

Press Paragraphs

B. B. Richards was in Pendleton Tuesday.

Sim Culley was in town Wednesday from Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Barton are here from Midvale, Idaho.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Baddley were Pendleton visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. R. B. McEwen with a party of ladies motored to Pendleton Wednesday.

Ben Dupuis, Montana land promoter, was in town Wednesday from Pendleton.

Mrs. Otha Reeder is reported ill at her home on south third street.

Mrs. Will Wyrick, of Pendleton, is a guest of Mrs. Omar Stephens.

Mrs. Ethel C. Scott was over from Walla Walla this week, visiting relatives.

Jim Lieuallen and Perd McBride, Weston stockmen, were in town Wednesday.

F. S. LeGrow and M. L. Watta were in Waitsburg, Wash., Wednesday on business.

Bob Raymond was up from his Prineville stock ranch this week, on a business visit.

Uncle Dave Taylor has again been confined to his home with sickness the past week.

Sutton Concert

Tonight, at Christian church.

Thomas Lieuallen, prominent Adams resident, was in Athena yesterday.

Jack Allison of the Sturgis-Storie company of Pendleton was in the city Wednesday.

Michael Ryan has been in Athena this week from Spokane, where he spent the winter.

The city council met in special session last night and ordered a new pump for the city water system.

Misses Veva Cook and Alice Finnell of Pendleton, were week-end guests of Mrs. E. D. Tharp in this city.

Shelby Alloway, who enlisted in the Navy, now stationed at Bremerton, is visiting his mother in Pendleton.

Marshal Dobson is again on duty, having returned from College Place sanitarium, where he went some time ago to receive medical treatment. He is much improved in health.

Joseph Rainville was in Athena Wednesday from his ranch near Mission. Mr. Rainville's children were recently allotted land near the Mission and it is this land that he is farming.

John Milton Swaggart has filed suit in the circuit court against George W. Swaggart et al. in an action to clear title to land in possession of plaintiff under the will of Nelson Swaggart, deceased.

A. J. McAllister, of Pendleton, a partner in the Athena Drug Company firm, was in the city Wednesday for a few hours. Mr. McAllister recently disposed of his business interests in Pendleton.

Matt Mosgrove, former Athena merchant, was in town this week. He will soon leave for Alberta, where he has large farming interests, and where his son Tom has been residing for some time.

Mrs. Eleanor McPherrin arrived home Tuesday morning, after several months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Oswald, at Long Beach, Calif. She spent the past week visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haworth are again residing in their home on Adams street, between 4th and 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Harris, who for a time occupied the Haworth residence are temporarily living at the D. Scott Fisher home.

Pendleton Marble & Granite Works

T. A. WYLIE, Proprietor

PENDLETON, OREGON. PATRONAGE SOLICITED

Bring your KODAK FILMS

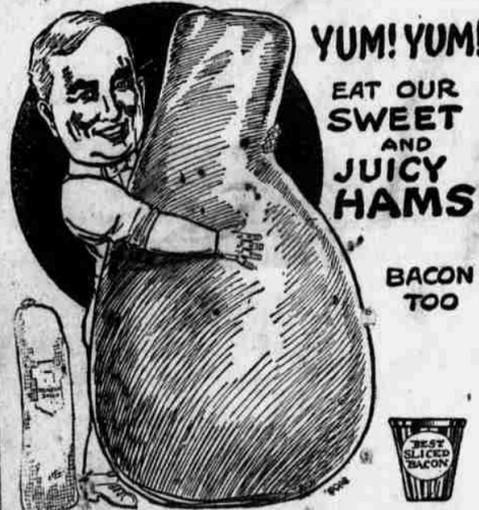

to us for expert finishing at city prices

THE ATHENA DRUG CO.
Frank J. Harris, Managing Partner

THE FOSS HARDWARE STORE

Hardware
Shelf and Heavy

BARRETT BUILDING, :: ATHENA, OREGON

YUM! YUM!
EAT OUR SWEET
AND JUICY
HAMS

BACON
TOO

GET

our
Fancy Pack
Winesap Apples

Florida
Grape Fruit
Very Choice

Fine Assorted
Nuts
Nice and Fresh

Our Hams are the select table kind, sugar cured and hickory smoked; just the kind of ham that makes the best and most satisfactory eating.

