

Press Paragraphs

Arnold Koepke has been pledged to the Kappa Sigma fraternity at the U. of O.

John Wall will leave Sunday for California where he expects to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dudley have returned from a short wedding trip to Portland.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Wright of Walla Walla visited at the D. H. Mansfield home Sunday.

W. A. Saunders has purchased the Jack McPhail land near Helix, according to the E. O.

Henry Keen went to Portland this week, where he represented Pythian Lodge K. of P. at the grand lodge session.

Among the temporary exemptions reported by the district board is the name of Grover Bowles, stockman of Montana.

The Star Club will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn.

The ladies of the local Red Cross report the next sum of $55 from their pastry sale last Saturday.

Good fresh butter for sale at the Bern Banister dairy. Get in your order for regular delivery.—Adv.

Miss Dora Bennett left the first of the week for Portland, where she will be employed at dressmaking.

Lawson Booher is reported getting along nicely after an operation on his knee, in the Pendleton hospital.

Ever get tired building fires? Cole's Original Air Tight Wood Stove holds the fire all night. Better look at one.

Miss Vera Hayman, of Ringling, Mont., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Austin Hoffman, at her home on Wild Horse creek.

Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, of "Merrimac" fame, will lecture in Pendleton at the M. E. church Monday evening, Oct. 15.

Miss Jeanette Miller has recently received a handsome new Shoniger piano, the gift of her mother, of which she is justly proud.

A letter from Sam Starr, at Camp Greene N. C. reports the boys all well and happy except Ed. Sebsky who is still in the hospital.

Floyd Payne and wife visited relatives in Waitburg Sunday. They left Tuesday for Portland, where Floyd has a position as bookkeeper.

Mrs. J. O. Russell enjoyed a visit from her brother, H. W. Torbet, assistant cashier of the First National bank at Albany the past week.

Miss Josephine Clark returned this week from a visit to Seattle, where she attended the wedding of a friend in the capacity of bridesmaid.

Mrs. J. A. Lumsden left Wednesday for Enterprise, where she will visit, prior to her departure with Mr. Lumsden for a winter's sojourn in California.

John Barnes has resigned as an employe in the Mill and will engage in farming east of Weston. He will move his family to the Anderson farm next week.

For Sale.—One half-section good raw wheat land in Horse Heaven district, seven miles from Kennewick. $20 per acre; terms.

A. F. Hammond, Enumclaw, Wash.

Lloyd Ritchey of Cornelius, has arrived and taken a position in the Parker barber shop, in place of Jesse Myrick, who has again quit the barber business.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chase was taken to the Pendleton hospital last week, and is slowly recovering from her long illness. She is attended by her mother.

Henry Barrett brought his sheep in from the mountain range on the Looking Glass and Tuesday morning passed through town taking them to his Pine Creek range north of town.

Claud Coomans and Lloyd McPherson, Athena High school boys, left Saturday morning for The Dalles, where they will be employed on the Coomans fruit ranch during the busy season.

Ralph Haynie, son of Mr. Haynie of the Radtke's store, arrived Sunday from Monmouth, where he has been attending school, and will enter the Senior class of the Athena High school.

New concrete walks are being laid around the property of Robt Coppock on 4th and Adams streets, and Mrs. Lilly Miller and E. L. Smith on Adams. The work is being done by Mr. Keller.

Wm. McBride, J. A. Lumsden, Frank Bertin, and Wm. Winship Sunday left in the McBride car for a trip through Montana, with the purpose of investing in land if conditions are favorable.

Leonard Blomgren has the distinction of being the first of the Weston soldier boys to sail for France. He was on the ocean September 24 with the command to which he is attached.

H. C. LaMarsh, agent at the N. P. depot, went to Walla Walla Monday and joined Battery A. Field Artillery, in time to entrain with the battalion leaving for Camp Greene, N. C., Tuesday night.

J. C. Walter recently purchased 300 acres belonging to the Hager estate, the land lying near Adams. The price was $17,000 being $192.30 an acre. Oscar Piper sold to Wm. Piper, 160 acres for $5000.

Mrs. Wm. Gholson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mackay, in Walla Walla this week, while Mr. Gholson is at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Taylor, on Cold Spring, doing carpenter work.

In response to a telegram urging her immediate presence, Mrs. Davis Errett left Saturday afternoon for Plattsmouth, Nebraska to attend her mother. No hopes are held for the recovery of the invalid.

