"Do you mean sal ammoniac?" asked the druggist.
"I believe it is sometimes called that," replied the lady stiffly.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Carelessly Treated Cold

is the source of most sickness because drugged pills, syrups and alcoholic mixtures are uncertain and unsafe.

Scott's Emulsion has been relied upon by physicians for forty years as the safe and sensible remedy to suppress the cold and build up the enfeebled forces to avert throat and lung troubles.

Don't tolerate alcoholic substitutes, but insist on the Genuine Scott's Emulsion. One bottle usually lasts longer than a cold. Every druggist has it.

Wanted to Be Remembered.
The lawyer was drawing up Enpeck's will.
"I hereby bequeath all my property to my wife," dictated Enpeck. "Got that down?"
"Yes," answered the lawyer.
"On condition," continued Enpeck, "that she marries within a year."
"But why that condition?" asked the man of law.
"Because," answered the meek and lowly testator, "I want somebody to be sorry that I died."—London Saturday Journal.

A Protest.
Papa was about to apply the strap.
"Father," said Willie, firmly, "unless that instrument has been properly sterilized I desire to protest."
This gave the old man pause.
"Moreover," continued Willie, "the germs that might be released by the violent impact of leather upon a porous textile fabric but lately exposed to the dust of the streets would be apt to affect you deleteriously."
As the strap fell from a nervous hand Willie left him.—London Saturday Journal.

Couldn't Help It.
"Doctor, my brother stepped into a hole and wrenched his knee, and now he limps. What would you do in a case like that?"
"I'm afraid I should limp, too!"—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Looking Ahead.

Cautious.

When the week-end traveler arrived at the little country village he found deserted streets and a terrific rainstorm. The village had been destroyed as old world, and the pictures in the guide book suggested a little bit of heaven. But to the unhappy traveler smoky London seemed more than desirable.

However, the last up-train had gone, so there was no hope.

"Darling," he said to the porter stationmaster inspector, "can you direct me to the best hotel here?"

"I can, sir. But, as a matter of fact, I hardly like to."

"Oh! Why?"

Such Sweet Partings.
William DeWitt, the novelist, was talking about a poet.
"His work is over-refined, over-delicate, over-nice," he said.
"In short, his work reminds me of the young husband who said to his bride at the end of the honeymoon: 'Darling, I'll have you for every morning hereafter to go to business, but to make the parting less abrupt, I'll no longer take the 8:15 express as I used to do—I'll take the 8:20 slow accommodation.'"

Producers Get the Money.

According to reports issued this week by the United States department of agriculture on crop and live stock prices, the producer was paid an average income of 83.3 per cent during the month of August for his products. The government report is that the index figure of prices on September 15 was 21.9 per cent higher than two years ago, and 18.8 per cent higher than the average of the last eight years on this date. This report shows that the producer was paid 19.4 per cent more for his meat animals than a year ago.

Electric Heating of Houses.
Stockholm, way up on the Baltic sea side of Sweden, is a cold proposition for many months in the year. Not only its far-north latitude, but its insular situation conduces to cold climatic conditions. For Stockholm is built mostly on islands, and is called the Venice of the Baltic.

But the people in the city keep very warm during the long winters, and they do so through electrical heating arrangements. Fuel for individual families was an immense item in Sweden, as it is in all cold countries, but in the past few years the electricians of the country have bent their energies to the development of the natural water powers, to the end that electricity has become the chief fuel. Hot water tanks in hotels, churches and all public and private buildings are heated by electricity from a nearby power plant, and the hot water is carried through the streets in heavy pipes as it goes through similarly heated houses in our cities. The electricity that heats the water is turned on at night when the family retires, and by morning the tank is so hot that the water, pumped automatically through the house pipes, gives the inhabitants all the comforts of steam heat, and it lasts through the whole day.

The chief difference is that we build our coal fires in our furnaces, and have smoke and ashes to contend with, while the Swedes press a button that connects the house tank wire with the power plant, and the work is done, with no aftermath of cleaning up—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

The Retort Courteous.
Hogan had died.
Casey, a friend of Hogan's, had been away and arrived in town on the day of the funeral. With his satchel in his hand, he passed Hogan's house, just as the pallbearers were carrying the casket out to the hearse. Hogan had been a very large man and the pallbearers were straining every muscle.

Casey stood aghast, but finally approached one of the pallbearers.

"Who's in there?" he demanded, pointing to the casket.

"Hogan," panted the pallbearer.

"What is Hogan dead?"

The pallbearer turned upon Casey indignantly and said: "For the love of Mike, you don't think we are just rehearsing this, do you?"—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Time for the Two Bears.
We have a friend who is fond of telling how his elderly mother took him aside when he was about to be married and advised him always to keep two bears in his home if he would be happy.

When he asked her what she meant she explained that the animals she had in mind were "bear" and "forbear."

The homely story is one that we Americans might well lay to heart just now. In both our foreign and domestic relationships great forbearance may soon be necessary to avoid quarrels, and quarrels are invariably ruinous to happiness, disturbing to business and nearly always lead us to do many things that we afterward regret.—Commerce and Finance.

Hardened.
"Does my practicing make you nervous?" asked the man who is learning to play the cornet.

"It did when I first heard the people round about discussing it," replied the sympathetic neighbor. "But now I'm getting so I don't care what happens to you."—London Answers.

Extremes Will Meet.
"Do you think you will ever own a car?"

"Why not? The controlling circumstances are bound to meet."

"What do you mean?"