What is nicer than a slice of good, sweet, juicy Ham a-frying in the pan. Buy a whole ham and then be prepared to serve a meal in a short time.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality, Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

This Store Closes Evenings

BARGAINS

Three lots Ladies Shoes
All sizes, at startling prices. Former price, $3.50 to $5.50, Bargain price $1.98 to $3.98

2 lots Henderson Corsets
Discontinued Models. Values, $1.25 to $3.50 Bargain prices 69c to 89c

WE SELL THRIFT STAMPS
Phone 152

Athena Department Store

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Willaby are preparing to move to the ranch recently leased in the Cold Springs section.

Orel McPherrin announces that his auto stage will leave Athena for Pendleton, at 8:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m.

The annual automobile show at Pendleton opened yesterday afternoon at Happy Canyon pavilion, and will close tomorrow night.

M. W. Hansell returned Wednesday morning from a business visit to Lewiston, Idaho. He accompanied his brother, Ray, to Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Ware write that they are at Los Angeles, enjoying life. Mr. Ware has noticeably improved in health during their travels.

Mrs. Pink Harbour, children, and sister, Mrs. Gerking of Weston, were in Athena Sunday attending church services at the Christian church.

A daughter was born on March 6, 1919 to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lieuallen at their home west of town. The little one has been named Joanna Mae.

Orders have been issued for the return of the Rainbow division, (the 42nd) from overseas. Many Oregon boys are in the ranks of this division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tharp, Mrs. W. R. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Davison went down to Pendleton Saturday evening to hear the Maud Powell concert.

Jack Parker was in Pendleton Wednesday. He accompanied French Criglar, a prominent and influential citizen of the Freewater section, to the county seat.

W. R. Taylor and Ralph McEwen, who have been buying and shipping stock for several weeks, shipped a carload over the Northern Pacific Wednesday to Pasco.

Pendleton Tribune: Mrs. George Sutton (Arlouene Clevenger) was the soloist Sunday at the funeral of the late Clair Myers which was held at the Baptist church.

J. H. Ridenour arrived in Athena Monday from Reedsport, Ore. where he spent the winter in carpenter work. He has visited the past month in Portland and Auburn, Wash.

Arnold Wood, administrator of the estate of William H. Wood, deceased, has filed his final report of the estate which has been approved and Judge Marsh has issued decree of dismissal.

The construction measures and the lieutenant-governor bill will be voted on by the voters of Oregon on June 2. Notices of the special election are being sent to the county clerks of the state.

Wanted.—Reliable party to take agency for a high grade Automobile Tire and Tube, on a very liberal percentage basis. Address, Tri-State Tire Co., Portland, Ore., 72, 4th St.—Adv.

Lawrence Tharp writes that he is enjoying life in training with the marines, at San Diego, Calif. He has been promoted to duty as stenographer in the headquarters department and expects to get his release in time for spring work at home. He will again attend school next year.

The homes of Wm. Pinkerton and Floyd Pinkerton, his son, have been visited this week with the flu, members in each family being ill with the disease. Mr. Pinkerton's daughter, Mrs. Maurice Frazier, is also ill at her home near Millton, where the disease is again raging, so it is reported.

The local lodge of Knights of Pythias is being rejuvenated with a continuous flow of "new blood." A goodly number of young men of the community have recently joined the order. More applications have been received for membership, and initiations are the feature of each meeting.

In the account of the funeral of Mrs. Buroker, last week, mention was not made of the participation of the local Rebekah lodge in the funeral ceremonies and this is made. Mrs. Buroker was an honored member of the order, and the Athena lodge appeared in a body to do her honor.

Sidney Barnes is employed as salesman at Stephens' Pure Food Grocery. Sid, who followed camouflaging while with the 116th Engineers in France, finds opportunity to wield a facile pen and brush in illustrative show window cards for the store. This on the side when he is not weighing out bacon and beans.

