ATHENA. OREGON, JULY 11, 1919

Towns and cities along the State highway are making provisions for camping grounds for automobile tourlets, and Athena should provide a camping place here. There is no better advertisement for a town than a suitable camping site for these tourists, where they can have the convenience of shade and water. From now on, there will be hundreds of tourists passing through Athena each year in biles, and provisions should be made at one end of the City Park to accommodate them with camping facilities. A couple of hours work would provide a well equipped with a pitcher pump. A couple of barrels as receptucles for papers and refuse would insure keeping the camping space clean. for automobile tourists as a rule live up to the standard code of cleanliness. No camp fire privileges need be extended, for the oil stove is one of the essentials of the traveler's camping

In these days there are only two arithmetical principles applied to taxes addition and multiplication. The tax person has forgotten how to apply subtraction or division to the tax oblem. State, county and municipal axes keep going up. Federal taxes incomes get another whack at the family budget and then along comes taxes on luxuries and wearing apparel, theatre tickets and ice cream cones. The soft drink parlors pluck their cuttomers for more pennies and the size of the piece of pie goes right on decreasing. There comes no end and no way to beat this new game. Yet there is a way, a perfectly simple and logical way! Curb the politician. Compel him to quit creating new office holding. Twenty-five years ago govern ment was comparatively simple; and candor compels us to say that it was better government when there was not so much of it, than the government we are getting now.

No sooner did the Canadian government begin to deal firmly with the Winnipeg strike than it broke down. It needed only the arrest of the alien agitators, the dispersal of a strikers' rade and the proclamation of martial law to dispose of the men who had usurped the government of the city. The Winnipeg uptising was so plainly an attempt to wrest control of the city from the lawful authorities that the original cause has almost been
