Hand Mangled in Wringer.

Mrs. Carl McConnell suffered serious injury to her hand Monday while doing the family washing at her home west of Athens. Operating a power washing machine, her left hand was caught in the wringer and was badly bruised and lacerated. Dr. Sharp was called and dressed the injured hand.

School Notes.

A Junior Red Cross Society was organized in the Athens school this week. The school becomes a duly organized society when fees to the amount of 25 cents per capita have been raised. The indications at present show that our school will soon meet all requirements of an auxiliary Junior Red Cross society, as over three-fourths of the sum was raised the first two days. Of the amounts apportioned to each room, the following per cent were paid during the first two days: Miss Sherman's room 75.8 per cent; Miss Lawson's $2.1 per cent; Miss Wolf's 75 per cent; Mr. Gribble's 100 per cent; and the High school 109.7 per cent of its quota. $33 has been raised.

The next number of the Red Cross Benefit entertainments will be given Thursday, March 14. Colby, the Cartoonist, will entertain. The High school girls have organized two teams to solicit sales of season tickets for the next three performances. Those who take advantage of season seat sale for the next three numbers will virtually see Colby free of charge.

The following are the dates of entertainments which will take place from the present time till the end of the term: March 11, Colby, Cartoonist, second Red Cross Benefit number; March 22, Sophomore reception; April 19, Lament, Magician, third Red Cross Benefit number; May 1, Primary program; May 10, High school play, fourth Red Cross Benefit number; May 13, Baccalaureate exercises; May 16, Freshmen's reception; May 17, Graduation exercises of the High school.

As a reward for twenty days without tardiness or absences, the 8th grade had a quarter holiday Thursday afternoon.

The pupils of Miss Lawson's room have made three different designs in stick printing. They are planning to take up Junior Red Cross work in a few days. The pupils of this room who received an average of 90 per cent for the past month and who were entitled to a quarter of a day holiday are: Belle Anderson, Lois Johnson, Loraine Dennis, Melvin Coppock and Chester Cox.

Fred Radtke, a pupil of the 3rd grade had a dinner at his home Tuesday noon, to which he invited all the members of his class. The dinner was given in honor of Fred's ninth birthday.

Martha Hutt has been absent this week on account of trouble with her eyes.

Mrs. Frank Berlin was a visitor to Miss Sherman's room this week.

Agnes Lyman registered in the 1st grade this week.

Frances Henry from Cayuse, Oregon registered in the 5th grade last Monday.

23 Years Ago.

(From the Press of Mar. 8, 1895)

Nearly all the snow is off the mountains.

The farmers are busily engaged in plowing and seeding.

Chas. Norris looked natural in his old place Tuesday stretching wax-ends in Young's harness shop.

A company has been formed at Pasco to reclaim 2700 acres of land on this side of the Snake opposite Alinsworth, by irrigation.

The band boys serenaded the successful candidates Wednesday night.

The formal opening of the Pendleton library will take place next Monday night.

T. P. Page has sold the greatest part of his 1894 crop, receiving 38 cents per bushel.

Mail pouches lost in the John Day river at Hall bridge nearly a year ago, have been recovered. The pouches contained upwards of $3,000.

Marion Jack is assisting in seeding the Kirk place east of town. Marion has not forgotten how to toot a horn and helped the band boys out amazingly in their serenade last Wednesday evening.

Members of the masculine gender residing in Pendleton enjoyed the name of "rubberneck" recently, when they lined up on the sidewalk to get a view of the first pair of bloomers, worn by a lady bicyclist.

"Scrib," we understand is at present with becoming dignity, holding down the seat of a gang plow. We sympathize with the poor boy in the position he is compelled to occupy, and are in readiness to receive donations of feathers from our subscribers in order that we may present him with a cushion for that seat.

The financial report at the annual school meeting Monday showed receipts, $2,617.50; disbursements, $2,587.00, balance on hand, $38.78. There are 303 children of school age in the district—boys, 154, girls, 149.

The Oregonian is a great newspaper, one of the largest and best on the coast but it shows a deplorable weakness in resorting to such language as "stinkers," and simply because certain men are not in accord with its senatorial views, pointedly remarks the Wallawa Chieftain.

A tiny girl had made it her custom to enumerate by name all the members of the family and the close friends, in her evening prayers, but at the close of a strenuous day of play she was tired and after the opening petition she yawned, then added sleepily: "And please just bless the whole bunch."

Colby the Cartoonist.

On next Thursday night, Colby the Cartoonist will appear at the High school auditorium in the second number of the Red Cross benefit lyceum course. Those holding season tickets and the public generally are looking forward to an evening of high class entertainment. The succeeding number will be Laurant, the Magician, supported by a talented company, which will be presented on the evening of April 19.

A Matter of Utility.

It is quite evident that our friend Milt Swaggart found numerous channels for acquiring knowledge while on his recent trip to California. Here's another one on Milt: He says he went into a cafe one evening and partook of a highly delectable dinner. From his description the service must have been all that could be desired; but either there was an insufficiency of viands, or Milt's appetite is abnormal. Anyway, after he had "cleaned up all the Only He Didn't Show It.

Edward got into a fight with Stanley one afternoon at school recess. The teacher had them up before her and talked so feelingly of the wrong of fighting that Stanley cried good and hard, and the teacher said: "Stanley seems so repentant I won't keep him after school. But here is Edward; I don't know what to do with him, he seems so hardened." Edward said: "But if I can't cry, my conscience hurts me just the same."