East Oregonian: Clark Dunlap thought he would surprise his mother last night when he returned unexpectedly from San Diego, where he has been in the naval aviation service. Perhaps he did; but Mrs. Dunlap had supper all ready because she dreamed the night before that her son was coming home.

Mr. West, of LaGrande, was in town over Sunday. He will be remembered as being a member of the firm of Miller & West, who bored the artesian well for the Athena Land & Trust company some years ago. Mr. West has contracted to bore wells on the premises of Cass Cannon and J. A. Kirk, on south Third street.

Dick Thompson is in Pendleton attending the automobile show, where he is exhibiting the six-passenger model Stephens Sallent Six. Mr. Thompson is Umatilla county agent for the Stephens line of cars. The Stephens is a comparatively new entry for automobile honors in this territory and doubtless will prove popular with the trade.

In reporting the hearing of three Athena boys in the juvenile court at Pendleton, the East Oregonian says: In the juvenile court yesterday before Judge Marsh, Wilber Harden, Richard Cartano and Russell Carden, three young boys of Athena, were found guilty of incorrigible charges and sentence suspended upon the good behavior of the boys who were paroled to the care of their parents.

The East Oregonian reports that the Rev. E. J. Conner, a native Indian, was on Sunday elected as minister for the Presbyterian Indian Mission, Tutuila church to hold office for five years and to fill the place of Rev. J. M. Cornelison. A formal vote was taken at the church by the Rev. Francis Morgan, and the Indians decided not to reelect Rev. Cornelison as missionary.

Announcement is made to Athena friends, of the birth in a maternity hospital in Pullman, Wash., to Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Markee, of a daughter, on March 6, 1919. The mother, a former popular Athena girl, Lucile Kemp, has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Kemp, at Colton, Wash., during the absence of her husband in the army. Mr. Markee arrived last week at Camp Lewis from overseas, where he was leader in a Coast Artillery band.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnes entertained at dinner Wednesday, the occasion being in honor of the 37th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes of Weston. Guests seated at the table were: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes, Misses Doris and Mamie, and Sgt. Sidney Barnes; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd, and J. H. Ridenour, beside the host and hostess and small daughter and son, Mary Jean and Jack. Miss Anice Barnes who is teaching north of town was the only member absent. The "bride" was the recipient of several presents in silver, china and flowers.

Athena Garage

ZERBA BROS.
Props.

We have again taken over the management and garage work and we are ready for old and new customers.

We are equipped for
Oxy-Acetylene Welding

The Churches.

Baptist Church Notes.
The Church invites you to turn from the toil of life to the rest and refreshment of worship. Good music will add to the joy of the day. Come at 11 a. m. and study the Bible with us. Come at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. for the worship of the church. Come at 6:30 p. m. and enjoy the Young People's hour.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
Exceptionally good crowds were at church last Sunday both morning and night. We expect this to be repeated next Sunday at all services, Sunday school included.
"How Much Do You Weigh" will be the subject of the sermon at night, at which the Minute Men will make their first speeches.

The Christian Church.
We are glad to see new faces in the church services and are hoping to soon have the entire membership and other friends in regular attendance. We have fixed on the first Sunday in April as "Everybody-Go-to-Church-Sunday." But come yourself next Sunday and get the habit.
Next Sunday night the pastor will lecture on "Jerusalem," giving some of his experiences and observations in the Holy City. You are invited. Services at 11 and 7:30. Sunday school at 10. B. B. Burton, Pastor.

Now

and then you see a type of home whereby one or more of your thoughts are expressed. In our office we have some ideas that are worth considering—designs for the homes, barns, and other buildings, that are the work of experts. Call and see them any time.

MONUMENTS!

Get our prices before placing your order.

Berry Monument Works
F. M. Berry, Prop.
12th and Main Street near O. W. R. & N. Passenger Depot Walla Walla Wash.
N. A. MILLER Local Representative.

Tum-a-Lum Lumber Company