

Dedicated to Troop D.

The following was composed in honor of Troop D, now stationed at Company D, F. A., at Camp Mills, N. Y. The author is "Sandy" McNary, and the verses were sent to his mother by Edward Sebasky.

Of all the brave troops gathered at Klackamas,
The boys from Pendleton sure headed the class With their tan and their health and sombroso lids, Rolling, jolly, high spirited, red blooded kids
There are fair ones, rare ones, all fine looking lads
The pride of their Mothers, sweethearts and dads.

There was Capt. Lee Caldwell, world famous buckeroo
You ought to hear all the things he can do,
But best of all is his wonderful big honest heart,
We all loved him rarely and t'was sure hard to part,
He'll sure lead his troop and lead it full well Good night Germans Lee will sure give you hell.

With Lee and the others you will find Tracy Layns
Who sings "Take me back to Montana again."
The boy is some singer—how those full notes roll,
He sings from the heart, it goes straight to your soul, May the songs you sing, Tracy, and the life you lead Inspire all the fellows to every good deed.

Little Jock Coleman, prize comedian of song
They sure could not do without you going along,
For if ever the boys have an attack of the blues
You can drive them away with the song of the muse.
We are sorry old boy Hilda's love was so fickle, Buck up old horse, she was just a lead nickel.

They say the great picture man Jesse Lasky,
Would like for the movies our Eddie Sebasky,
But we have hope that he and George Winship,
Will get those damn Boches right on the hip,
We know you are brave, ride any wild thing
And can make those guns of yours bingled do ding.

They tell on the side our Tommy's the dickens He loves like sin but he will chase the chickens
For shame Tommy boy, you must cut it all out Or at least don't "pullet" with the others about,
Have a heart you villainous, treacherous man, Or some girl on your pants will tie a tin can.

There is some thing else I must weave in my story,
About the brave boys who will fight for
"Old Glory"
Love was so rampant there will yet be a duel
Our Arrilla the Cookie and sweet Jane McCool
In practice our boys put one Hun on the run
You know who I mean that Everett son of a gun.

Be it ever so painful yet I do believe boys
You will share with each other your sorrows and joys Don't let any malice creep into your life,
And keep from your party bickering and strife
Each loving the others in unselfishness
And if wronged boys be strong in forgiveness.

Carry on! Brave boys while we stay at home Carry on! Brave fellows while away your room
Remember deep down in your hearts, Brave man
This world must be made safe for all again
They have stuck at our vitals, our Freedom right, God is with you dear man, carry on.

come to one and all to attend these services. Geo. T. Klein.

At the Baptist Church.
Last Sunday was a special day of prayer for our Government in this great crisis. Earnest prayer was given by many. Cards were given out last Sunday asking the people to economize on the food. All cards are expected to be returned filled out next Sunday and new ones received for the next week, and each week until the first of the year. Let everyone enlist and help to win the right for the world.
Topics for next Sunday: 11 a. m., "The Voice of God in the Clouds."

7:30 p. m. "Conversion; Regeneration." These addresses will be of interest to everyone. Hear them. A hearty invitation is extended to the public to come and enjoy with us the splendid fellowship in the Lord. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. The study of the Epistle of Ephesians will be the special study for a few weeks.
Let all come and get this splendid exposition. Bring your note books with you.
D. E. Baker, Pastor.

Th. Christian Church.
The Christian church has three good programs for Sunday Bible school for all grades at 10 o'clock, with Geo. R.
Gerking, director. Let us come and study God's Word together for a time.
Preaching and Communion 11 a. m., subject "The Call of Our Country." What shall we eat, and wherewithal shall we be clothed? What about the fragments? What about the waste?
Evening theme, "The Making of a Man," Genesis 1:26. Are you one of the men God made? Question, and see.
At a meeting of the Christian church chorus last week, Mrs. W. R.
Scott was unanimously elected director. Her qualities are so well known she will need no commendation. Announcement will be made when she will begin her work in the musical department of the church. The church bids all a hearty welcome to all its services. D. Errett, Minister.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Sermon topics at the Methodist church Sunday are: "Critical Tendencies of Today," and "The Use of the Bible in Taking Men Alive." These themes will be discussed at the morning and evening services respectively. Sunday school at 10 a. m. The contest in which the boys and girls are running neck to neck for the prize will end in two Sundays. This contest is proving as interesting for spectators as for contestants. A genuine welcome will be given everyone who attends these services. Walter S. Gleisner.

