

Seed Potatoes

Fancy Netted Gems $2.50
 Earliest of All $3.50
 Early Ohio - $4.25
 Early Rose - $4.25

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152
 5 per cent Discount for Cash.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, April 8

Betty Compson and George Hackathorne

In

The Little Minister

A Paramount Picture

Books and plays come and go, but "The Little Minister" has gone on for twenty years. As a book, beloved in a million homes; as a play, never to be forgotten by the millions who saw it.

International News Two-reel Western 10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday April 9

Ethel Clayton

In

"WEALTH"

A fine Production Directed by the late William Desmond Taylor

Pathe Review. Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid Aesop's Fables

Watch for

"Inside of the Cup"

A Fine Picture and Will be Exhibited at Regular Admission Prices

Press Paragraphs

Mr. W. L. Smock was in Athena Thursday.
 J. V. Bell of Weston was in Athena Thursday.
 Ruford Price of Weston, was in Athena Thursday.
 Matt Mosgrove of Milton, was in Athena Monday.
 John Banister Sr. came over from Weston, Monday.
 John Thompson from Gibbon, was in town Wednesday.
 Dr. F. D. Watts was a Walla Walla visitor Wednesday.
 Jess York of Weston, was an Athena visitor Thursday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson were Pendleton visitors Wednesday.
 Mrs. A. B. Logsdon visited her parents in Walla Walla, Tuesday.
 W. F. Gould of Weston, was an Athena business visitor Wednesday.
 O. H. Reeder was a business visitor in Pendleton, Saturday and Sunday.
 Miss Minnie Perry of Walla Walla was a Sunday guest of Miss Wilma Stiff.
 The soda fountain at McFadden's Pharmacy will open for business tomorrow.
 Henry and Dolph Thompson of Gibbon are assisting Henry Barrett with his sheep at the Pine Creek ranch.

McFadden's soda fountain will be open for business tomorrow morning.
 Miss Ethel Hodgen was at home for the week end from her school at Duncan.
 The ladies of the Baptist church held a successful pastry sale last Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton were over from their home near State Line last week.
 Mrs. G. C. Prestbye and Mrs. William Piper of Adams, were in Walla Walla Thursday.
 Mrs. Alfred Pambrun had as her guest this week, her mother, Mrs. Fuson, of Weston.
 Mrs. Charles Dudley, Misses Frances Williams and Mildred Christensen, visited in Pendleton, Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Duffy, after a winter's residence in Athena, have moved to their ranch near Gibbon.
 Marion Hansell, Omer Stephens and M. L. Watts will shoot in the Walla Walla tournament, beginning tomorrow.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and Dale were dinner guests Sunday at the M. W. Hansell home north of town.
 Miss Belle Pambrun came up from her school near Pilot Rock and spent the week end at her home south of town.
 Dr. H. C. Curry, eyesight specialist of Seattle, made one of his periodical professional visits to Athena this week.

Daffodils and violets are making their late appearance in Athena gardens, but in ample time for Easter decorations.
 Mrs. A. C. Froom accompanied Mrs. Van Deusen, county demonstration agent to Weston yesterday.
 Mrs. W. R. Taylor last week accompanied her husband, Chief of Police "Jinks" Taylor of Pendleton, on a trip to Portland.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit were birthday dinner guests, Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gensel in Pendleton.
 Rain and snow has interfered with Athena's cleanup program for today and tomorrow.
 Mrs. W. R. Taylor and Mrs. M. L. Leeper are guests for the week at the country home near Walla Walla, of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yenney.
 Mrs. George R. Gerking will entertain her Bible school class, comprising about eighteen girls at her home with a party tomorrow afternoon.
 Henry Barrett reports lambing progressing at his Pine Creek ranch. The lamb crop is average, range good, but weather conditions could have been better.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley entertained at dinner Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leats, Mrs. Alice Keith and Miss Neva Lane of Pendleton.
 Tickets for the Legion Post Smoker at Legion Hall tomorrow night are on sale at McFadden's Pharmacy. Ladies are especially invited to attend the boxing contest.
 Tomorrow afternoon the ladies of the Christian aid society will hold a pastry sale in the Haynie store window.
 J. T. Lisuallen of Adams has filed for the democratic nomination for joint representative for Umatilla and Morrow counties. He has forwarded his petition to the secretary of state at Salem.
 Percy Wilson was in from Pilot Rock, where he has been employed on the state highway surveying crew. He will be transferred to Union county, to work on the Hilgard-Kamela section of the highway.
 W. J. Gholson has leveled up the parking in front of the Press office building this week, preparatory to seeding it to blue grass. Other parkings throughout the city are being leveled and sown to grass.
 Easter services will be observed at the various churches Sunday, with special music and other features. At the Christian church the congregation will have dinner in the church dining room directly after the sermon.
 George Clisby a ranger recently made a trip from Bingham Springs to Toll Gate on skis. He predicts high water in the Umatilla soon, as he encountered snow from 10 to 15 feet deep on the summit of the Blues.
 Marshal Stone announces that hereafter Athena citizens are expected to observe the city ordinance by keeping their chickens from running at large. Garden time is at hand, and all fowls must be kept from running at large.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dick English passed through Saturday on their way to Pendleton, from their home on the Weston uplands. Dick is preparing to move to Rangers camp, where he will be stationed as forest ranger for the summer.

