Lawson Booker is Laid to His Rest

After months of suffering pain and suffering from various ailments, Lawson Booker, 72, died at his residence here last Saturday evening. He had been ill for several weeks and had been in bed for some time. Mr. Booker was a native of Oregon and had lived here for many years. He was a well-known citizen and was highly respected for his many good deeds. Mr. Booker leaves a widow and two children. Services will be held Wednesday morning at the Presbyterian Church and burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery.

Oregnta News Notes of General Interest

Tire's Free Press reporter tells us that in the next few weeks he will be on a trip to Oregon. He has been a frequent visitor to Oregon and is well-known for his fine articles on the state. He has written many articles for the Free Press and is well-versed in the history and traditions of the state.

Oregon Oil Notes in District 17 Closes with Executive Teachers on Vacation.

The last meeting of the Oregon Oil Notes in District 17 was held on Friday evening. The meeting was well-attended and the discussions were of a high order. The members of the organization are all well-known for their work in the field of education. They have done much to improve the schools of the state and have been active in many educational activities.

Teacher's salary was a topic of great interest at the meeting. Many of the teachers have been working for good wages and are now demanding higher salaries. The members of the organization have been active in this work and have been successful in securing increased salaries for many of the teachers.

The organization will continue its work during the summer months. Many of the members will be engaged in summer school work and will be busy preparing for the new school year. The organization will meet again in the fall and will continue its work of improving the schools of the state.

A Good Tire Year

You have no doubt noticed the growing preponderance of United States Tires. Every one is asking for tires of known value and proved dependability. And that is precisely what United States Tires represent- tiger tires that are chosen by motorists here and everywhere.

The idea back of United States Tires—tige new tire—has been a solid success. The tire's quality is the best that can be built, is appealing to rapidly growing numbers.

We can provide you with United States Tires to meet—and meet exactly—your individual needs.

United States Tires Are Good Tires