Mrs. J. M. Swaggart, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Amy Van Skiver, left Monday for Pendleton. After a few days' visit there, she will return to her home at Baker.

After an enjoyable visit with relatives in Weston, the home of her girlhood, Mrs. L. W. Barnes left Tuesday on her return home to Spokane.

The following elective officers of Weston Lodge No. 58, I. O. O. F., were installed Thursday evening of last week by Ernest A. Zerba, D. D. G. M. of the district, and the Athena team: J. A. Pows, noble grand; N. H. Jones, vice grand; J. E. Stanfield, secretary; S. A. Barnes, treasurer. Mr. Barnes will serve as treasurer for the forty-eighth successive term. A banquet was served and was duly enjoyed by the 65 members present.

Miss Edith Cooper of Roy, Idaho, was in Weston last week on her way to Moscow, where she will attend the University of Idaho. Miss Cooper was the guest of Miss Gertrude Van Winkle during her stay.

Dr. C. P. Shewey, a dental practitioner for more than twenty years and for the past three years an instructor in the North Pacific Dental college at Portland, was in Weston the first of the week. Dr. Shewey is looking for a location and was quite favorably impressed with Weston's advantages.

The annual meeting of the Weston Memorial Association will be held Tuesday, January 24th, for the purpose of electing a new board and officers. S. A. Barnes announces that he will retire as president of the association and manager of the picture shows. Donating his time, he has served acceptably to patrons for the past two years. "I have not been able to make the shows pay a satisfactory profit to the association," declares Mr. Barnes, "and I wish it understood that I will not serve again. Somebody else will have to undertake the task."

Mrs. Mary C. Ferguson was in Athena the first of the week, visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. McClure, prior to the departure of Mrs. McClure for Albion, Wash.

Fourteen teams and nearly all the mountain's leading citizens were out the first of the week to break a road through for the mail carrier on route No. 1, Earl Barnett. Sleds and rigs of all kinds were used in the operation, and the road was opened from the Eph Tucker place to Tamarrack church, a distance of about seven miles. The snowdrifts were from two to five feet deep in places. The road on Reed and Hawley mountain was also blocked. As usual, Jimmie Smock responded nobly to the call, and enabled Carrier Andy Barnett to make his daily trips.

Mrs. James Randall, a resident of Reed and Hawley mountain, has been under treatment at Pendleton with a serious illness.

The following directors of Weston Mountain Telephone Co. were elected at a recent meeting: V. L. Marr, Gus Olsen, Will Hall, R. E. English and Joe Hyatt. Mr. Marr was elected president and Mr. Hyatt secretary-treasurer.

Helen Josephine is the name of a welcome new arrival at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. Reynolds, in Weston. The little girl, who weighed ten pounds on her birthday, January 4, 1922, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis B. Reynolds of Connell, Wash.

While cutting wood at his farm on Pea ridge, Newt O'Harra found and felled a bee tree, with the result that he acquired about sixty pounds of wild honey. It is fine honey, too, in the opinion of a Leader expert, to whom he kindly presented a sample jar.

Having recovered from a severe attack of tonsillitis, Miss Atriss McCorkell returned Sunday to Weston to assist in the local telephone office and the A. M. Ross household.

The annual report of Weston library for the year 1921 discloses that 3432 adult and 1708 juvenile books were circulated, making a total of 5140 volumes passing through library channels. Ninety-three new readers were registered during the period. All departments show an increase over activities of the preceding year.

Miss Gertrude Van Winkle will not return to O. A. C. for further study, but will enter the University of Idaho at Moscow at the beginning of the next semester.

Rev. John B. Coan spent Monday in Walla Walla attending to business matters.

Mrs. A. W. Liles returned the first of the week from Pendleton, where she had been called on account of the illness of her granddaughter, Thelma Couch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Harra showed delightful hospitality Tuesday when a group of friends were invited to their home to spend the evening. Cards were the principal diversion. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert O'Harra, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Pedersen, Mr. and Mrs. "Pete" O'Harra, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Kennard.

A large meteor is reported to have fallen recently near Soap Lake, Wash. It was probably the same aerial pilgrim whom several Weston people saw in the northwest horizon a few mornings ago.

Saturday Afternoon Club members at the meeting held December 31 passed a resolution urging the scrapping of all submarines and denouncing the use of poisonous gases in warfare. This was forwarded to proper officials in Washington, D. C., for presentation to the arms limitation conference.

John Banister Jr. was up Tuesday from Pendleton, where he is under treatment that has resulted in considerable improvement.

Ernest March is defendant in a suit for the collection of $520 which is claimed by The Farmers Bank of Weston to be due on a promissory note, reports the East Oregonian. March and W. H. Warfield are jointly sued by the bank on notes amounting to $246.82. Fee and Fee represent the bank.

Frank Snider was on a trip through the Walla Walla and Waitsburg country the first of the week. He wanted to look at some land, but found it covered with about seven inches of snow, the recent thaw here not yet having hit that region.

Milton has the largest tax levy, 68 mills, of any town in Umatilla county. Adams has the lowest, 37, and Pendleton is next with 38.4. Weston's total levy is 62 mills, one less than Freewater's. Pilot Rock, Athena, Helix and Echo all have smaller levies than Weston, and Stanfield and Umatilla rank about the same as Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie and Walter Ginn of Walla Walla were dinner guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

The annual meeting of The Farmers Bank of Weston was held yesterday. The incumbent directors and officers were re-elected.

D. M. Burts came up Wednesday from Hermiston to visit his family. Mrs. Burts is convalescing from quite a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Selmer Thompson have the sympathy of friends in the loss of a little son born to them Tuesday.

Officers of Stephanie Temple, Pythian Sisters, were inducted into office Monday evening by Mrs. J. M. Price, installing officer. These will fill the temple stations: Etta Culley, Past Chief; Ruby Webb, M. E. C.; Margaret Jones, E. S.; Hazel Duncan, E. J.; Eunice Greer, Manager; Alice Price, M. of R. and C.; Hattie Wilsey, M. of F.; May McGibbon, Protector; Phoebe Smith, Guard. A delectable lunch of "Spanish chicken" was served, with the masculine members as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Banister were at College Place sanitarium yesterday, visiting at the bedside of Mrs. E. H. Caton, sister of Mrs. Banister.
