

Our new Arrivals in
Pyralin Ivory

are now on display. On account of strike conditions and shortage of materials, we request that you anticipate your wants in this line before the Xmas rush.

Also a complete line of Universal Vacuum Bottles and Lunch Kits. Prices from $3.00 to 6.75

Call and see them while our stock is complete,

McFADDEN PHARMACY

The Rexall Store

PHONE 331—It will pay you to watch our Windows

"Over The Hill"

D. K. Garret left last Thursday for Washtucna, where he has bought out a jewelry store and will locate permanently.

Longings for mother's cooking were satisfied when Miss Gertrude Van Winkle, a freshman at Whitman College, joined the group around the family table last Sunday.

Mrs. Leon Lundell has been in Milton the past week assisting in caring for her mother, Mrs. Beamer, who is quite ill.

Miss Vida Greer, accompanied by a fellow classmate from Whitman, spent the week end at the hospitable farm home of her parents.

Dr. F. D. Watts returned Monday from a short business trip to Spokane.

William McBean and family of Adams were Sunday guests at the Ernest Ross home on Normal Heights.

At the conclusion of the motion picture entertainment to be given in Memorial Hall Saturday evening, the ladies of the Saturday Afternoon Club will serve sandwiches and coffee. The proceeds realized from the sale of these refreshments will be applied toward furnishing the kitchen of the hall.

John Philip Sousa appears younger than he did a few years ago, says F. C. Fitzpatrick in discussing the concert given by the famous band at Walla last Saturday evening. The genial professor and his wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. Harl Williams, motored over for the event.

Mrs. A. C. Metz has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. Heard, the past week.

Mrs. Jones, Senior, has returned from a delightful visit of two months duration at Seattle and Portland.

James H. Price is recovering from his recent attack of pleurisy.

Miss Lois Porter who is attending Whitman College at Walla Walla, spent Sunday with her parents in this city. An attractively appointed birthday dinner in her honor was a pleasing feature of the home.

W. L. Rayborn has bought the F. A. LeGrow ranch which adjoins his farm on the west. This increases Mr. Rayborn's holdings to nearly 750 acres, one of the largest ranches on Weston mountain.

R. L. Reynaud and wife attended the Armistice celebration at Pendleton, remaining all night at the county seat.

Lee Wilson, now located at La Crosse, Wash., still has a kindly feeling for our little mountain town, inasmuch as he forwarded a Red Cross membership fee for each one of his family, to the local auxiliary.

A quilting party was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gould, Wednesday, the work being done for the benefit of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South. Those attending were: Mesdames George Nebit, Letha King, W. L. Rayborn, Hattie Wilsey, E. W. Achilles and the hostess.

One hundred sixty-five members were secured in the recent Red Cross drive. Armistice Day marked the close of the roll call, which was set for national observance by President Wilson. Not so much money as members was what the organization desired this year—members who would become interested in the welfare work of the Red Cross throughout America and in the relieving of distress in certain war-torn countries of Europe.

Mrs. J. V. Smith and children of Bickleton, Washington, are visitors at the D. H. Wilsey farm home.

Lloyd King, son of Mrs. Letha King of this city, who has recently been in the service of the United States navy, is now attending an electrical school in California.

Jesse Hart and wife of Walla Walla, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Susan Tucker, the visitors motoring to Holdman for a short sojourn at the Ed Tucker home.

W. L. Rayborn managed the campaign for Red Cross members on Weston mountain, securing forty-five names which were credited to the Weston auxiliary.

In the opinion of poultrymen turkeys for the Thanksgiving feast will retail at closeto 50 cents a pound.

At the annual election of officers of the local Red Cross auxiliary held last Thursday, Mrs. Letha King was elected chairman for the ensuing year; Mrs. Bertha Sauters is the new

Standard Theatre
Saturday, November 22

AUCTION OF SOULS

Aurora Mardiganian, herself and a companion in "Auction of Souls"

The true Story of Blighted Armenia

7:30—TWO SHOWS—9:30
Admission 45c, Tax 5c, Total 50c. Children under 16 years of age not admitted to witness this production.

vice chairman, while Miss Doris Barnes was unanimously re-elected secretary and treasurer. Dr. W. H. McKinney was elected director.

S. A. Barnes, chairman of the Roosevelt Memorial Fund Drive, reports that about $20 was subscribed by local citizens and forwarded to the county chairman. Pendleton's quota in this campaign was $900, and a total of $988.31 was secured.

About eighty periodicals removed from New York on account of the pressmen and compositors' strike. Many of them are now being issued from other cities.

Delegates from The Saturday Afternoon Club who will attend a luncheon to be given by the Pendleton Civic Club November 15th, are: Mrs. J. Harl Williams, Mrs. F. D. Watts, Mrs. E. O. DeMoss and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith entertained Dr. C. H. Smith and family at dinner Tuesday evening.

