

Press Paragraphs

Mayor Barrett was a Pendleton visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arther Coppock were in Pendleton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barnes spent Saturday with relatives in Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Koepke visited friends in Pendleton, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Piper have been guests of this week of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Prestbye.

Grant Prestbye was operated on at Pendleton Wednesday for the removal of tonsils.

Mrs. Lilla Kirk was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lumsden, of Weston, Sunday.

Omar Stephens and Marion Han sell shot with the Pendleton Gun Club Sunday, at Collins Park.

Glenn Stiff drove over to Pilot Rock Friday evening, taking over a load of rooters for the basketball game.

Omer Stephens drove his car to Pilot Rock Friday evening, and took over a number to witness the basketball game.

The February meeting of the Christian Missionary society held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Thompson Wednesday afternoon, was one of more than usual interest. The subject, "Tibet, the Roof of the World," was led by division No 1, and papers read by Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Sherman and Mrs.

Don. Wilks, gave much information therein. The devotion session was led by Mrs. F. E. Russell, and refreshments were served by Mrs. G. R. Gerking and Mrs. F. Pinkerton and the hostess. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hill.

The Human Bakeoven has again opened in Athena. Patients will be received on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

Mrs. James Duncan, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts south of town.

Mrs. J. A. McSherry, (Alta Sharp,) arrived this week from her home in Tacoma and is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharp.

Members of the Willamette University Glee Club were entertained in the homes of Athena residents during their visit to the city, yesterday and last night.

Mrs. Charles McFardand accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Guy Arbogast to their home in Grant county, last week, and will visit her daughter, Mrs. Arbogast for a time.

Miss Dolly Stubblefield, member of the girls basketball team suffered the dislocation of one of her fingers, while practicing with the team on the gym floor recently.

Henry Wood will observe his 86th birthday to-day, and the old pioneer is well and hearty, age considered. His many friends wish for him many more birthday anniversaries.

Everett James, private secretary to a drug firm in New York City, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. John Stanton, Wednesday. He is the son of Mrs. L. Patton of Pendleton.

The Athena Home Laundry has installed a dryer that will take care of a washing in short order. The dryer is used on short orders and is proving to be a great device in that respect.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Willaby is slowly recovering from her recent alarming illness with pneumonia. The nurse was discharged this week, and the recovery of the little one is confidently expected.

Miss Lucinda Dell returned Monday with her parents from Portland. While absent she attended the formal annual party of the sorority of the U. of O. to which Miss Areta Littlejohn belongs, as her guest.

Zero weather was reported by Athena thermometers Tuesday night of this week. Winter is becoming monotonous and reports of the appearance of robins and other harbingers of springtime, will be welcomed.

Prof. Basler, instructor in the Athena High School, and athletic coach, has been confined to his room during the past week with illness, and Mrs. Basler has been teaching in his place. Mr. Basler was threatened with pneumonia.

Mrs. Bilton, of Stanfield, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Barnes, left for her home Sunday, after accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Barnes to Weston, for the week end where they were guests at the S. A. Barnes home.

Arthur March of Weston, spent Tuesday in Athena.

Lost—A wrist watch, between the school house and Hugh McIntyre home. Return to Katherine McIntyre.

Charles Dupuis of Adams, was an Athena visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price of Weston were in the city yesterday.

Alex McIntyre has presented his wife with a new Light Six Studebaker car.

All who have made dress forms will please notify Mrs. W. McPherson, project leader.

Mrs. Arnold Wood has returned from a visit to her sister at North Powder.

Clarence Hand and wife will move to Hey Winn place on Pine Creek, where Mr. Hand will be employed by Marion Hansell, who has the Winn place under lease. Mr. Hand has formerly been employed by Arthur Coppock.

The members of the Etude Club acted as hostesses yesterday and last night to the Willamette U. Glee Club, entertaining the young men by couples in their homes. Last night, with their husbands, they attended the concert at the school auditorium in a body.

Beginning on February 7th, Dolph Lodge No. 80, A. F. & A. M. will change its regular meetings from the first and third Saturday to the first and third Tuesday of each month. Remember the first meeting night, Tuesday, February 7th. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. C. A. Barrett received word of the death of Anthony Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bradley, former residents of Athena. The young man, who was born in Athena, 28 years ago, died at Omaha on the 26th inst., as the result of pneumonia, although he had been in poor health for some time.

Monday being the natal day of M. L. Watts, (what anniversary, dependent sayeth not,) the occasion was celebrated by a birthday dinner presided over by Mrs. Watts, at which the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens.

Interesting lectures were given at the Baptist church on Sunday evening and Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week by Miss Withers, a social worker who spent 12 years as a medical missionary in Southern China. Owing to the lectures not having been thoroughly advertised, many who would have enjoyed hearing them, missed them.

J. H. Sturgis will sell at public auction, Tuesday, Feb. 7th, at his place at Barnhart Station, west of Pendleton, 23 head of good mares and horses, 5 mules, 5 Jersey and Holstein milk cows, 10 sets of work harness, 2 gas engines, 2 new 3-bottom plows, 2 grain drills and other articles too numerous to mention. Free lunch at noon.

Tuesday next, Feb. 7, will be the regular meeting of the Athena Civic Club, when the program, with the subject: "Oregon Authors," will be led by Mrs. F. D. Watts. Roll call will be answered with quotations from Oregon authors. Mrs. C. L. McFadden and Mrs. J. E. Froom, will be hostesses for the afternoon. At the last meeting, eleven new members were added to the roll.

