[From the Press of Oct. 19 1894]

The heaviest wheat we have heard of so far this season, was at the Producers Warehouse, in this city. The other day five sacks of wheat were taken in that tipped the beam at 890 pounds, an average of 178 pounds to the sack. The wheat was raised by W. M. Steen, and was of the Blue Stem variety. The trucking was done by Charles Bergevin.

The case of the city of Athena vs. Mike Ryan, in the circuit court was decided in Ryan's favor. The case was the outgrowth of Mr. Ryan's promiscuous flourishing of firearms on the streets of Athena, which is prohibited by ordinance. Ryan was fined $50 by the city recorder, and took an appeal to the circuit court with the above result.

The Athena Flouring Mill company are at present taxed to their utmost to fill orders for their China trade. During the past week 10,000 bushels of wheat passed through the rolls turning out 1800 barrels of flour, and Monday the company commenced on a 1,000 barrel order.

Clark Wood, erstwhile city editor of the East Oregonian, but at present constable for Weston precinct is fast getting onto his job. He is a rustler and has the genuine official expression of "yer my man," down pat.
