

Press Paragraphs

See our harness bargains. W. & R. Pastry sale tomorrow, in the Post-Winship store.

Mrs. Hotty Powers of Weston, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Henry Keen made a business trip to Walla Walla yesterday afternoon.

For Sale.—Three fresh milk cows. J. C. Walter. Athena. Phone. 31F6.

Fred Pinkerton has moved his family into the Hill residence on Current street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fell of Pendleton, were guests at the Ware home Sunday.

Chicken pox has made its appearance in Athens, along with a few cases of measles.

Mrs. I. W. Ware was a guest of Pendleton friends last week, returning home Saturday.

J. E. Inglis, agent for Standard Oil, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Jessie Brierley, of the Athena High school, visited her parents in Stanfield Sunday.

"$100 wouldn't buy my W. & R. motor washer if I could not get another." Prof. Lundell.

Mrs. M. D. Vaughn has returned to her home in this city, after spending the winter in Pendleton.

Mrs. N. J. Garfield went over to Walla Walla the first of the week to visit her children there.

Miss Lula Tharp is in Weston this week, nursing Mrs. Frank Taylor, a patient of Dr. Newsum's.

Miss Ella Fortna, of Milton, was a week-end guest of her sister, Miss Minnie Fortna in this city.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Tuesday March 27th, 1917, at their home on Current street.

Three sewing machines in two days last week—you should see that Two-spool wonder. Watts & Rogers.

The Star Club will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. A. B. Steele, at her home on High street.

W. W. Wallace, of Walla Walla, was a guest at the Jos. Baddeley home south of town the first of the week.

Mrs. Adams, of Milton, is at the St. Nichols hotel visiting her son George, a student in the Athena High school.

Rev. Davis Errett and Geo. R. Gerking attended the Kellems Bros.' meetings at Walla Walla Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon D. Taylor entertained at dinner Sunday, at their country home a number of relatives from town.

Drs. Boyden, of Pendleton, were in the city Tuesday evening in consultation with Dr. Newsum in the case of George Gross.

Mrs. Carrie Anderson is down from her home at New Westminster, B. C., visiting her father, Chas. Bocher, and other relatives.

Walter Bocher has moved his family to the H. A. Barrett farm on Pine creek, where he will have charge of the spring work.

County Supt. Young and wife were in the city Wednesday, visiting the Athena schools, and attended the morning assembly.

J. E. Scrimsher sold 80 acres of land on Wild Horse last week to F. A. and T. L. McBride, thus rounding out their holdings to 300 acres.

A record breaking sale of ten thousand bushels of April club wheat is reported from Portland which brought, Tuesday, $1.67 per bushel.

The Proctor family have moved from the Kemp property to the house on College and 8th street recently vacated by Rev. and Mrs. Bentley.

Orville Bocher, having served his four-year enlistment in the navy, returned this week to Athena. He has been ill since his return and confined to his room a portion of the time.

Mrs. J. C. Martin is slowly improving, and four of her children who have had the measles are recovering. Frank, who was a very sick lad, is just able to sit up after a two weeks tussle.

Dr. Cropp was called from Walla Walla the first of the week to see Frank Jackson, whose condition does not seem to improve.

D. H. Mansfield left Wednesday for Caldwell, Idaho, to take care of a carload of horses, which he shipped to that point. He returned this morning.

Five members of the local K. of P. Lodge went over to Weston Wednesday night in the Dobson car to assist in initiation work in the Weston lodge.

Mrs. Sarah Bowles came over from her home in Walla Walla Friday evening to remain with her son, Grover Bowles at the Le Grow home for the week.

The Leader reports that the right of way agent of the O-W. R. & N. Co. last week secured right of way for filling the Dry creek and Pine creek trestles.

Bud White, a well known young man of this city, was taken to Pendleton Wednesday and upon examination was committed to the State hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Preston and children have arrived from Huntington Beach, Calif., and will take possession of the L. C. Preston farm near Helix. Mr. Preston is a brother of Mrs. Joseph N. Scott.

Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith spent the first part of the week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Genevieve Harris, and other friends in Pendleton. Sunday morning at the Pendleton Christian church, Mrs. Smith gave a vocal solo.

Harry Warren, who formerly lived on the Stewart place west of town, has taken a homestead in Lake county, and has come up for the purpose of seeking employment while Mrs. Warren is holding down the claim.

Mrs. Roy Raley of Pendleton, visited her father, George Froome, at the St. Nichols Saturday. Mr. Froome remains about the same, in a semi-paralytic condition in which he was left almost a year ago.

Mrs. Lillie Miller has spent the past week in Portland, buying her new spring millinery, and will have her annual spring opening tomorrow. Her patrons are invited to call and view the very latest styles in hats.

Weston Leader: J. O. Russell, superintendent of the Athena schools, was in town Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Russell. Mr. Russell made arrangements with the Weston school to present his play, "Mr. Bob," in the High school auditorium early in April.

Dr. J. D. Plamondon has purchased the practice and residence property of Dr. Ringo in Pendleton, and left this week to assume his extensive practice at the county seat. Dr. Plamondon leaves a host of friends in Athena, where he has practiced his profession for many years, who regret to see his departure.

Harry Banister has recovered a horse and a mule, which he had about decided had gone from his ken forever. The animals strayed from his camp last fall while he was hunting on the Grand Ronde river, and were found at the Frank Nelson place on Butter creek, having found their way by way of Lehman springs.

Mrs. Martha Ferguson was in town Wednesday, from her home on Weston mountain. She recently returned from Rochester, Minn., with her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Lee, who has entirely recovered after a surgical operation by the eminent Doctors Mayo. Mrs. Ferguson visited relatives in Iowa during her stay in the East.

Don't overlook the chance for a good Sunday dinner equipment, from the cooked food and dressed chicken sale to be held tomorrow by the local Eastern Star ladies. Everything to constitute a complete dinner, from salads to desserts, with all the intermediate solids. Sale begins at 3 p. m., in the Foss-Winship show window.

For the benefit of the High school base ball team, a County Fair will be held in the Gymnasium tomorrow evening. The proceeds derived from the Fair will be used to pay for the team's new suits, which have been received. There will be free "cents" for everybody. The admission charge is only 15 cents.

The meeting of the C. W. B. M. Wednesday afternoon in the Christian church parlor was very interesting, with Mrs. Henry Koepke leading the meeting. Fourteen members and four visitors were present. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Woodward, and the Helix auxiliary will be invited to meet with the Athena ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and two little daughters arrived home Wednesday morning from their winter's stay at Long Beach, California. The past week has been spent in Portland, where they visited with the Walter Elys. They visited both Senator C. A. Barrett and Mrs. Dean Dudley, who are ill in Portland, and report both as improving.

Rev. Milo G. Bentley has resigned his pastorate of the Athena Baptist church, and last week removed his family to their fruit farm near the State Line. It is understood the Baptists here will not immediately replace Mr. Bentley, who with his estimable wife and family will be greatly missed in church circles. Kenneth, the eldest son, was a student in the High school.

Last Sunday being the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. H. O. Worthington, at the invitation of her husband, a number of her friends gathered at their home on High street Saturday afternoon and gave her a genuine surprise. A pleasant social luncheon was passed and an elaborate luncheon was served by Mr. Worthington, assisted by Mrs. J. O. Russell and Mrs. J. C. Burke. Twenty-five guests were present.

The Methodist church Sunday services: Sunday school 10 a. m., W. C. Emmel, Supt.; preaching at 11 and 7:30. Morning topic, "All Things Working Together for Good;" evening topic, "The Prophet's Vision of Today." In this sermon Bible passages which describe the present world situation and its outcome, will be discussed. Special music both vocal and instrumental. All are welcome. W. S. Gleiser.

