[From the Press of Oct. 27, 1893]

Last Tuesday the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brotherton fell against the heating stove and serious burns resulted.

Irving McQuary, former publisher of the Press, returned yesterday from Springfield, Oregon, where he contemplates engaging in the newspaper business.

Mrs. Max Lewin joined her sister, Mrs. Levy, of Union, at Gibbon, yesterday, and accompanied her to the Portland Exposition.

L. E. Reeder and family are down from Kettle Falls, Wash., visiting his mother Mrs. Reeder north of town. Last year Mr. Reeder was elected prosecuting attorney of Stevens county, Wash., which position he holds at present.

Snow is reported to be three feet deep on the Lincoln road across the Blue Mountains.

We hear considerable complaint relative to cows being allowed to run at large within the city limits. Many of our citizens have set out young shade trees, and bossy finds the tender limbs and foliage succulent fodder. In many instances shade trees have been entirely destroyed. What's the matter with enforcing the Cow ordinance?

Deputy Marshal Beattie came up from Portland Monday and made two arrests on charges of furnishing fire-water to residents across the creek. It is estimated by Portland grain experts that the damage to grain in Eastern Oregon and Wash., by the recent rains will aggregate $5,000,000. In this vicinity the crop is virtually a total loss and there is no market for the grain that has been saved.

At the regular meeting of the Sons of Temperance Monday night, three candidates were initiated. The Lodge now has a membership of 48.

From "Scrivener's Notes": "Why do the city authorities allow the stable men and others to dump manure and garbage of all kinds on Main street, within two or three blocks of the business part of the city? It would have been impossible to have dumped it in a place where a greater number of inhabitants could stay at home and enjoy the benefits thereof. Viewed from the car window or on the street, numberless heaps may be seen smacking like miniature volcanoes and poisoning the breath of the gentle chieftain, usually so fragrant and healthful—yes, strong enough to knock down a full-grown man way out at LaMa's Gallop. To say the least, it looks bad, smells bad, and is bad. Let's give the obnoxious nuisance."

Frank Burnett, the genial clerk of Cox, McRee & Co., left for San Jose Saturday, to attend his father, who is seriously ill.

DEATH OF DOLLY WHITE.

This community was inexpressibly shocked and saddened this week, by the sudden sickness and death of Miss Dolly White, a beloved member of the sophomore class in the High school, and who has spent her short life in Athens and vicinity.

Dolly attended school all last week, and Friday evening practiced in the basket ball team as usual. Monday morning she was taken ill with a pain in her head, which rapidly developed into spinal meningitis, and she passed away Tuesday morning, at five o'clock.

It is thought that an injury which she received in an automobile accident about a year and a half ago, in which she remained unconscious for several weeks with concussion of the brain, was probably a factor in the young girl's fatal illness.

Dolly was aged 17 years, seven months and eighteen days, and was the idol of her mother, Mrs. Rosetta White, and of her five brothers. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Fay Lovelidge, of Darke, Baker county, who was summoned here for the funeral. The mother is a paralytic, and the family have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, October 25, at 1 o'clock in the Christian church, by Pastor Errett, assisted by Rev. Bentley of the Baptist church. The floral tributes were beautiful, especially that tendered by the Athens High school. The body was taken to Milton for interment.

men with others joining the ranks daily. Such well known athletes as Gilliland, Lively, Barrett, Richardson, Maloney, Parker, Reeder and Taylor should form the nucleus for a slushing good club.

Miss Nettie Connell of Weston met with a serious accident Saturday evening, while returning from a visit to her parents at Milton, says the Weston Leader. While coming up the Dry creek hill in company with Marvillo Watts, the team became unmanageable and upset the buggy, throwing Miss Connell out, severely spraining her wrist and lacerating her hands. Mr. Watts escaped without injury.

School Notes.

The first debate for the school year will be held in the school auditorium this afternoon. The state debate question: "Resolved: That Oregon should adopt a health insurance law, embodying the essential features of the 'Standard Bill' of the American Association for Labor Legislation." The question should command the attention of all who are interested in a problem that is now confronting the American commonwealth. The affirmative debaters: Misses McLeoman, Keen and McAlexander, will demonstrate that compulsory health insurance for all who receive less than $100 per month, under state control, will mitigate much of the present day "aches and pains." The negatives, Messrs. Koepke, Martin and Dudley, will attempt to hold the affirmative at bay. Society called at 2:30 p. m. All patrons and friends of the school invited.

The first basket ball game of the season, which was to have been held tonight, in the school gymnasium, will be postponed for two weeks, on account of the recent death of Dolly White, a member of the girls' first team.

School will be dismissed on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week for the Teachers' Institute which will be held in Pendleton. Some of the very interesting speakers who will be there this year are: Pres. Acker, Man, State Normal, Monmouth; State Supt. Churehill; Dr. Ayer, U. of O.; Dr. Doney, Willamette University; Prof. Berham, Seattle; Supt. Klemm, State Normal, Ellensburg, Wash.

The teachers have finished the cataloging and classifying of books of the school library, after the "Dawey Decimal" system. The books are arranged according to their classification and the author's number. There are about 400 books now in the library, 200 of which are for the younger children. A shipment of books amounting to $20 is expected soon. The school library, while it contains a good selection of books, has not the necessary number and quality of books required for us to qualify as a standard High school. Measures have already been taken to supply this requirement and urgent need on the part of students and teachers.