Mrs. N. A. Osborne and her two sons, Percy and Eugene, left Monday evening and will visit a short time in Spokane before continuing on their journey. Mrs. Osborne to Iowa and the boys to Missoula, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lytle of LaCrosse, Wash., visited relatives in Athena this week. The couple were recently married at Pomeroy, the bride, Miss Bessie Carder, being a niece of Mrs. Winship and Mrs. Haworth.

Within 30 or 40 days the work of filling the O. W. trestles crossing Pine and Dry Creeks near Weston will have been completed by the contractors. A considerable force of men will afterward be employed in riprapping.

Elmer Booher left Wednesday morning for Condon, near where he will locate on a farm. Mr. Booher took down his household goods and equipment by train, and Mrs. Booher will be accompanied by her father and sister, Wm. Russell and Miss Vorigie, going by automobile.

Mrs. Sarah Bowles and Miss Laura Bowles of Walla Walla, spent the week end at the LeGrow home in this city. Miss Bowles has resumed teaching after a couple of years rest, and is again a member of the Walla Walla High school faculty.

Tomorrow evening the ladies of the Catholic church will hold their annual ball in the Opera house. Joe Payant's orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be served. A pleasant evening is assured all who attend.

Misses Estella Smith and Myrtle Potts, left on Tuesday night's train to enter Spokane University, where they will take the regular college course. They were accompanied by A. Mackenzie Meldrum, who is a prominent member of the faculty.

Dr. Sharp went over to Walla Walla yesterday, where he assisted in two surgical operations, one on Mrs. Hamp Booher of Weston, for tumor, and the other on Jesse Smith of Athena for a growth on the throat. Both patients are in a favorable condition.

Mrs. George Carmichael of Walla Walla was successfully operated upon September 28 at Kirksville, Mo., for the removal of a goitre with which she has long been troubled. She withdrew the ordeal well and has since been progressing favorably toward recovery.

Alex Kirk's handsome new bungalow on south 3rd street is nearing completion and he is beginning the erection of another bungalow of smaller proportions, adjoining his own, which will be occupied by Mrs. Kirk's mother who will come here from Halsey to make her home.

Mrs. Sarah McDougal, familiarly known as "Aunt Sarah" of the popular McDougal camp, is over from her home in Weston visiting her grandson, J. R. Barnes and other relatives. Mrs. McDougal claims to be the "Mother of Weston" having been the first white settler of that burg with her family.

The sum of $10,697.54, the first federal inheritance tax to be paid in Umatilla county under the new law, was recorded paid Monday in the office of the county recorder. It was paid by the estate of the late Ben F. Ogle, and is in addition to the state income tax of $291.14 already paid by the estate.

A telegram received by Rev. Errett announced the death of Mrs. Errett's mother Mrs. Elizabeth Wiles at Plattsmouth, Nebraska Wednesday morning. Mrs. Errett arrived there Tuesday night. Deceased was 75 years old, and leaves a husband aged 57, and 9 children to mourn her loss.

Saturday Oct. 10 Pendleton will have the first inter-collegiate football game when O. A. C. and Idaho University eleven will meet on the Round Up grounds for their annual game. Last year O. A. C. won the game 24-0. This is one of the big games on both teams' schedule for the Northwest Conference championship and will doubtless draw a record crowd.

Mrs. Minnie DePeatt will go to Pendleton Sunday, where she will keep house for her sister, Mrs. Genevieve Harris and her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith, both of whom are employed in the Golden Rule store, in that city. Mrs. Smith's husband is enlisted in the engineers' corps of the Army and is now in active service, and she will spend the time of his absence here with her mother.

On Saturday evening, October 20, a Red Cross benefit Jitney dance will be given at the Athena opera house with Mrs. Sabina Morton as hostess. With this initial benefit proving successful a series of Jitney dances will be given throughout the winter for the benefit of the local Red Cross auxiliary. The young people of neighboring towns and vicinities will be invited and a generous patronage from Athena citizens is expected.

Thirty cans of trout fry secured through the good offices of George Tomkin, deputy game and fish warden, were released Wednesday in Pine creek and will be ready for the angler a year from next spring, reports the Weston Leader. Half of them were turned loose below town by Marvin Price and Happy Graham, and the other half above town, in the vicinity of Rocky Ford, by Dr. Watts and Jim Price. The young trout are about an inch long and comprise the rainbow and brook varieties.

A "Hallowe'en Frolic" is announced to be given by the young ladies of Athena and vicinity, assisted by a number of the young matrons of the city. This promises to be an event of interest, the proceeds of which will be given to the Red Cross. A program of music and vaudeville features will be presented after which refreshments will be served, the menu being appropriate to the Hallowe'en season. The exact date has not been set, but the "Frolic" will be held in the High school auditorium.