The snow line again crept down to the lower foot hills Wednesday night. As a consequence the temperature was rather frigid as compared with the warm sunshine of Wednesday.
 Lost-Pair of gentleman's gloves. Leave at Press office.
 The Athena-Weston Post was host at a dancing party at Legion Hall Wednesday night, at which a pleasant time is reported. Many of the young people of the city and vicinity stepped to the inspiring music furnished by Williams colored jazz band.
 McKenzie Chapter, O. E. S., will be hostess next Wednesday evening at a social session, of Crescent Chapter of Weston and Loyalty Chapter of Milton. All members of the local chapter are specially urged to be present and participate in the hospitality.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles May were down last week from their mountain home, and report the season late up there, as everywhere. The snow is gradually going, but is often replaced with a new coat of a few inches, and planting of seeds will be late as a consequence.
 Mrs. Henry A. Barrett was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Star club, at her home on 5th street. Twenty ladies were present, including Mrs. E. E. Goff of Newberg and Mrs. M. M. Johns. Mrs. Barrett was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Ralph McEwen.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff arrived in the city Friday evening from their home at Newberg, to visit over Easter week with the family of their daughter, Mrs. R. B. McEwen. They drove through by automobile, and though having a windy trip, found the highway in good condition.
 Saturday the 22d. at 9:30 A. M. the Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen, will meet the Athena ladies to assist them in making organdie or gingham hats. It takes a yard of material and Mrs. A. C. Froom is the project leader. Enrollments should be made with her.
 L. C. Bevens of the Athena Bakery has purchased the McArthur building from Perry Hall, and will later move his bakery and confectionery atook there. Mr. Hall will leave Athena soon, closing his shoe repairing shop, tomorrow night. Mr. Bevens will make substantial improvements to the building.
 While Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pambrun were in Athena Saturday evening, someone entered their home south of town and stole a quantity of groceries, provisions and canned fruit. Tracks were discovered in the road east of the house, where some one had tied a team, and after plundering the house drove eastward.
 The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Banister. An interesting program was carried out, and Mrs. Banister served refreshments assisted by Mrs. Charles Betts and Mrs. Ralph Haynie. Visitors were: Mrs. S. S. Pierson, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. E. C. Rogers and Mrs. S. W. Stiff.
 Preparations are being made for holding the school sectional track meet in Athena. Saturday April 29. The schools of Adams, Athens, Helix and Weston will participate. The winners of the competitive events will represent their respective schools at the county meet to be held at Pendleton in May. Full details and program for the Athena track meet will be published in the Press of next week.
 Last Friday evening, the friends of George Banister, numbering about thirty, at the invitation of Mrs. Banister, gathered at the Kirk home near by and in a body descended upon him in their home, giving him a complete surprise. The occasion was his birthday and a most pleasant one it proved to be. After a season of social chat and games, a wonderful pyramid birthday cake was brought forth, decorated with candles numbering well past the half century mark. Mrs. Banister was assisted in serving a delicious lunch by Mrs. Ralph Haynie and Mrs. C. L. McFadden.
 Mrs. W. O. Read and Mrs. W. W. McPherson have been assisting the teachers in the grades and high school to select representatives in the declamatory contests. The final try-outs will be held today.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McPherson.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson motored to Walla Walla Tuesday on business connected with the J. J. Gross estate.
 Editor Putcell of the Weiser Signal, visited at the home of his niece, Mrs. Marion Hansell, yesterday. Mr. Putcell went to Halfway, Baker county, last evening, where tonight he lectures for the chautauqua course being held there.
 The O. D. O. Club met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Schrimpf, where the afternoon was spent in needlework. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Virgil Zerbe. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jesse Smith, April 27.
 Davidson & Hoffman have sold J. L. Case tractors to H. A. Barrett and Arnold Koepke. Delivery of the tractors was made this week.

Model Cleaners

and Dyers

Pendleton, Oregon

We Clean and Dye everything that is Cleanable or Dyeable. Suits made to order. Give your bundle to the Troy Laundry driver.

Our Soda Fountain will Fizz Tomorrow Morning

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Service

At This Store

SERVE OUR TEAS AND COFFEES. THEY ARE DELICIOUS AND FRAGRANT. TRY THEM TODAY

We know how to get the best Blends, how to keep them so they will hold their strength and fragrance. When you drink our teas and coffees you will find them delicious. All teas and coffees are not of the same quality, but all ours are—and that quality is No. 1.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon

