

Press Paragraphs

Mayor Barrett spent Saturday in Pendleton.
 Elmer Merritt is driving a Dodge roadster.
 Mrs. W. S. Ferguson was in Pendleton, Saturday.
 O. H. Reeder transacted business in Pendleton, Saturday.
 Mr. George Winship was a Pendleton visitor, Sunday.
 Charles May of Weston, was in Athens Wednesday.
 Mrs. A. H. McIntyre was a Walla Walla shopper, Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keen visited friends in Walla Walla Friday.
 Attorney Watts was in Pendleton on professional business, Monday.
 Mrs. and Mrs. M. W. Hansell were Walla Walla visitors, Wednesday.
 Mrs. M. L. Leeper is a guest of her daughter in Pendleton this week.
 George Staggs of Weston, was an Athens business visitor, Wednesday.
 Mrs. B. D. Tharp and Mrs. J. E. Froom visited in Weston Monday.
 Jack Calder of Weston has been in Athens this week, doing plumbing work.
 Miss Mattie Coppock has been ill at her home on 4th street the past week.
 Born, at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, to Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Shipley, on March 28, 1922, a daughter.
 Mr. Fred Guy of Montana, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stiff.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gagnon have moved out to the Harris place south of town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller will probably live on the Caton place, south of town.
 The date of the next pastry sale given by the Christian Aid society is set for April 15.
 J. W. Maloney, L. L. Rogers and

D. C. Bowman of Pendleton, were in the city Tuesday.
 Lee Dennis came down from his ranch on Reed and Hawley Mountain, Saturday, after supplies.
 Rev. F. E. Russell was in Weston Saturday, where he officiated at the funeral of Miss Wilma Harbour.
 Mrs. Stevenson, of Joseph, Walla county, was a guest of Mrs. A. B. Logsdon the first of the week.
 Mrs. Fred Gross will entertain the Sunshine club at her home next Thursday afternoon.
 Dick Thompson is suffering from a badly sprained arm, which he sustained while working at his garage.
 Mrs. Minnie Mitchel and son Robert, were over from State Line Sunday, visiting at the Geo. Gross home.
 Mrs. Samuel Haworth left Tuesday evening for a visit with the Winship and Jarman families at Salem.
 Miss Gertrude McConnell of Pendleton, was an Athens visitor, Sunday.
 Dr. F. D. Watts was a Pendleton visitor, Monday.
 Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Neagle, Miss Neagle and Mr. and Mrs. Forest of Pendleton.
 Mrs. Maurice Frazier and little daughter Jean, were over from Milton the first of the week, visiting at the J. W. Pinkerton home.
 Mrs. Etta Gerking and daughter, Mrs. Otto Purcell, were over from Weston, Tuesday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Ann Taylor.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Koepke and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts, south of town.
 Very little wheat will have to be resown in the Helix farming district this spring as the result of freezing out, so it is reported by farmers of that section.
 The Press has a limited number of government seeds for distribution. A package of assorted seeds will go to each person who calls at the Press office, so long as they last.

 At a session of the local Rebekah lodge Tuesday evening, the work of the order was exemplified, Misses Savannah Smith and Hilda Dickenson being initiated into its mysteries.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Kirk had as dinner guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and son Roland. Later, hosts and guests attended the party at the opera house.
 Mrs. Wall has received news that the condition of Theodore Danner is now very critical and he is not expected to survive but a few days. He is at the home of his son in Portland.
 Mrs. D. H. Mansfield and daughter Velva, have been in the city from their home in Walla Walla. Miss Mansfield has accepted a position at the Baird music store in Walla Walla.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones went to Walla Walla Monday to visit J. C. Mitchell, uncle of Mr. Jones. Mr. Mitchell who stands over six feet in his stockings, weighs but 114 pounds.
 A pit to facilitate crankcase cleaning has been placed at the rear of the Prestbye Service station, and hereafter special attention will be given this class of work, at reasonable prices.
 E. A. Bennett the painter, is giving the interior of McFadden's Pharmacy a redressing. The color scheme is white and blue. The ceiling and fixtures are being painted white and the walls, blue.
 Mrs. M. L. Watts was hostess to a party of ladies visiting Walla Walla Wednesday, driving her car over. They were: Mrs. L. H. Basler, Mrs. R. B. McEwen, Mrs. C. M. Eager and Mrs. Rex Hopper.
 Mrs. John Foss is in a critical condition in a Portland hospital, after a surgical operation which necessitated the opening of the skull to relieve pressure by blood clots. Austin Foss went to Portland last evening.
 The Christian missionary society will hold an anniversary program at the church hour next Sunday, with a special program. The regular April meeting will be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. B. Boyd.
 The last rehearsals of Yokohama Maid, the Japanese comic operetta, are being held, preparatory to presentation at High school auditorium next Tuesday evening, by the Etude club. A performance will be given at Helix Monday evening.
 Rain has interfered with plowing again this week in this section. Farmers are finding it difficult to make much of a showing at spring work. A number plowed a portion of their land last fall, and these are in good shape, so far as plowing is concerned.
 W. C. Russell recently underwent an operation at Walla Walla for the removal of gallstones. That the operation was a successful is proved by the stone exhibited by Mr. Russell on his return home. He is feeling considerably better since the operation.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Booher of Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Catron, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johnson, Mrs. Ethel Montague and daughter, Marjorie, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Henry.
 S. A. Miller, who is a republican candidate for re-election as representative from Umatilla county in the Oregon legislature, was in the city Tuesday, from his home at Milton.

Mrs. L. L. Liewallen of Adams, was operated on at St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, Wednesday.
 A small portion of a few fields of grain in this vicinity will require re-seeding on account of freezing out during the cold weather. Marion Hansell reseeded 120 acres. Glen Dudley was ready to reseed one of his fields, but has decided that the stand of grain is good enough to leave as it is.
 The High School boys have put the grounds in condition for the baseball season, which opens here on April 28 with Milton High School. With favorable weather conditions, practice will be in order. A late start this season will place all teams in the conference under a handicap more or less.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley are home from their winter sojourn in California. They report former Athens people, now residing in California, well and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley made the trip home by auto, stopping at Eugene to visit their son, Vern who is a student at University of Oregon.
 Mrs. Lee Johnson and Mrs. Amos O'Dell were hostesses Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former on Hunt avenue, where they entertained in honor of Mrs. Jack Cunningham. Sixteen guests enjoyed their hospitality. After an hour with various diversions, a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess.
 The Star club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. C. H. Smith at her home, assisted by Mrs. O. O. Stephens. Seventeen members of the club were present, and Mrs. J. H. Herr and Mrs. C. L. McFadden were guests. Needlework and sociability ruled the hour, and ices and confections refreshed the guests. Mrs. H. A. Barrett will entertain the club at its next meeting.
 Posters, the work of Sidney Barnes, artist, are shown about town, advertising the Japanese play for next Tuesday evening. They are original, and drawn in Sid's own inimitable style, showing dainty Japanese figures and scenery. Fattedo, principal character, appears on some of them with startling life-likeness to his hon-fat-headiness. The Etude club is indebted to Mr. Barnes for his work, which is given free gratis.
 Celebrating her 7th birthday, little Athene Myrick was hostess Wednesday afternoon to sixteen of her little friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Myrick. The children played games and a prize was given to the one that found the most Easter eggs which were hidden in the yard, Goldie Miller winning the prize. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Myrick, Mrs. Olin McFerron and Mrs. Watson.
 A meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. K. Wall, when annual election of officers was held. Mrs. Geo. Gerking and Mrs. Charles Betts were re-elected as president and secretary, and Mrs. J. F. Herr succeeds Mrs. R. E. Stewart as treasurer. Much business was transacted. Announcement was made of the coming visit of the state president, on Wednesday evening, April 19, when she will speak in the Baptist church here.

U. S. Army Pants

(Cotton Reclaimed)

Sizes 28 to 36, per Pair While

They Last

$1.25

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152

5 per cent Discount for Cash.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, April 1

Hoot Gibson

In

"SURE FIRE"

And

Century Comedy Troupe

In

"The Whizbang"

International News

10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday April 2

A Pathe Picture

The Sagehen!

With Gladys Rockwell and Wallace MacDonald

Pathe Review.

Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Aesop's Fables

Watch for

"The Inside of the Cup"

A Fine Picture and Will be Exhibited at Regular Admission Prices

Tone up for Spring!

Sassafrass Bark

5 oz. for

25c

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

SERVE OUR
TEAS AND COFFEES.
 THEY ARE DELICIOUS
 AND FRAGRANT.
 TRY THEM TODAY

We know how to get the best Blends, how to keep them so they will hold their strength and fragrance. When you drink our teas and coffees you will find them delicious. All teas and coffees are not of the same quality, but all ours are—and that quality is No. 1.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon

High School Notes

The Seventh grade won its first ball game of the season from the sixth grade team by the score of 13 to 11.

Horace Sykes, deputy state fire marshal, addressed the student body, Friday.

Representatives from Helix, Adams and Weston met at the Athena school building last evening and made arrangements for the sectional track meet which is to be held in Athena the latter part of this month.

Work on the baseball grounds was commenced Tuesday and the diamond was put in condition for practice and scheduled conference games.

Grounds for a tennis court have been put in shape, north of the school building.

Arrangements are being made for baseball games here on April 14 between Umapine and Athena grades and High schools.

Superintendent Hadley will leave Tuesday evening for Spokane, where he will attend the Inland Empire Teachers' Convention. It is expected 2500 teachers will attend the convention.

REGISTRATION BOOKS OPEN

Registration books for the May primaries are now open at the office of B. B. Richards. Those who should attend to this duty if they expect to exercise the franchise privilege are new arrivals who have been thirty days in the precinct and six months in the state, citizens who have moved from one precinct to another and citizens who have not voted in the last two years and are therefore not enrolled in the registration books. The books close thirty days prior to the primaries, which occur May 16.