"Over The Hill"

Miss Iva McKinney, who is attending high school in Helix, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home in this city.

S. A. Barnes, L. I. O'Hara and H. Goodwin have been appointed appraisers of the estate of the late J. J. Beeler.

Miss Gertrude Van Winkle, accompanied by Miss Ruby Brodison, a Whitman College classmate, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the L. R. Van Winkle home in this city.

Rev. A. J. Starmer will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church, South, at Milton next Sunday. Rev. Cass will conduct services on that date in the local Methodist church.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith entertained at a charming dinner at their home in Athena Wednesday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary and the birthday of the genial host as well. A wonderful pyramid wedding cake glowing with lighted wax tapers was a prominent feature of the feast, which was unique in the annals of gastronomic events. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Miss Gladys Smith and Leonard Blomgren.

Friday evening at a meeting of the Pendleton Current Literature club, Mrs. Lillian Fredericks of this city gave a most instructive address on the life of the Chinese. Many interesting curios were exhibited, including small shoes of the Chinese women, ivory articles and jade ornaments. Mrs. Fredericks' talk was based upon personal experiences had during seven years of educational work in China.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harl Williams extended most delightful hospitality Thanksgiving day when Mrs. Mary C. McNee and Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodwin were their guests at an elaborate turkey dinner. At the desert course Maynard Jones and Gail Williams furnished an exhibition of rapid patter which was clever and diverting.

Mrs. F. D. Watts has been appointed chairman of the local Red Cross Seal campaign. Her associates are: Mesdames DeMoss, Leon Lundell, Alice Price, Porter, Payne, Fitzpatrick and Pinkerton. The proceeds from the sale of these Christmas seals will be devoted to fighting the white plague through educational and preventive work in Oregon.

Dr. F. D. Watts and family were dinner guests at the E. C. Rogers home in Athena Thanksgiving day.

Realizing that "Music hath charms," W. P. Cable has become the proud possessor of a handsome Claxtonola phonograph. Henceforth, the season of closed casements will have added delight for this family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pedersen entertained at a family dinner party on Thanksgiving day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rohde, parents of Mrs. Pedersen; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Numbers and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Chaney of Helix. Miss Josephine Rohde and Miss Adna Numbers spent the week end at the Pedersen home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Van Winkle were hosts at a merry dinner party on the national Feast Day. Guests were: Mrs. Martha Van Winkle, Mrs. Kittie Ray, Miss Ruby Brodison of Walla Walla, Miss Irene Banister, Miss Lola Key, Miss Gertrude Van Winkle, Lewis and William Van Winkle.

The union Thanksgiving service at the M. E. Church, South, last Thursday evening was well attended. Elder John Bonewitz gave the address and special music was furnished by the choir. An offering of $11 was received and added to the local relief fund.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter and family were guests of Freewater friends for Thanksgiving day.

R. W. Brown and wife came over from Walla Walla Friday to attend the Eastern Star banquet that evening and spend a few days renewing acquaintance with old friends. Mr. Brown came up from his Morrow county ranch last week to join his family in Walla Walla. Both he and his "close tillicum," Andy Douglas, report crop conditions to be very encouraging in Morrow at this time.

Andrew Douglas and wife were visitors from Lone last week. They attended the Eastern Star banquet here and were cordially welcomed by old friends and neighbors.

The Dramatic Order of the Knights of Khorassan will hold one of their impressive and terrifying ceremonies soon at Milton, Athena or Weston—the place depending upon the amount of tyro meat available for the tiger. The event will be staged by the Walla Walla temple of the Dokies, and members will assemble from far and near. At the meeting Wednesday evening of Stevens lodge, Knights of Pythias, at which work was done in all three ranks, the Dokies and tyros present were refreshed with an advance supply of camel's milk.

Miss Esther Williams, Weston student at Mills college, California, experienced her first earthquake shock a few nights ago. Her bed shook violently and doors and windows made hideous rattling noises. Miss Esther visioned herself suddenly plunged into the bowels of the earth, groping about for an exit, with no rescue party at hand.

The farm house of Eph. Tucker is being remodeled into the bungalow type, and when completed will be among the most attractive homes on the mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Schneider are back from Washtucna, preparing to turn over their mountain farm to the new owner, Charles L. May.

S. A. Barnes, E. M. Smith and C. W. Avery, the appraisers, have set the value of the estate of the late Ellis Pinkerton at $3337.50.

A large force of men under the direction of Foreman N. H. Nelson is laying steel for the O-W. between Adams and Pendleton.

Albert Wragar, the old hunter and former frontiersman, was in town Sunday from the mountain.

A. W. Sauer is back on the job in the local market, after quite a siege of illness.

Dr. and Mrs. N. P. Bennet returned Monday from their visit at Hermiston. Mrs. Artie Beathe has been under the doctor's care with a serious attack of asthma.

Rudolf Proebstel was in town this week from Adams, where he has been engaged in warehouse work.

Emerel Duncan has been seriously ill with hemorrhage from the kidneys at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Duncan.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address P.
