School Notes.

The Athena Press has offered the Athena public schools an honor cup, to be awarded in the following manner:

The school is to be divided into five contesting units: The Primary room, the Second Primary room, the Intermediate room, the Grammar Grades room and the High school.

The room which makes the best record for the first half year of 1916-17 in such matters as may be used for the sake of determining said record shall be presented the honor cup.

The room that first wins the cup twice becomes its permanent possessor. When another room wins it, the present holder of the cup shall surrender it, but may regain it by being the winner before it has been won a second time by any other contestant.

Each winner shall be entitled to have name and date of winning, engraved upon the honor cup.

The points upon which the cup will be awarded shall be as follows:

1. Highest per cent of attendance, 30 to 40 points.
2. Lowest number of cases of tardiness, 10 to 20 points.
3. Best average department in school room, 15 to 30 points.
4. Best general good behavior in halls, on the play grounds and to and from school, 20 to 40 points.
5. Courtesy to teachers and fellow classmates, 25 to 50 points.
6. Highest per cent of pupils exempt from final examination for the half year, 50 to 100 points.

All teachers will have the right to report failure on the part of any pupil whose conduct outside of the school room would not be in accordance with the honor of the school. Such report shall be made to the Superintendent within three days from time of commitment.

Chairman M. L. Watts spoke before the high school student body at our regular Wednesday assembly. Mr. Watts pointed out the value of conscientious study and urged each to make a special effort to do his work well. "Success in school," he said, "comes only by the hearty co-operation of students and faculty and careful observation of those things which are so necessary in the work of the school."

The second meeting of the Athena High Literary society was held last Friday afternoon. After the adoption of the constitution and by laws, the following officers were installed by Supt. J. O. Russell: President, Lawson Boober; vice president, Annabelle McLeod; secretary, Lloyd McPherrin; sergeant-at-arms, Verne Dudley; editor-in-chief, Edna McAlexander. Each member of the first program was well rendered and much amusement was furnished in the pantomime: "Just Fermes," by Verne Dudley and Henry Koepke. A special feature was the reading of the first issue of "The Spectator," the first paper ever issued by the Athena High and much praise is due its editors. The program for the meeting Oct. 27 will be as follows:

1. Song, "Orange and Black."
2. Recitation, Ernest Duncan
3. Vocal duet, Helma Russell and Valva Mansfield
4. Fanny Story, Rex Payne
5. Debate: "Resolved, that Oregon should adopt a Health Insurance law, embodying the essential features of the Standard Bill of the American Association for Labor Legislation." Affirmative, Florence McLennan, Zola Keen, Edna McAlexander; negative, Henry Koepke, Elmer Martin, Verne Dudley. Parents and friends are cordially invited to be present. Meeting called at 2:30 p. m.

The Juniors and Seniors have announced their intention to entertain the Freshmen, Sophomores, Alumni of the High, and the school faculty, Tuesday evening, October 31. It is to be a masquerade Halloween party. The several committees are busy making plans for the affair and a good time is assured.

A double-header basket ball game will be held in the gymnasium Friday evening, Oct. 27, at 8 p. m. The contesting teams are first and second girls' teams, and first and second boys' teams. Don't miss the opening game of the season for it will be a spirited contest. The regular line up for first teams will be determined by the results of these games.

The words of the following song were composed by Miss Martha Batt, High school poet:

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS.

These are the days of the school year,
Days full of life and of fun;
Days that bring memories to cherish;
Just when our work has begun.

Refrain:
High School Days! High School Days!
Thoughts of High so true!
In the sea of memory
My thoughts steal back to you.
High School Days! High School Days!
Lessons of Friendship true;
And though thoughts may roam,
They'll always come home
To our beautiful High School Days.

Though we may work hard and steady,
Each has his life work to do;
And then, of course, everybody
Will think of School Days so true.

Strong is our band, never broken,
Formed in school days so free;
And we'll let this be a token
Of our High School memory.

Way to Know

There is only one way to realize the facilities of this store for supplying everything needed to furnish the home complete from cellar to garret—to come and see. We want you to do this—look us over, judge the appointments of the store, the completeness of the stocks by those of any other store in Walla Walla or elsewhere. The Davis-Kaser business was founded in 1894—22 years ago. From a very small beginning it has grown to its present proportions. The same trend, liberal policy towards its customers—the same determination to excel in quality and value giving, in service giving, animates this business today.

These 22 Years

Have taught us many things regarding the needs of this section, the goods best suited to these needs. The result is that many of the best suited lines are shown exclusively on our floors.

In Furniture, Floor Coverings and Draperies, in Stoves and Kitchenware, in Dinnerware, Glassware, Silverware and Cutlery, in Art Goods, Cat Glass and Brass, in Lamps, in Trunks and Travelers' accessories, in Sewing Machines, in Pianos and Player Pianos, Phonographs and Sheet Music—in anything needed to completely furnish the modern home, you will find evidence of this superiority in our offerings. Come and see—not merely a surface inspection, but take a good look. Always welcome.

An elephant that is going to make trouble turns his back on his intended victim and begins to swing his great body from side to side. Then in a flash he wheels, catches the offender with his trunk and hurls him perhaps twenty feet away, following swiftly to crush the life from his body with his mighty knees.

Curious Shoes.

In India the lowest classes wear as shoes a flat block with a large knob, which slips between the first and second toes. They are so skilled in wearing these that they are able to keep them on and walk or run with great speed.

"Yes, but your conversation has become so dry now that I can't drink it in."—Boston Traveler.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
