Rex Payne is in Spokane this week, attending the Holt school for instruction in running the Co.'s caterpillars and tractors.

Uncle Sam Spencer has been ill this week and the first part of the week was unable to leave his home. He is better however.

The masquerade ball, given at the Athena opera house, Wednesday night, was well attended by the young people of Athena and vicinity.

The Wallowa basket ball brigade which had no trouble in defeating Pendleton high, was waxed unmercifully by Milton; score 48 to 3.

Mrs. James Nelson is down from her home in Alberta, having been summoned by the death of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Pinkerton, last week.

Oliver Dickenson returned yesterday afternoon from Walla Walla with his son, Merle, who had an operation performed at the hospital there for relief from enlarged tonsils.

Rev. Achilles preached a pleasing sermon to a large and appreciative audience at the Methodist church last Sunday. A special solo was rendered by Miss Pearl Coomans.

On Monday, Feb. 19, at the Peoples Theatre, the great Northwest drama, "God's Country and the Woman," will be presented. This is a special Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature in eight parts.

Salmon trout of the steelhead and silverside varieties are said to be running in the river, but the water is so high and discolored as to make fishing for them out of the question at this time.

Rev. Milo G. Bently reports a good meeting at Helix. The Athena Gospel Team went over last Sunday and rendered valuable assistance. Twenty-six have been received into the church.

"Adam Bede," the beautiful love story, will be shown in moving pictures at the Methodist church Sunday, Feb. 18. Rev. Andrew Warner, one of the leading preachers of the Northwest will be present.

Burke & Son have installed a 175 gallon gasoline tank at their garage, corner of Main and Second. L. M. Martin, manager of the Peoples Theatre was the first purchaser of gasoline at the new supply station.

Scott Fisher, the carpenter, is doing some artistic work at his shop on 3rd street. A Dutch kitchen arrangement for the farm home of Luke Read and collonades and book shelves for Henry Keen's home, are examples of fine workmanship.

Lease for Sale—320 acres, two years lease, can get three years more—12 head work horses, machinery, six head cattle, harness, feed, hay, and 104 acres summer fallow. Price, $4000. Call on address, H. J. Welty, La-Crosse, Wn.

A pleasing feature at the Christian Bible school last Sunday was the chorus of twenty children's voices, trained by Mrs. W. R. Scott. The "Junior choir," as it is called, was a surprise and elicited much praise both for singers and teacher.

The little five-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burke is reported slightly better this morning. The life of the little one has hung on a very slender thread all the past week, but now hopes are entertained for her recovery. The erysipelas case developed into spinal meningitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Woodward and children have arrived home from their visit at Long Beach, Cal. They report the sunny shores of California as rather bleak, and state that Mrs. Woodward and the children have been sick a good part of the time they were there.

For Sale.—The best small ranch in Benton county, 3 miles from Albany, Or. 219 acres, 100 or more in cultivation; mostly second bottom land. Also fine timber claims in Lane and Douglas counties. For particulars apply to E. Morgan Watson, First National Bank, Eugene, Ore.

An incipient fire starting from dish towels hanging near a hot range in the kitchen of Mrs. Harden's boarding house caused a fire alarm yesterday shortly before noon. The hose teams responded, but no water was turned on. Aside from discolored woodwork there was no damage.

On the evening of March 3, at the High school auditorium, members of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge will give the popular play, "Miss Molly." The play is given as a benefit, with the object in view of purchasing a new carpet for the I. O. O. F. K. of P. hall. The cast and program will be given next week.

Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith, of La Porte City, Iowa, arrived Tuesday afternoon and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Minnie DePeatt. Mrs. Smith and her husband were at St. Paul during the Ice Carnival, and on route Mr. Smith stopped over at Miles City, Mont., with Ralph DePeatt, who is employed on the railroad.