Iley Winn has gone to Winona to do some seedling.

Walter Beamer has returned from Alberta.

Andy Larson has bought an attractive prune orchard of eight acres near Walla Walla.

$100 Reward, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

It will cost $3,272,000 to operate the Portland public schools during the coming year.

Bernard A. Nathan, a resident of Gervais for more than 40 years, died there at the age of 74.

Construction of a $15,000 plant by the Concrete Pipe company of Portland has started at Bend.

The $220,000 road bond issue election held in Crook county met with almost unanimous favor.

The Western Walnut association will hold its annual meeting at Portland November 12 and 13.

Action has been taken by the Baptists of McMinnville to erect a new church building the coming year.

Mrs. Nancy Emily Sharp, one of the oldest and best-known residents of Polk county, died at Corvallis, aged 88 years.

Smilie Purvine, pioneer dentist of Oregon, died suddenly in Salem at the home of his son, Ellis Purvine, at the age of 80 years.

At a coming special election in Roseburg a bond issue of probably $500,000 will be voted on for a municipal light and water plant.

The Springer ranch, three miles above Larson inlet, in Coos county, was destroyed by a great landslide during the recent rains.

While wading in Thomas creek, near Thomas, Arthur, 8-year-old son of Quintis Underwood, got beyond his depth and was drowned.

Douglas Larsen of Cove has been convicted and fined $100 for refusing to help fight a forest fire in the Grand Ronde district last summer.

For bravery in action, R. H. Swigert of Bend has received from the Canadian minister of militia and defense a British military medal of silver.

Sheep shipments from Bend are the heaviest on record. Two hundred and sixty-four carloads already have been sent out and 25 more cars are contracted.

Two winter short courses, dairy manufacture and tractor operation, will be offered this year by the Oregon Agricultural college school of agriculture.

Governor Olcott is urged to call a state meeting to suggest remedies for the high cost of living, in resolutions adopted by the Yamhill county Pomona grange.

Apple packing records were broken at Hood River by Miss Pearl Saltzman, who packed 140 boxes of fruit on the E. E. Lage place in four hours and 40 minutes.

Farmers west of Eugene are signing oil and gas leases of their lands for a term of three years, for which they are to receive $100. About 6000 acres have been leased.

A total of 13,114,279 acres is embraced in federal forest reserves in Oregon, on which the state draws for apportionment to the counties in the reserves $115,406.74.

George M. Benson, game warden, has been informed that no permits will be given this season for trapping on the Lake Malheur bird reserve, owing to low water and scarcity of food.

The Crown Willamette Paper company has announced that a new mill will be erected immediately at West Linn, which will provide employment for about 200 more men continuously.

Heppner is feeling the effect of the coal strike, the shortage of fuel having forced the Heppner Light & Water company to cut its light and power service from 24 hours a day to eight.

One of the biggest horse shows ever held on the Pacific coast will be staged during the annual exhibition of the Pacific International Livestock association at North Portland, November 17 to 22.

Settlers of the For Rock valley, 60 miles south of Bend, have completed the preliminary steps toward the organization of an irrigation district, which, as now proposed, will include approximately 46,000 acres.

The construction of a railroad 135 miles long from Medford to a point in the vicinity of Eureka, Cal., is the avowed purpose of the Medford Coast Railroad company, which recently filed articles of incorporation.

A. C. Allen of Medford, former state horticultural commissioner, announces his intention of testing the constitutionality of the Oregon vehicle law providing for the taxing of automobiles for good roads maintenance.

Hermiston farmers have petitioned the county court for authority to form the Hermiston Irrigation district for improvement to their lands. An election to vote on the proposal will be held December 15.

Only one of the 458 accidents reported to the state industrial accident commission during the week ending November 6 was fatal. The fatality was in the case of A. Sackett, a laborer of Grants Pass.

Even the world war ended sooner than many persons expected it would; the race riots are over; many of the temperamental strikers are returning to work and food prices are coming down. Maybe the world is on the way back to sanity.

Quality Always Service First

Proper Food and Prices

Good Food need not cost too much. Good food from a conscientious grocer will not cost too much. Our stock, bought with the end in view that we are to re-sell it as wholesome goods for fair prices. Our stock is always complete with canned goods, fruits and vegetables; delicacies, meeting the needs of the modern table. Let us supply your meals with the very best and you will be satisfied.

Haynie's

Phone 561

and your Orders will be filled.

Quality Always Service First

We have just discovered that our ad for the last 4 weeks has been with about the same as the "sic 'em" of Tom Corwine in Chautauqua.

Pep

We are on the Move

Follow us

Watts & Rogers
Hardware and Implements

The First National Bank of Athena
Capital and Surplus, $100,000

Safety Deposit Boxes

For rent