The Union services in the Methodist church last Sunday evening proved to be a popular innovation, as was proven by the large congregation which assembled to hear a very able sermon by Rev. Gleiser. The music was given by the Christian church choir assisted by members of the Methodist and Baptist choirs, and the Men's Chorus, directed by Dr. Scott, with Miss Zola Keen at the piano. Mrs. Russell played the voluntaries on the pipe organ. It is hoped these union services may often be repeated.

George Gross, who has been very ill since coming home from Portland, was taken back to the city for medical treatment last night. He was attended by Mrs. Gross and Dr. Newsum, and it is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Gross will remain in the city until his recovery. Fred Gross accompanied his father as far as Walla Walla, and reports that he stood the trip that far very well, and it is hoped will successfully undergo the operation for ulcers of the stomach, which will be performed in Portland.

"Responsibility of the Christian Home," and "Sample Conversions," will be the subjects at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening respectively. Bible school 9:50, Geo. R. Gerking director. Special music at both services by the Male and mixed choruses. Junior choir at the Bible school hour, led by Mrs. W. R. Scott. A young ladies' society, is soon to be organized by the young people. The official board meeting Friday evening was the beginning of a special program for the year. D. Errett.

School Notes.

[Continued From Page 1.]

far during the school year they have had 104 visitors. This is the greatest number any individual room has ever reported.

The contestants of Miss Barnes' room, 13 in number, for the Unattila trophy some time during the coming week. The best two or three will engage in a contest with the other grades.

Mrs. J. H. Miller was a visitor to Miss Fortna's room during the week.

Wayne Huffman, who has been absent from school with a sprained ankle, has returned.

New Store Opening.

Tomorrow morning the S. & H. Pure Food Grocery will open for business, and the proprietors have extended an invitation to the people of Athena and vicinity to be present some time during the day to inspect the stock and become acquainted with the proprietors, see the new sanitary meat slicing machine operate and take in every detail of the new food shop.

Special attention has been given the arrangement of the different lines of the stock in order to give the best display possible, having in mind both the convenience of their clerks and customers as well.

In addition to a swell line of staple and fancy groceries, fresh vegetables, including head and hot-house lettuce, radishes, green onions, Brussel sprouts young carrots, beets and turnips, tomatoes, cucumbers, parsley and cabbage will be among the offerings tomorrow.

"Everything for the table," say the proprietors, "and we do not on quality, quantity and service."

Local Library News.

The local Library Board reports the February circulation of books as 721, considerably less than in January, when the circulation was 868. The following books have been donated by citizens for the permanent shelves:

Alger, Jr.—Bound to Rise.

Colter.—Master of Deepplaw.

Drake.—Terrors of the Sea.

Haves.—The Balkan Campaign.

Olin.—Teddy.

Payson.—Boy Scouts and the Army Airships.

Saunders.—Tilda Jane.

Young.—Motor Boys on the Atlantic.

Rental Books.

Bartlett.—The Wall Street Girl.

Gibbs.—Paradise Garden.

Reynolds.—The Daughter Pays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith Honored.

February 23 being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, the ladies of the Saturday Afternoon Club with their husbands, and also the Weston band, gave them a surprise at their home. After the happy couple had been taken in hand and properly appared, the impressive ring ceremony was performed by Frank Graham in language wholly original and full of pep and humor to the sound of soft music. S. A. Barnes gave away the bride, and Dr. Watts in behalf of the company, presented the bride and groom with a leather rocker as a token of the auspicious occasion.—Leader.

Glee Club May Come.

The Willamette Collegian, the bright publication of the Willamette University of which Rev. W. S. Gleiser of this city was once the editor, says of its Glee Club itinerary: "Some few changes have been made in the dates since first published. A concert will be given at Echo, March 21 instead of the 30th. On the way back from Spokane and Walla Walla, a concert may be given at Athena. In April a concert will be given at either Parma or Nyssa instead of Caldwell, as previously stated."