It is a fine thing to guard our homes against alien soldiers of whose pur-very important to guard them against other insidious foes that creep in under the disguise of friendly entertainers to plunder and destroy the cherished ideals, the lofty standards, the clear visions that have given the home its

If you will familiarize your young people with the best reading, they will not be likely to care what is inferior and demoralizing. The Youth's Com-that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the con-

ROMANTIC SICILY.
The Men and the Fame of This Wonder Island of History.
Sicily's history is as vivid and picturesque, as ferocious and creative and destructive, as mythical and intensely practical, as the stories of all the rest of the world put together. And in beauty of nature, of climate or man and of least the island is a paradise today, whether or not it was ever the workless, painless, passionless elysium where our first ancestors enjoyed all the good things of life without having to toil.
Nature itself, now in the guise of the mismastered god of old, now in convolutions or in quiet fertility that science has made plain to us, weaves its mysterious shuttle through and through the highly colored fabric.
And men—such men!—tower above their fellows in the story like Titans—Pindar, Aeschylus, Theocritus, Thyridides, Archimedes, the two great He-rostrus, Cleero, Verres, Diadorus, Hamilcar and Hannibal, Roger the Count and Roger the King, Belisarius, the great cruisers Richard of the Lion Heart and Louis the Saint of France, Charles of Anjou, Frederick II, the "wonder of the world," and Garibaldi. Even this partial list reads like a compendium of ancient and medieval romance and chivalry.—National Geographic Magazine.

MOTORCAR TIRES.
To Lengthen Their Lives Keep Them Free From Oil and Grease.
It is pretty generally known that gasoline, grease, oil and other fatty substances are solvents of rubber.
If garage floors are not kept clean and tires stand in a pool of oil the treads soften and the traction strains in service stretch the rubber in a way outline, eventually causing it to separate from the fabric body underneath.
Probably the most damage is experienced from grease. In the differential housing, working out into the brake drums and then on to the side walls of the tires. This may result from loose bearings or too much grease or from using grease not suitable for differentials.
Grease and oil may be very easily removed by using a rag saturated in gasoline. Gasoline, although a solvent, evaporates quickly and, if applied in small quantities, will not cause any injury when used as a cleaning agent.
Ordinary injuries to the rubber cover do not prevent successful repairs, but not often can work be well done when materials have been affected by oil or grease. Invariably blistering during vulcanization results.—Popular Science Monthly.

Writing on a Moving Train.
Writing legibly on a fast moving train is difficult to a person unversustomed to do it. The railroad conductor knows the trick of it and manages to get along quite satisfactorily. He prefers to write in a standing position and holds his right elbow firmly against his side. The reason for this is that in a sitting posture there is too much lateral movement in the trunk of the body, while in a standing position this is more easily controlled.
When the arm swings freely, as in ordinary writing, several joints of the body are affected in the process, each of which is capable of its own motion.
Holding the elbow against one's ribs breaks these motion tendencies, except that of the wrist, which movement is necessary in writing, and thus the pencil or pen is more easily controlled.

Cautious.
A lawyer happened to be acquainted with a juror in a petty civil case, and he met him during a recess of the court.
The lawyer was just "lighting up" and under ordinary circumstances he would have offered the other a cigar unhesitatingly, but it occurred to him that it might not look right.
"I suppose," he said guardedly, "that a cigar would not influence your verdict?"
The juror was equally cautious.
"A good one wouldn't," he replied, "but a poor one might prejudice me."
He got a good cigar.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Size of It.
"Send me a ton of coal."
"What size?"
"Well, a 2,000 pound ton would suit me, if that's not asking too much."
—Life.
The drying up of a single tear has more of honest fame than shedding seas of gore.—Byron.
