Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brandon came down from Hay Station, Wash., Tuesday. Mr. Brandon was a cousin of the late Alex. Kirk.

Mrs. Mary Andrews, of LaGrande, has been a guest the past week at the home of her brother, Samuel Pambrun, south of town.

The Athena high school Freshmen and Sophomore class pastry sale held last Saturday netted a tidy sum and was a success in every particular.

Cleve Myers has moved his shoe shop across the street from his former location, to the Garden building, he recently purchased from J. W. Maloney.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts have been host and hostess the past week at a series of dinners, at which they have entertained a number of their friends.

Miss Lucille Taylor has accepted a position as stenographer with the Standard Oil Company, and has assumed her duties at the Athena office under Manager Guy Cronk.

An order of default and judgment for $24.04 against W. E. Schrimpf was handed down in circuit court Wednesday. W. E. Haynie is plaintiff in the case against Mr. Schrimpf.

Mrs. Payant, mother of Joseph Payant, the well known violinist, died Tuesday after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held yesterday, interment taking place in the Athena cemetery.

James W. Maloney was re-elected grand master of the exchequer at the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Portland Tuesday. This will be Mr. Maloney's twenty-first term in this office. James H. Gwan, of Pendleton, was re-elected supreme representative.

Misses Laura and Belle McIntyre, Miss Hazel Burton and Max Hopper were among the young people from this city attending the farewell party given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott, last Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward, who leave soon for Honolulu.

Wednesday, the 15th, being the 5th golden anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnes, a toothsome dinner was prepared by Mrs. Barnes and guests invited to partake were, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd and S. A. Barnes, Jr.

All members of the local Red Cross auxiliary are reminded that the annual election of officers will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the library room on Main street. A good attendance is urged and expected. By order of the secretary.

Dr. E. B. Osborne, who returned just prior to the Round-Up from service in the Veterinarian Corps in France, visited friends in Athens Sunday night. The doctor has resumed his position in the State Veterinarian office, and just now is stationed at the John Day, where he is inspecting stock.

B. A. West, artesian well driller, of LaGrande, is again in the city and will drill the well on the J. A. Kirk place down to a depth of 150 feet. Mr. West stopped drilling on the Cass Cannon well at 500 feet. An artesian flow was not encountered, but a good supply of water was obtained and a pressure pumping system will be installed.

Tomorrow in the reception hall of the Christian church, the members and friends will enjoy a genuine "Harvest Home," and a pleasant time is anticipated. The reception and banquet rooms are being appropriately decorated and the committees are busily engaged in preparations for the event, which it is understood will be entirely informal.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kidder, Mrs. E. H. Caton and Mr. and Mrs. Max Kidder left last week for California, by automobile, to remain for the winter. The Kidder brothers will engage in their trade as painters during their stay in the south, and with their families, may remain there permanently. Mr. Caton will follow in a few days, to join his wife, going by train.

The Pendleton East Oregonian reports that a petition was filed in court Wednesday by Mrs. Elizabeth A. Wood of this city to be appointed guardian of Frederick R. Wood, her son. The young man is 16 years old and was disabled while in the aviation service. His mother asks to be placed in charge of his affairs to handle his claim against the bureau of war risk competition. Hearing has been set for October 30.

Miss Zola Keen has been very ill at the home of her parents here this week. She was brought home from Whitman College early in the week and her father, Henry Keen, who was in Portland attending K. of P. grand lodge, was sent for. The patient is threatened with appendicitis, and is suffering from nervous exhaustion, doubtless from over study, as she is a particularly hard working student, and had but a short vacation after her summer course of study. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Athena friends of Flint Johns were interested to read in the papers last week of an alleged "elopement" from the University of Oregon, where both he and his bride Miss Elinore Chapman, were students. The young couple went to their homes in Vancouver, and were quietly married there, in the presence of their parents and friends. While the marriage was not expected until the close of the college term, it was well understood to be on the tapis, and so no great surprise was occasioned among their intimate friends. It is understood the young couple will make their home on a farm in Eastern Oregon, but the location has not been given out. Mr. Johns was a senior in the University, and his bride in the freshman class. Flint enlisted in the Naval service, and was in training in Seattle at the signing of the armistice.

Lloyd McPherrin emerged from an automobile wreck at Walla Walla Sunday, with a painful scalp and face wound, and an injured hip. He was riding in a taxi when the machine was struck by a large motor car amidships. The taxi was hurled across the street and turned over, after crashing into the curb. Other occupants escaped injury. Lloyd was brought home, but later taken back to Walla Walla to the hospital for treatment for his injuries. The scalp wound extended down the forehead to the eyebrow and made an ugly gash.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nelson, who have been making their home here for the summer, being domiciled in the Reed bungalow on Adams street, will leave Monday for LaCrosse, Wash. near where Mr. Nelson has leased a body of wheat land, of 500 acres. Mr. Nelson, who has spent the greater portion of his life in farming, finds a life of "innocuous desuetude" does not agree with him, and longs to get back to the soil. He takes over the land negotiated for by Floyd Pinkerton, and Floyd will remain here to farm the Pinkerton holdings.

Russell Piersol, after serving two and one half years in the Medical Corps of the United States Navy, has received his discharge from the service and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Piersol in this city. For over a year Russell was stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and for several months past has been stationed in Cuba. Russell is the last of the Athenians to receive his discharge from service during the World War, and comes home in fine condition. He will return to Wasco, and resume his clothes pressery business there.

High School Notes

The following members of the high school will attend the Older Boys' Conference at The Dalles, beginning this afternoon and ending next Sunday evening: Claude Snider, Herman Geisal, Kohler Betts, Dorwan Phillips, Willard Parker and Leon Kretser. Mr. Hadley will accompany them as adult leader.

In accordance with the recent enactment of the legislature, the entire enrollment of the school are required to spend an average of twenty minutes per day in physical training, exclusive of recess. Work in this line was started this week by all teachers and grades. The only exceptions to the rule are those of pupils bringing certificates from physicians, which state a physical inability.

Misses Laura and Belle McIntyre, Miss Hazel Burton and Max Hopper were among the young people from this city attending the farewell party given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott, last Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward, who leave soon for Honolulu.

The Sophomores and Freshmen netted about $17 at their pastry sale last Saturday afternoon.

The fifth and sixth grades have organized teams to play pass ball, as part of their physical culture.

The pupils in the fifth grade are writing their first play in language study.

Visitors to the primary room this week were: Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. O. A. Reeder, Mrs. George Myrick, Mrs. Casper Woodward, and Mrs. David Stone.

The birthdays of Columbus, Francis Willard and Theodore Roosevelt, are being observed by the first and second grades through Halloween with its suggestive and fascinating construction work furnishes the most appealing motif for the month's activities.

The little people of the primary room have sent out invitations to their mothers and friends to attend a little "At Home" in their room on the afternoon of Friday, October 31st. A very simple little program, selected from the most interesting phases of their everyday work will be given.