La Grande Asks for Normal.

At a luncheon of merchants and their wives Senator Walter M. Pierce launched a boom to have La Grande made the home of the normal school which will be located in Eastern Oregon by the regents if the bill to give Southern Oregon a normal school is adopted by the people at the next election. "Geographically, socially, financially and every other way La Grande looms as the logical place for the proposed normal," declared the Senator.

Special Attraction.

"Uncle Hiram's Thimble Bee," Saturday night, March 10th at 8 p. m., at the Adams City Hall. Leading man Lawrence Lianuilen. For benefit of the Adams Public Library. Everybody come. 8c and 25c.

The Shoe Question Is the Family Problem

More than any other item of expenditure in the cost of family living, the item of footwear has advanced more in proportion than has anything else, and from present indications, shoe prices will continue to soar as material values go up. However,

We Bought Ours Right

and consequently we are prepared to offer firstclass Quality Shoes at prices within the bounds of reason

LADIES' AND MISSES SHOES	MENS AND BOYS SHOES
White Nubucks, Grey and Black Hi Top Kids, high heels; White Canvas Shos, fitted with easy rubber heels, at	High class Footwear for Men and Boys in Velour Calf and Vici, in Black, Tan and Gun Metal. All the latest styles,
$3 to $6.50	$2 to $8.00

FIX & RADTKE

Main St. THE "MONEY-BACK STORE" Athena

FOSS-WINSHIP HARDWARE COMPANY

Hardware

O. V. B. CUTLERY IS GUARANTEED UNIVERSAL RANGES & BIG 3 WASHERS

BARRETT BUILDING, :: ATHENA, OREGON

"Waterloo Boy"

Kerosene Tractor, $950 f.o.b. Athena

This is a successful kerosene and distillate burner. Saves $175 to $195 per year in fuel cost over any gasoline tractor of same capacity. Pulls three-inch plows on any ordinary hillside that horses can plow on. Will pull a 24-inch separator with self stacker and feeder complete. It is just the right size for stationary or portable work on the farm, large or small.

Ratings—12-24 H.P.; 2 cyl; 6 1-2 x 7 in; 3 drive wheels; 2 1-4 m per hour; motor 750 r. p. m.; pully 14 x 8 Dixie magneto; Schebler carburetor; weight 4800 pounds.

For Further Information, Write Hoskins & Houser, Echo Oregon.

READY TO WEAR A SPLENDID STOCK

We are now showing a complete line of ladies' suits, coats and dresses. Have them in all new shades; best values we have ever shown. See the new crepe de chine waists at $2.98.

- Ladies' suits in Taffetas, Poppins, Serges, etc. in all the new shades of blue, gold, apple-green, gray, etc. at prices in reach of all $9.90-12.50-14.75-16.50-8.50-22.50-25.00
- Ladies' and Misses' coats in gold, blues, apple-green, rose checks and plaids $5.90 to 17.50
- Ladies' Crepe de Chine waists, all the new shades $2.98
- Ladies' fancy hose in all the new stripes .98
- Ladies' fibre-silk hose, plain colors .49
- Ladies' wash Waists, all sizes .98-1.49
- See the new wash White Kid boot 5.90-6.90

New Spring Dresses, latest colors.

The Golden Rule J.C. Penney Co. Inc. 125 BUSY STORES

Here's the HOME OF QUALITY Groceries sold at prices that are right

Good Groceries Hits the Right Spot Every Time

HERE IS THE SPOT to Come to Every Time for the Best in Groceries

TRY THESE, they will please. One best, The Monopole—Monopole Vegetables, Monopole Fruits, Monopole Salmon, Monopole Oysters—the leading quality brand. None other is quite so good in Quality.

MAIN STREET DELL BROTHERS ATHENA, ORE