Vogler said:
"We can now cross fast enough with the Marmon 34 to stop anything—and one man proved it beyond a doubt."
S. B. Stevens arrived at San Francisco just 5 days, 13 1/2 hours after the car had left Columbia Circle, New York City, 2475 miles away.

This completed the most remarkable and fastest journey ever made across the United States in a motor car—the average rate of speed being almost equal to the schedule of the fast transcontinental railroad trains.

Some One Ought to Tell Her.

Dear little Willie, was only recently married, and for the past fortnight he had been wearing that fatuous smile which a man wears on only two occasions—when he is first married, and when the first baby arrives. That smile, which suggests a codfish in paradise, is extremely annoying to the onlooker. Therefore, Willie's friends were relieved to see him appear one morning looking very grim.

"Hallo, Willie! What's the matter?" they cried in chorus.

"Oh, don't chaff, boys—don't chaff! Marriage isn't what I thought it was! My wife can't sing!"

"Can't sing? Why, you ought to be thankful for that!"

"Yes, I dare say. And I might be only, you see, she doesn't know it!"—London Answer.

His Honor in Error.
Mose Ham was arrested for "loud and uproarious language" and "disturbing the peace." Judge Briles read the document in the case and then turned to the black-as-bony prisoner.

"Mose Ham," said he, "you are charged with shouting, groaning, crying loud in the night, lamentations, impure language, cursing, swearing, breaking the peace and general noisy conduct not befitting a citizen. What have you to say?"

"Des dis, Judge, dey ain't no spec'er dat de fruit; all I had wuz or slight visitation ob religion. Ef I talked loud, Judge, hit wuz becuz I'm further away from th' Lawd dan mos' folks."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

What a Tourist Heard.
A tourist in Ireland came upon a couple of men "in bolts" rolling on the road. The man on top was pummeling the other within an inch of his life. The traveler looked on for a moment in silence and then intervened.

"I say, it's an infernal shame to strike a man when he's down."
"Faith, if yez knew all the trouble I had gettin' him down yez wouldn't be talkin' like that," came the intermittent reply.—Judge.

Comparisons.
"So your boy Josh is a soldier now?"
"Yep," replied Farmer Cortosel.

"And I want to tell you the discipline is doing him good. It's the first time in many a year that Josh couldn't put on airs 'cause he was better dressed than I was."—Washington Star.

Fostering Talent.
"Your daughter has a wonderful voice. You ought to cultivate it."
"What for? A voice doesn't show up in moving pictures. But I've got a boy with a funny walk whom I expect to see drawing a thousand a week one of these days."—Washington Star.
