Another Carload of Those Fine American Beds and Springs

American Beds are made of smooth, light steel tubes—dent proof, strong and yet light to handle. From the cheapest at $3.50 to the best at $52.50, they all have the celebrated American malleable legs, guaranteed for 25 years. The rails are reversible and interchangeable, yet fit so perfectly that beds always stand straight and rigid.

Any style of spring may be used with them. American Beds have an unusually smooth, hard finish—handsoomer, more easily cared for and more durable than ordinary beds. A big assortment of styles is here in all the popular styles—Mahogany, Cirassiva Walnut, Old Ivory Two Tone, Oxidized, Brass Bronze, Vernis Martin and White Ename.

One of the most popular beds in this line is our No. 851, in Brass Bronze, finish at $11.50.

Also see our No. 919 American Two Beds in White and Vernis Martin, at only $8.50. These have 1-4 inch posts and 1 inch Biler tubes with smooth joints.

Here is also a good line of the popular Porch or Bankhouse Beds, complete with springs at $3.75 for 3-4 and $9.50 for full size.

American All Steel Springs, 3-4 and full size at $1.25 and $1.50.

No 5 American Coil Spring 96 extra quality, large single cone coils, with interlocking top, mounted on strong steel flat base and with traced ends—the best coil springs of this type we know of, a lifetime spring. Price 3-4 size, $7.30; full size, $8.50.

The Wonder Spring, a suspended coil spring on a tubular frame with 4-inch elevation and wide beaded edge. Has 24 Helical spring supports at each end. Price $9.00.

School Notes.

A letter has been received from Supt. A. T. Park of the Pendleton High school and chairman of the Debate committee, stating that the debating league will be divided into three sections. The first includes the towns of Milton, Freewater and Athens; the second, Pendleton, Hariston and Stanfield; in the third, Coodon and Fossil. The different schools in each section will debate, then the winners will meet the other sections to decide the final results.

A double-header basket ball game will be played with Columbia College in the local gym tonight. Both teams have improved over last year and close games are expected. Despite the fact that the Athens teams are lighter than ever before, they are picked to win against their heavier opponents. The game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Come and give encouragement to the home school. Athens will line up as follows: Girls.—Kathryn Proom and Evelyn Hard, forwards; Hazel Sanders, jumping center; Frances Fehr, running center; Elouise Bergavin and Marguerite McLennan, guards; Lucille Taylor, Helen Russell and Frances Williams, subs. Boys.—Tharp and McPheer, forwards; Payne, center; Dudley and Booher, guards; Gault, Richmond and Martin, subs.

A Thanksgiving program is being prepared by the pupils of Miss Sherman's room. It will be given Nov. 29 and parents and friends are invited. The program: Song, "Thanksgiving Day Has Come"; dialogue, "Friday Afternoon at School"; 2nd grade; recitation, "Ted's Story of Thanksgiving"; Freddie Radtke; solo, "Kidland"; Malvin Coppock; dialogue in costume, "The Little Pilgrims"; 1st grade; song, "That Good Old Pumpkin Pie"; folk dance; fare, "After Thanksgiving"; 1st grade; solo, "The Teakettle"; Florence Ross; dialogue, "The Grocer's Thanksgiving"; 1st grade; chorus in costume, "The Jolly Jumpers," seven girls.

Among the visitors to the grade rooms the past week are: Mrs. Myrtle Hase, Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. A. A. Foss, Mrs. Ida Starr, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. McEwen. Miss Sherman had one new pupil.

Wednesday afternoon the weekly assembly was held. Supt. Russell explained the system of grading the High school pupils this year, and distributed the report cards. Mr. Russell announced that a band is to be formed in Athens and the first practices will be Monday evening; also that Miss McCullough is intending to give violin lessons. The remaining time was spent in singing and in practicing new yells for the basket ball game tonight.

In the auditorium Friday afternoon, the 24th inst., will be held the usual literary program. The main feature will be a debate between four of the class on the question: "Should Oregon adopt a Health Insurance Law embodying the essential features of the Standard Bill of the American Association for Labor Legislation." The public is cordially invited to be present. The program follows: Song, "High School Days"; discussion, Hazel Sanders and Anabel McLeod; duet, Mamie Sheard and Zola Kees; funny story, Elouise Bergavin; solo, Lucille Taylor; debate, affirmative, Zola Kees and Henry Koepke, negative, Florence McLennan and Verne Dudley; report of critic, Vernita Watts.

A "hard times" party was given by the High school in the Domestic Science room Friday evening. Everybody arrived in hard-times costume consisting of sack-aprons and overalls. Patrons were much in evidence. Musical selections were given, also humorous readings by Martha Hart. The re-