"Autos keep coming down and I keep saving up."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Sugar Recovers From Drop.
Sugar advanced 15 cents again yesterday, making a total increase of 55 cents since the 1st of August. The nearly wipes out the sensational drop of 75 cents made about two months ago, and all signs point to a continued advance to higher prices than early this summer, when all records were broken. Granulated cane sugar is now $7.75 a sack.

Potatoes are advancing in price. The middle western crop this year is said to be from 40 to 60 per cent short and already the Yakima crop is being drawn upon for eastern shipments. The local crop is not all dug yet, but is said to be normal. The price now ranges around $21 a ton for locals and $25 for Yakimas.

Frosty nights have caused some of the fresh local field products to become scarce. Tomatoes are being picked green by growers who want to save what they can before a killing frost destroys the remainder of the crop. Blackberries in the valley were said to be badly damaged by Monday night's frost, but the local demand is light and prices failed to advance.

Tokay grapes are still jobbing at $1.35 a crate but an advance is expected soon. Grapes and Crawford peaches are still running strong at 60 cents a box. Peaches are rapidly nearing the end of their season. Cantaloupes are getting scarce. Apples are arriving in large quantities.

Steel Company Buys Site.
Portland—Fifteen acres of land situated north of the plant of the Shell Oil company at Willbridge have been purchased as the site for the new Portland plant of the Pacific Coast Steel company and an allied industry, according to A. C. Callan, whose original announcement at a recent prosperity dinner that these two industries were coming to Portland was made in The Oregonian.

Approximately 10 acres of the purchased tract will be utilized for the plant of the steel company, construction of which will probably be commenced within the next year. Until the final details of the entire plant are worked out, the identity of the auxiliary industry will not be announced, Mr. Callan said. The property purchased does not front on the Willamette river, but is not far removed from the waterfront and has adequate railroad facilities.

Flour Retailing Lower Than Wholesale
Minneapolis.—The continued rise in the price of flour has brought about an unprecedented condition in the local market. While several retailers were selling top grade Minneapolis flour at $3.60 to $3.70 a barrel, in single barrel lots, the millers were asking $3.85 and $3.90 for the same grade in carload lots.

"Millers have no control over retail prices," said one miller. "It is possible for a retailer holding flour purchased at the low price to retail it now at a figure lower than the mills could produce it at present."

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNIGHT, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.
Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.
Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMESTINA DUNNING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice.—It will be confidential.

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs.

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs, was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to collapse. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Anurie," prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt and still feel improved. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from like ailments.

Yours truly, W. A. ROBERTS.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anurie" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who may be anxious to procure a supply of "Anurie" for their anxious customers, and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment. Editor—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

Wanted to Be Remembered.
The lawyer was drawing up Enpeck's will.
"I hereby bequeath all my property to my wife," dictated Enpeck. "Got that down?"
"Yes," answered the lawyer.
"On condition," continued Enpeck, "that she marries within a year."
"But why that condition?" asked the man of law.
"Because," answered the meek and lowly testator, "I want somebody to be sorry that I died."—London Saturday Journal.

"That was a great speech you made" said the enthusiastic friend.
"Do you think it will help me?" asked Senator Sorghum.
"Unquestionably. It may not have much influence in public affairs, but it ought to get you an engagement with any lecture bureau."—Brooklyn Citizen.

The Double Life.
"This would be a good time for me to take a vacation," remarked the secretary and treasurer of a city concern.
"But you returned from one only a week ago," said the president. "Oh, that was my vacation as secretary; I wish to go now as treasurer."—Boston Transcript.

Sticking to One.
Boy—Ma wants another oxtail.
Butcher—She liked the one she got yesterday—eh?
Boy—Yes, sir. She wants this one off the same ox, please!—London Answers.

Jacksoville Philosopher.
The pin in the hands of the small boy is usually bent on mischief.
About the only use some girls have for heads is to lean them on masculine shoulders.
Speaking of the fitness of things, sometimes a woman who is a cat will have a purring limousine," as they say in the stories.
One love-sick young poet says his sweetheart has a face like a flower. The way they put it on these days are really means like a barrel of flour.
The eyes may be the windows of the soul, as the poet says, but the fashionable girl uses the whole body for a show window when it comes to clothes.
The difference we have noticed is this: Before marriage a man speaks about his shirts in a careless, offhand manner. Afterward, when forced to do so, he refers to his shirt—Florida Times-Union.

A Protest.
Papa was about to apply the strap.
"Father," said Willie, firmly, "unless that instrument has been properly sterilized I desire to protest."
This gave the old man pause.
As the strap fell from a nervous hand Willie left him.—London Saturday Journal.

Couldn't Help It.
"Doctor, my brother stepped into a hole and wrenched his knee, and now he limps. What would you do in a case like that?"
"I'm afraid I should limp, too!"—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Looking Ahead.
Neighbor—If your boy is so very ill, why don't you send for a doctor?
Mrs. Mulligan—Oh he goes for, mum soon as he's well enough to go for one.—New York Times.

IF YOU HAVE RHEUMATISM

Producers Get the Money.

According to reports issued this week by the United States department of agriculture on crop and live stock prices, the producer was paid an average income of 83.3 per cent during the month of August for his products. The government report is that the index figure of prices on September 15 was 21.9 per cent higher than two years ago, and 18.8 per cent higher than the average of the last eight years on this date. This report shows that the producer was paid 19.4 per cent more for his meat animals than a year ago.

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNIGHT, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.
Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.
Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMESTINA DUNNING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice.—It will be confidential.
