NUMBER 37

By the first of October a study course of foods will be open to the women of Athena and other communities in Umatilla county, under the direction of the Extension Department of the Oregon Agricultural College. Every wo-man is urged to join in an effort to show what the women of this commun-ity can do to help win the war by conervation at hor good. At present Tharp and McPher-rin are the only old players, Booher being unable to play on account of an abscess in the muscle of his leg. John Conservation of the food as it is dai-Saunders is making good at guard and George Lieuallen will play center. If Claude Coomans returns, he will play guard but if not, some new boy will have to be trained for that position. The boys are struing to gut pattern Conservation of the food as it is dai-ly prepared in our homes does not mean skimping so that the members of the family are under nourished. It does mean, however, wine buying, careful preparation, and the elimination of wast, both in preparation and con-sumption. These results cannot be acomplished unless the housewife un-derstands food values and the varying needs for nourishment represented by gloves for boxing and wrestling. The second regular meeting of the Literary Society is being held this afternoon in the High school auditor-ium. The special feature of the meet-ing is the initiation of the officers who were elected at the last meeting. Also a very pleasing program, the first to be given this year, has been carefully arranged by the program committee. The public is cordially invited to at-tend these meetings. The program follows:

Supt. Russell has planned for a very interesting and instructive series of talks to be given by the Figh school pupils at each regular mid week assembly. These talks will be on var-ious Current Event topics and promise to benefit the speaker as well as the audience. Wednesday the Freshmen class gave entertaining speeches on phases of the war and next Wednesday the Sophomore Class will deliver their urrent events.

Four new pupils registered in the grade rooms last week. This makes a total of 182 in the grades and 169 in the whole school at present. The new pupils are: Lawrence Audett, second grade. Reeve Betts, fourth grade; Agnes Audett, third grade and Ivan Cox, sixth grade.

The third and fourth grade pupils under the direction of Miss Lawson are doing some splendid work in art, which is exhibited on Friday after-noons. A cordial invitation is extended to the parents to visit this room. Several visitors to Miss Sherman's room of the past week were Miss Boyer, Mrs. Will Kirk, Mrs. Marion Hansell and Mrs. Leon Kidder. -Mrs. Russell was a visitor of Miss
