Mrs. Mrs. Charlen Williams and family have moved to Athena for the winter to take advantage of school facilities.

Leaky wood stoves are dangerous. Cole's Air Tight Wood Heaters remain air tight. They're safe and economical.—Adv.

Mrs. D. Errett will deliver the missionary address for the Christian church at Pendleton, the second Sunday in December.

Dr. J. M. Childers, Therapeutic practitioner, is in Pendleton for tomorrow and will return to his Athena office, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bumpus, former residents of Athena, were in the city last evening, registered at the St. Nicholas from Walla Walla.

Marion Hansell and Henry Dell spent the week at Lewiston, Idaho. Marion was accompanied on the trip by his little son, Master Stafford.

Wild Horse Lodge, No. 74, I. O. O. F. meets Saturday evening at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance.

The board of directors of the Pendleton Round Up association were re-elected for another year by the stock holders at a meeting Tuesday night.

The Press family is in receipt of three boxes of Delicious apples, from L. W. Barnes of Lakeside, Wash., a fruit district on the shores of Lake Chelan.

"On the Little Big Horn" will be presented at the High school auditorium this evening by pupils of the Athena High school. The play promises to be one of exceptional interest and a large attendance is expected. Tickets are on sale at Ware's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chase desire to thank all who so kindly assisted them during the recent illness of their little daughter, who is now regaining her health.

The pastor of the Christian church will deliver an address at the Pendleton Christian church, the evening of Nov. 28th, on "The Every Member Canvass."

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Johns left Tuesday morning for Portland and Vancouver Wash where they will spend a fortnight before proceeding to California for the winter.

Arthur Chapman, who was in the first draft and was discharged from the service because of physical disability, has returned to his home in Athena, from Camp Lewis.

Bon Dupuis, seller of Montana lands, left Tuesday for Hingham Montana, in company with Clarence Zerba and Fred Blinn, who go with him for the purpose of purchasing land there.

Geo. W. Gross has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Luke H. Read, which is valued at $5,000. The appraisers named are Wm. Piper, George Thompson and Arthur Douglas.

After 48 days run with his threshing machine, Joe Cannon "pulled" the machine in the shed Saturday evening. He finished the season on the mountain ranches east of Weston, where the crop was light in yield.

Miss Katherine Pierce who resigned her position in the Golden Rule Store recently with the intention of residing with her mother at Muscatine, Iowa, has decided to remain in Portland, at the home of her sister.

Otha Reeder this week purchased of the heirs of John Martin the old Martin homestead, southeast of Walla Walla, for a consideration of $23,800. Two of the heirs, Mrs. Wm. Winship and Mrs. Samuel Haworth, reside here.

Under the provisions of a will found six years after her death, Sophia La Roque, an allottee on the Umatilla reservation, her allotment, valued at $2,800 is left to her grandmother, Louisa La Course. William La Course is named executor.

Jay Ingila, who since the Standard Oil Company's distributing station has been located in Athena, has been the local manager, has resigned his position with the company, and will leave in a few weeks for Wallace, Idaho, to work in the mines.

Mrs. C. H. Castner, of The Dalles, state president of the Woman's committee, Council of National Defense, will be in Pendleton Monday evening and speak on food conservation and other methods to help win the war. Athena women are invited.

Rev. Milo G. Bentley was in the city this morning from his fruit farm, distributing luscious apples among his Athena patrons. Mr. Bentley has just closed a meeting at The Dalles with 60 conversions, and will begin immediately at Junction City.

Thomas Walsh, an old time railroad man of La Grande, died Friday night in Spokane. The remains were taken to La Grande for burial, Tuesday.

From telegraph operator, Mr. Walsh was promoted successively to positions which culminated with the office of division superintendent.

A special meeting of the Athena Red Cross auxiliary is called by the president, Mrs. Hill, for Monday afternoon. All members are requested to be present as the object of the meeting is to elect a delegate to attend a meeting of the county board of managers of the Red Cross Society.

The Baptist church property has been greatly improved recently. The sidewalks are all finished. A large number of the members met at the church Thursday and cleaned up the entire property inside and out. Dinner was served by the ladies in the basement, and a good social time was enjoyed.

The Baptist, Methodist and Christian churches of Athena, will unite in a Thanksgiving service, at the Christian church, Thursday, Nov. 29th, 10:30 a. m. Rev. D. E. Baker will preach the sermon. Members of the different choirs will furnish the music. The public should give their hearty support.

