O. T. (Dad) Douglas reports to the Weston Leader of having seen a peculiar object flying rapidly across the heavens Sunday night. It resembled a ball of fire with a trail of sparks behind it. Dad isn't claiming that the object was a stray aeroplane, because he was unable to fly after it and make a personal investigation. He merely says it was different from any aerial visitor he ever saw before. Sid McLean was with him at the time, and was equally mystified.

Weston Leader: Bean prospects have been looking up in the Weston country the last few days. Pods have been setting nicely on the vines, many of which are well loaded, and cool nights are helping the crop to mature. While rain would do a lot of good there is enough moisture in the soil to bring the crop to maturity, and the only danger is from early frosts. In company with W. L. Robbins our bean editor visited a number of fields this week, and feels quite encouraged over the outlook.