TEAS and SPICES from the ORIENT

"THE CUP THAT CHEERS"—that's what tea-drinkers call our teas. There are many grades and flavors on the market, but our choice selections of the most desirable qualities will surely please.

SHILLING'S TEA per package 35c & 70c
DEPENDABLE " " " 30c & 60c
LIPTON'S " " " 40c & 75c
JAPAN, GUNPOWDER, and SPIDERLEG
TEAS in bulk 60c per pound

Our Spices are pure and wholesome—of full strength and flavor. They help to make Baking Day "goodies" more tempting.

FIX & RADTKE

Main St. THE "MONEY-BACK STORE" Athena

S & H Pure Food Grocery

Quality—Quantity—Service
PHONE 171

- Good Table Catsup the bottle .20
- Best Eastern Cornmeal 9 pound bag .60
- New Comb Honey each .20
- Peanut Butter in bulk the pound .25
- S & H Coffee a 40c coffee for .35
- Curve cut Macaroni 2 pounds .25
- Horseradish Freshly grated bottle .30

Crockery

In Connection

FOSS-WINSHIP HARDWARE COMPANY

FISHING TACKLE

We are displaying an assortment of Flies, Hooks, Spoons, Lines, Leaders, Rods, Reels, etc. We are carrying a splendid line this year.

BARRETT BUILDING, :: ATHENA, OREGON

Oils Tires

Valvoline, Mono-gram, Zerolene Goodyear, Firestone, and U. S.

Athena Garage

Repairing

Agents for BUICK and MAXWELL CARS

Parts and Accessories. Lathe Work a Specialty.

We carry the best MEATS That Money Buys Our Market is Clean and Cool Insuring Wholesome Meats. READ & MEYER Main Street, Athena, Oregon

23 Years Ago.
[From the Press of Oct. 5 1894]

Born in Athena, October 8, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. Lake France, a girl.

The Athena band will give a concert next Friday evening, Oct. 19th, assisted by the Choral Union.

Born—Oct. 12th, to the wife of Thos. P. Page, a boy. They say T. P. is still able to be up.

W. T. Gilman, John Gillis, T. D. Taylor and E. S. Waterman went down to Portland on the excursion this week.

Dr. Dell informs us of the serious illness of G. D. Foster. Mr. Foster was taken ill with typhoid fever last week and at this writing is in a very precarious condition.

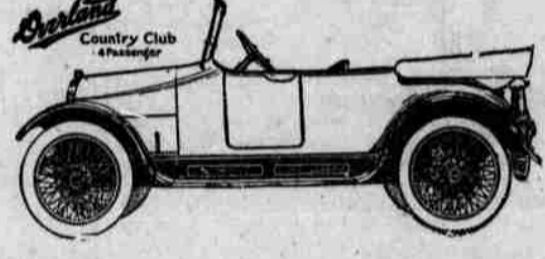

East Oregonian: James Lienallen and W. B. Adeock left for Portland Monday night. They go to make a sale of 40,000 bushels of wheat direct to the exporters from the raisers in Umatilla county.

"Look out mama, I'm going to shoot you now," and as Mrs. Humphrey, of Pendleton, quickly turned her head the crack of a target rifle rang out, and the bullet passed through the mother's right cheek, making a serious wound.

Three refrigerator cars were loaded with potatoes in this city during the week for shipment east. T. A. McGinnis, of Paw Paw, Ill., shipped two of the cars, one of which was loaded by A. J. Goodbrod and the others by various parties in this vicinity. The other car was shipped by F. D. McCully.

OVERLANDS

FOURS 5-PASSENGER

Big Four, 5 Passenger, $1,010 Athena; Little Four, 5-Passenger, $840 Athena; Easy riding and easy controlled.

VACUUM CUP TIRES

Guaranteed for 6000 Miles

Valvoline Motor Oils. Best brands of Cup and Axle Grease. Mitchell and Studebaker Wagons

We also have a complete line of Oils constantly on hand C. A. Barrett & Co

A Neat Fit

Is Essential for Wear as Well as Looks

We Can Fit You

For Instance

Suppose you are tired of your present Clothes Service, wouldn't a change be beneficial? Try me once for the change

Third Street J. H. BOOHER Athena Oregon

Foley's Kidney Cure makes kidneys and bladder right Foley's Honey and Tar for children safe, sure. No opiates.

Script Form Butter Wrappers Are Best