The Catholic ladies will give a pasty sale in Dell Bros. store room on Main street, on Saturday, December 8th.

Zerba Bros. this week received a carload of Buick cars among which was a seven passenger car for Roy Cannon.

Rain this week came in time to be of great benefit to the growing grain. In some parts of the county rain was badly needed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Steele and little daughter, Elizabeth, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Oliver, in Walla Walla.

This has been a holiday week for the pupils of the Athens schools. The first three days were spent by the teachers at institute work.

Herman E. O'Harra, brother of Mrs. Jack Read of this city, was one of the men receiving a commission as 1st Lieutenant at the Presidio.

W. R. Withee, well known automobile dealer of Pendleton, and uncle of Fred Alderman, of this city, died this week of Bright's disease.

Charles Williams, after making a trip to Lewiston, Idaho, has had a vociferous appetite, and to appease it killed a fat young beef this week.

Dr. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. McAllister, all of Pendleton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Wallan, Thanksgiving day.

Frank Swaggart has returned from Wallowa county, after putting in a crop on leased land, and has gone to his ranch on Butter Creek, for the winter.

Editor Wood of the Weston Leader, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wood, were Thanksgiving Day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd.

Charles Norris, formerly engaged in the harness business in Athens, has been appointed as government harness and leather inspector, and has gone East to enter on his duties.

Mrs. W. J. Crabill was in the city Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Crabill have moved to Reith, to reside, that place being a convenient point from Mr. Crabill's county road work.

23 Years Ago.
[From the Press of Nov. 30 1894]

Turkey dinners were served at the St. Nicholas Hotel and Mrs. Harden's restaurant yesterday.

A number of Athens's young people attended the ball at Weston Wednesday night, given under the auspices of Co. "B," O. N. G.

The patrons of the Banks school, Mrs. Ida Gillis teacher, met at the school house yesterday and enjoyed a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner.

A number of Milton citizens were in Athens Saturday last interviewing our people in regard to a division of the county. They undoubtedly found the sentiments of Athens people to be the same in regard to the hoary chestnut as heretofore, when the matter was brought up.

A hunter came in from the mountains beyond Camas Prairie yesterday with his wagon loaded with the carcass of one two-year-old elk and several deer.

C. A. Barrett informs a Press representative that he has received letters of encouragement from the gentleman who is negotiating the sale of the water bonds for the city. Mr. Barrett is sanguine that Athens will dispose of her bonds and that waterworks will be put in sooner than it was supposed after hard times came on.

SCRIBBLER'S NOTES.

The famous hunters, Jinks Taylor, whispering Joe, Blondie and the Corporal, intend starting soon on their annual hunt to the John Day country.

Last Monday night about 12 o'clock, Ed. Taft took six shots at a burglar who was peeping in at the window, before he discovered that it was a chunk of dried mud on his eyelashes.

Henry Keen is getting to be an expert with the razor, manipulating it like a veteran. He can already shave a customer quicker than a cat can catch a mouse and without disfiguring him very badly—nothing more serious than the loss of an eye, or a peeled Adam apple. "Next."

One day last week Bob Tharp had a terrible tussle with a wild and woolly bicycle that he was trying to break. At first Bob seemed to have the best of it, but the bicycle out-winded him and finally landed him up against a brick building. Fortunately, Robert struck on his cheek—otherwise there would have been a first class funeral.
