ATHENA, ORE. APRIL 13.....1917

ORGANIZING AN ARMY.

The Portland Oregonian in drawing the distinction between voluntary military service and selective compulsory training, cites Great Britain and Canadian failures during the first two years of the war. The Portland paper says: "We have learned from the mistakes of Britain that war service consists directly as much in supplying the needs of the Army and Navy and in transporting men and material as in fighting the armed forces of the enemy. We have learned also the necessity of putting each man where he can most effectively serve the Nation, whether it be in the Army, the Navy, the factory, the shipyard, the mine or the forest, and of reinforcing the work of men with that of women in non-combatant service."

"We can give Germany an unpleasant surprise in rapid preparedness by doing now that which Great Britain and Canada learned to do only after two years of costly blundering. The former country performed an unprecedented feat by enlisting under the voluntary system half of the men qualified for active service, but it wasted enormous sums on a recruiting campaign, which the universal service system would have avoided. It permitted miners, shipwrights, steel workers, and other skilled mechanics to enlist, whom it later took out of the trenches to do essential war-work at home, and it accepted married recruits for the care of whose families it had to assume a heavy obligation."

"Canada made the same mistake and has robbed the farming provinces of men necessary to produce food for the mother country; the cities of skilled men who should have been making shells and clothing. Under the voluntary system, too, some provinces have contributed more than their share of men, while others have shamefully shirked their duty. Enlistments per thousand of population in each province were: Ontario, 63; Quebec, 20; Maritime provinces, 38; Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 81; Alberta, 92; British Columbia, 104. Like disproportion in the contributions of the different states would probably be found in the volunteer armies of this country.

"By adopting the compulsory system, the United States will avoid these blunders and injustices. We shall begin with the benefit of the experience gained during the first two and two-thirds years of the war and, if we live up to our reputation in other affairs, we shall be in a position to strike as hard after one year of preparation as Great Britain was after nearly two years, when she began the battle of the Somme."

Order Vacating Sale and Directing Re-Sale of Property.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon in and for Umatilla County.
In the Matter of the Estate of Maggie LaBrache Franz, Deceased.

Now on this day this matter coming on to be heard upon the return of the sale of realty made by the Executrix, Mary LaBrache Baddeley, and it appearing to the Court that the executrix herein by an order made and entered in the above entitled matter on the 29th day of Dec., 1914, was directed, empowered and licensed to sell the realty belonging to the estate herein, said realty being described as follows, to-wit: Lots one (1) and two (2) and the Southwest one-fourth of the N. E. 1/4, all in Sec. 32, Tp. 4, N. R. 35, E. W. M., Umatilla County, Oregon, containing 89 acres. And, it appearing that the executrix herein under and pursuant to said order, on the 27th day of January, 1917, sold said realty at a private sale as she was directed to do and as was advertised and that on the 3rd day of February, 1917, the executrix herein made a return of said sale and showed to the Court among other things that the highest and best bid made and offered for said described land was one hundred sixteen and two-thirds ($116.66 2-3) dollars per acre or the sum of ten thousand three hundred eighty-three and 33 1-3 100 ($10,383.33 1-3) dollars for the eighty-nine (89) acres, the bid being made by J. C. Baddeley, and it appearing that objections to said sale and the confirmation thereof was filed on the 23rd day of February, 1917, prior to said sale being confirmed, said objections being based upon the fact that the sum bid was disproportionate to the value thereof and that a sum exceeding said bid by ten per centum, exclusive of expenses of a new sale could be gotten from other parties who were ready and willing to deposit the ten per centum advance on the price, together with the costs of re-sale, and it appearing that on the 9th day of March, 1917, Earl Gillanders of Pendleton, Oregon, bid and offered to the Court herein for said described land the sum of eleven thousand four hundred seventy-one and 61-100 ($11,471.61) dollars, or ten per centum more than the bid received by the executrix on January 27, 1917, plus fifty ($50.00) dollars for the cost of re-sale, and that he has deposited with the Court on said bid the sum of ten hundred eighty-eight and 34-100 ($1,088.84) dollars as directed by the Court in order that the Court might vacate the sale of said land which was made on January 27, 1917, to J. C. Baddeley and order the land resold. The Court being advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that it is for the best interest of the estate that said land be re-sold:

Now, therefore, it is Ordered that the sale of Lots one (1) and two (2) and the southwest one-fourth of the N. E. 1/4, all in Sec. 32, Tp. 4, N. R. 35, E. W. M., Umatilla County, Oregon, containing 89 acres, which was made by the executrix, Mary LaBrache Baddeley, on January 27, 1917, to J. C. Baddeley for the sum of ten thousand three hundred eighty-three and 33 1-3 hundredths ($10,383.33 1-3) dollars be and the same is hereby vacated and set aside.

It is further Ordered that the Executrix of the estate herein re-sell said described land at a public sale to be held at the front door of the dwelling house on said premises, said sale to be held at the hour of eleven o'clock a. m. Saturday, April 14, 1917, and said land to be sold to the highest bidder for cash in hand, and at a sum not less than the present bid, to-wit: Eleven thousand four hundred seventy-one and 61-100 ($11,471.61) dollars, the price now offered for said land by Earl Gillanders.

Be it further Ordered that the executrix of the estate herein give notice of the time, place, manner and terms of the sale of said described land by publication of this Order in the Athena Press, a weekly newspaper published at Athena, Umatilla County, Oregon, having a general circulation throughout the State, said publication to run for a period of four consecutive weeks prior to said date of sale; the first publication to be made on Friday, March 16, 1917, and the last publication to be made on Friday, the 13th day of April, 1917, and that the executrix post notices of said sale as by law required.