Friends in Athena of Emory Worthington, will regret to hear of his serious illness at his home in Pendleton. A recent visit to physicians in Portland disclosed the fact that an operation is necessary, but his condition will not warrant this for some time to come. With his wife and baby, he is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington in Pendleton where he is receiving the best of care, so friends report.

day, after accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Barnes to Weston, for the week end where they were guests at the S. A. Barnes home.

Arthur March of Weston, spent Tuesday in Athena.

Lost—A wrist watch, between the school house and Hugh McIntyre home. Return to Katherine McIntyre.

Charles Dupuis of Adams, was an Athena visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Price of Weston were in the city yesterday.

Alex McIntyre has presented his wife with a new Light Six Studebaker car.

All who have made dress forms will please notify Mrs. W. McPherson, project leader.

Mrs. Arnold Wood has returned from a visit to her sister at North Powder.

Clarence Hand and wife will move to Hey Winn place on Pine Creek, where Mr. Hand will be employed by Marion Hansell, who has the Winn place under lease. Mr. Hand has formerly been employed by Arthur Coppock.

The members of the Etude Club acted as hostesses yesterday and last night to the Willamette U. Glee Club, entertaining the young men by couples in their homes. Last night, with their husbands, they attended the concert at the school auditorium in a body.

Beginning on February 7th, Dolph Lodge No. 80, A. F. & A. M. will change its regular meetings from the first and third Saturday to the first and third Tuesday of each month. Remember the first meeting night, Tuesday, February 7th. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. C. A. Barrett received word of the death of Anthony Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bradley, former residents of Athena. The young man, who was born in Athena, 28 years ago, died at Omaha on the 26th inst., as the result of pneumonia, although he had been in poor health for some time.

Monday being the natal day of M. L. Watts, (what anniversary, dependent sayeth not,) the occasion was celebrated by a birthday dinner presided over by Mrs. Watts, at which the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens.

Interesting lectures were given at the Baptist church on Sunday evening and Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week by Miss Withers, a social worker who spent 12 years as a medical missionary in Southern China. Owing to the lectures not having been thoroughly advertised, many who would have enjoyed hearing them, missed them.

J. H. Sturgis will sell at public auction, Tuesday, Feb. 7th, at his place at Barnhart Station, west of Pendleton, 23 head of good mares and horses, 5 mules, 5 Jersey and Holstein milk cows, 10 sets of work harness, 2 gas engines, 2 new 3-bottom plows, 2 grain drills and other articles too numerous to mention. Free lunch at noon.

Tuesday next, Feb. 7, will be the regular meeting of the Athena Civic Club, when the program, with the subject: "Oregon Authors," will be led by Mrs. F. D. Watts. Roll call will be answered with quotations from Oregon authors. Mrs. C. L. McFadden and Mrs. J. E. Froom, will be hostesses for the afternoon. At the last meeting, eleven new members were added to the roll.

Friends in Athena of Emory Worthington, will regret to hear of his serious illness at his home in Pendleton. A recent visit to physicians in Portland disclosed the fact that an operation is necessary, but his condition will not warrant this for some time to come. With his wife and baby, he is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington in Pendleton where he is receiving the best of care, so friends report.

Croquet Cotton Cleanup

Silko and Royal Society

Croquet Cotton, while they last

5c

per Ball

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152

5 per cent Discount for Cash.

Coming: Jackie Coogan in "Peck's Bad Boy"

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, February 4

Scene from Charles Ray in "The Old Swimmin' Hole"

Charles Ray

In "The Old Swimmin' Hole"

International News. Two-Reel Western 10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday, February 5

The Fox

HARRY CAREY in "The Fox" A UNIVERSAL JEWEL

Featuring Harry Carey in Universal's Super-Western With Hundreds of Cowboys in the first Super-Western Picture Ever Produced Pathe Review. Admission, 25c-35c-50c, Tax Paid Aesops Fables.

SERVE OUR DELICIOUS GROCERIES AT YOUR VALENTINE PARTY AND EVERY DAY

Choice Pack Winesap and White Winters $2.50, $2.75, $3.75
Extra Choice Grape Fruit 20 Cents

Give a Valentine Party. It is good for you to entertain your friends once in awhile; keeps you feeling young and cheerful. You won't have to prepare a lot of things in a hot kitchen—we have many dainty things all ready-to-serve that will make your party a big success. You save money when you buy our things ready to serve—save work too.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon

The Churches

Methodist Services.
Sunday school 10 a. m., preaching 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend these services. C. L. Lowther, Pastor.

Church of Christ
Bible school at 10 a. m. Communion at 11 a. m.; sermon, The Second Beatitude, "Blessed Are They That Mourn." Evening worship at 7:30; subject, "The First Gospel Sermon."

In the ordinary course of human events every person born into this world dies sooner or later. In the Bible there is a record of at least two persons who never experienced this ordeal. Perhaps it has been a long time since you read these accounts. It will do you good to refresh your memory at Bible school next Sunday morning. Just one more thought: Have you asked some one to go to Bible school with you?

There will be a social evening at the church next Wednesday, Feb. 8. Refreshments will be served. All members of the church are urged to attend. F. E. Russell, Pastor.