ATHENA. OREGON, MARCH 8, 1918 TREASURY CERTIFICATES.

(An editorial by E. W. Wilson, vice president Anglo & London Paris National Bank.) It takes men and money to win a war. Bankers are the direct agents of the Government. When their duty has been prescribed and they have been called upon they have responded nobly even at a sacrifice.

A situation now arises which calls for the support of every bank, that business may proceed on the even tenor of its way while the Nation undertakes the gigantic task of financing the war. The Secretary of the Treasury asks that every bank purchase the Treasury Certificates in advance of the Liberty Loan so that the shock incidental to the transfer of immense sums may be absorbed. To do this effectively a bank should set aside one per cent of it resources each week over a period and with these sums purchase the Certificates. These "homeopathic dosea" will not interfere with the oridnary conduct of the bank,

When the Liberty Loan Bonds are issued to purchasers through the bank attack on Heney, personally. Among as an agent, the bonds are exchanged for Certificates. It is a simple proceess of making installment payments on the Liberty Loan Bonds in advance. Suppose all business in a city ceases at a certain hour, and all the clerks, salespeople, artisans, merchants and the street cars in a period of ten minutes. Think of the confusion the turto have equipment and men for such a bringing the land-grabbers to justice a "peak-load." Excessive capital invested in adequate rolling stock and power would be idle during twentythree out of every twenty-four hours. Here, indeed, would be an economic waste. There would be inconvenience to the public, losses instead of dividends to the traction companies and stagnation in the growth of the population of that city. But the hours for the cessation of business are distributed over a period, and although thousative case and comfort.

The United States Treasury Certificates are issued to avoid a "peak load," to circumvent a "rush hour," to keep business on an even keel, all of which redounds to the benefit of the bank, its customers, business in general and the Government itself.

The war can be won without Russia, but it will not be an easy victory nor is there any reason to believe a decision will be reached this year-unless the unexpected happens and the German people themselves show their weariness of the war. Probably the duration of active fighting might be considerably shortened if the politicians of America, England and France were eliminated and management of a onsolidated offensive placed in the hands of a supreme military authority; but this is too much to hope for and ot at all likely of realization. The situation is not yet so desperate as to preclude jockeying for power and prestige among the nations, to say nothing of the meddlers at home who are constantly endeavoring to turn every incident of defeat or victory to their partisan advantage. There is yet too much of political controversy to permit the allies utilizing their strength to its fullest efficiency or centralizing authority in a manner which has proved so advantageous to Germany. Not until party distinction is wholly oblitcrated and the men best qualified are in control whether democrats, repub-

the full force of this nation be launched against the Hun. Hency evidently has the meat packing concerns on the hip. The Swifts are flooding the mails with made-toorder editorials for reprinting in the press of the country which is in effect, an educational propoganda. In one batch of this stuff sent us this week by the Swifts of Chicago, is an editorial from the Courier-Herald of Saginnw. Mich., which delivers a biting other things it holds Heney up before the public in the guise of a professional muckraker, and intimates that be has become a candidate for Governor of California, on the strength of his "dramatic performance" in the matter of prosecuting the meat packers. Well, late shoppers were to attempt to board it would do the Swifts little good to print this Courier-Herald article in Oregon where Heney's fight for the moil, and inconvenience! The trac- Government against the land-grabbers tion companies could not be expected stands as a court epic, and where his Irvin S. Cobb's story in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post, "When the Sea- tsp Stings," will be interesting supplemental reading, locally speaking, of the Athena's boys' letters published in today's Press. Were our boys in the ship with the writer of that soul-stirring article?

The Christian Church

The Christian Church Bible school will meet promptly at 10 oclock a. m. Sunday, with Geo. R. Gerking directing. Classes for everybody. The morning and evening sermons will be: "The Inevitable One Or The Other;" "Do It Now." These sermons are for the general public. Everybody is inlicans, or from the ranks of labor, will the full force of this nation be launch-endorse them, or reject them. But they are open to all who have ears to hear. The Bible school is also for everybody. Here all can take part or not just as they like, but they can ask questions, study or listen. Why don't you come to such an institution as that? Maybe some day you will answer—better come and answer now. You are cordially invited and welcome. D. Errett, Minister.

Baptist Church Notes.

Thursday of last week the Baptist Women's Union met at the church for its whole days service, which was well attended. The morning program consisted of devotional services. All brought their dinners and the men and school children came to the church for their dinner. About fifty enjoyed the dinner together. The afternoon program was a missionary one. This kind of service will be repeated once a month until the hot weather.

Friday evening a large attendance was at the choir rehearsal, and by the time rehearsal was over, more than forty were present. By this time we began to think there was something in the sir, then it dawned upon us that the pastor had a birthday. cakes and coffee were served and many happy returns were expressed, with a desire that he may be with them next Morning topic for next Sunday, Morning topic for next Suriday,

ANXIOUS TIMES FOR THE ADMIRAL Russia and the United States

IS HE LOOKING FOR

NOT MUCH! A REAL FRIEND -THE ORDERLY WITH OUR SUPPLY OF W-D ()T.

The old autocratic government Russia was always particularly friend-ly to the United States. During the Revolutionary war Russia offered to mediate for peace and her offer was accepted by the United States but de-clined by Great Britain. Russia was one of the first governments to recog-nize the independence of the United States and continued to show her good will by making treaties of amity and commerce with the United States, Sev. eral of our early presidents in their messages referred to "the continued friendship of Russia." In 1823, Russia proposed a friendly adjustment through diplomatic channels of the boundary line between American and Russian possessions in the Northwest and President Monroe authorized the United States minister to Russia to attend to the matter. In doing so he said: "The government of the United States has been desirous by this friend-ly proceeding to manifest the great value which they have invariably at-tached to the friendship of Russia and their solicitude to cultivate the best understanding with that government."