The place just north of town, owned by Henry Koepke and known as the Barger place, was recently sold to Samuel Hunter, a farmer living near Havana station, for $250 an acre. Mr. Hunter will make this his home, sending his children to the Athena school. One daughter will enter the High school.

The "Frolic" vaudeville and song cast which entertained an Athena audience at the High school auditorium recently in a Red Cross benefit entertainment, will appear at Weston, tomorrow evening for the same purpose, the proceeds, we understand, to be divided equally between the Weston and Athena Red Cross chapters.

James H. Sturgis, of Pendleton, who enlisted in Walla Walla last September in Battery A, U. S. Field Artillery, has been commissioned second lieutenant in Battery D, 146th Regiment Field Artillery, U. S. Army. He is at present stationed at Camp Mills, Long Island, at which place his wife joined him Wednesday.

Tomorrow afternoon, from 2:30 till 5:30, a silver tea will be given at the Richards home on Jefferson street, when Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mrs. Marion Hansell will be hostesses. The offering will be used in the Red Cross drive to help out the fund now being raised for the soldiers' Christmas presents. Let every man, woman and child in Athena take a cup of tea for the benefit of our soldier boys.

The entertainment of the Star Club by Mrs. H. I. Watts at her home Tuesday afternoon, was an event much enjoyed by the ladies. The afternoon was passed principally in knitting and learning the art, and the refreshments conformed strictly to the Hoover requirements. Mrs. Watts was assisted by Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. W. S.

Ferguson. Other than members of the Club, Mrs. F. S. Le Grow was a guest of the hostess.

Pythian Lodge, K. of P. held open house last night to visiting members of the order. Large delegations from Weston and Pendleton were present, and the Weston lodge brought over two candidates to receive conferring of the second rank. The lodge was especially pleased to have among its visitors last night, Mr. E. L. Bumpus, a resident of the city twenty-seven years ago, and who became a member of the lodge at that time.

Just as Pendleton, as a hustling city is great on popularizing anything that is good, just so is their big Department Store. The Peoples Warehouse great on creating popularity. They are boosting and popularizing something new for the smaller cities—a bargain basement in connection with their big store. It is their Clean-up Department where everything is underriced. They already report great success than they at first anticipated.—Adv.

George Wright better known as Winnapog Wright, has been in Crook county looking for mutton sheep for several weeks. He wanted 10,000 or more, but only succeeded in buying between 5,000 and 6,000 and says those having mutton sheep hold them entirely too high. He bought 805 2 year old weathers, 1.0 yearling weathers and 400 dry ewes at $2.80 all around; 1000 yearlings at the same price.

What's the matter with the "Miltonian?" We received the initiatory number,—which, by the way, was a blooming good one—but since then it is conspicuous by its absence. Mayhap it has consolidated with the Eagle.

Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the mayor and common council of the city of Athena, Oregon, at a meeting thereof to be held on the 20th day of December, 1924, for a license to sell spirituous, malt and vinous liquors in less quantities than one quart, said liquor to be sold only in the Matlock building situated on lot 9 in block 5, of said city. Dated Nov. 15, 1924.

Hay sells for $9 a ton at Long Creek. John and Iven O'Hara, Weston farmers, were in town to dispose of their immense crop of wheat to our buyers.

Jim Gorman is favoring a severe "stitch" in his back this week. We know how it is, Jim. We have been there.

Wm. Parker started overland Monday for Idaho, where he goes on business connected with mining property, up there.

A. J. Criglar, the Milton fruit rancher brought over a wagon load of fine apples Monday and disposed of them to his Athena friends.

The people of Milton are down on prize fights and are freely using the columns of the Eagle in discussing methods of putting a stop to it, or in the words of a writer to that paper on the subject referred to, "put a stop to the thing in the bud."

Louie LaBrash, one of the most energetic farmers on the reservation, Monday of this week brought to town some magnificent specimens of peanuts that he raised on his farm. Louie only planted a few as an experiment which is entirely satisfactory. Next year he intends to have a large crop.

Born—Nov. 10 to the wife of Jesse Stamper, a boy.

Born—in Athena, Nov. 12, 1924, to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maloney, a ten pound boy. Jim came down town whistling, "Yankee Doodle," and other patriotic airs and stopped long enough to exclaim, "It's a democrat."

Clark Wood, constable for Weston precinct, had official business in Athena Saturday.

Some fellow at Pendleton is fast preparing a noose for his neck. On two different nights last week, a switch was thrown just before the incoming of the west bound passenger train, but fortunately was discovered both times by the train men.

Mat Mosgrove dropped in among the merchants of Athena for a little while Monday, to see what they desired for winter trade.
