

Press Paragraphs

A. B. Steele was in town Monday. The Athena Home Laundry phone is 492.

Matt Mosgrove was in town from Milton, Tuesday.

Jim Lieuallen of Weston, was in Athena, Tuesday.

John Banister of Weston, was in Athena, Thursday.

Mrs. J. V. Bell of Weston, was in Athena, Wednesday.

Mr. W. L. Smock of Weston, was in Athena, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rogers were in Pendleton, Tuesday.

Mr. J. T. Lieuallen Jr. of Adams, was in Athena, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lieuallen drove up from Adams, Tuesday.

Charles May, Weston farmer, was in Athena on business, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Morrison of Adams were in Athena, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hyatt of Weston were Athena shoppers, Wednesday.

Barney Foster, Harry McBride, Tim McBride of Weston, were in Athena, Wednesday.

John Stanton is in Morrow county, shearing sheep. Shearers expect a good run of work this season.

The weather man let up long enough this week to permit real days of sunshine and spring temperature.

Mrs. M. M. Johns was in from the Johns farm west of town and spent the week with friends in the city.

The old agricultural implement shed on the Mosgrove property south of Main street, was torn down this week.

C. L. Rothrock is here this week from Los Angeles, California, visiting at the home of his son, Andrew Rothrock.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp visited her sister Miss Frazier, in Pendleton this week. Miss Frazier is ill at St. Anthony hospital.

At a board meeting held Wednesday night, Miss Blanche Scharmann was elected teacher of the fifth and sixth grades.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson has returned from a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Belknap, at Nampa, Idaho.

Dr. J. E. Sharp, well known dentist of Pendleton, who has many friends here, is reported seriously ill at his home there.

Mrs. A. H. McIntyre motored to Pendleton Saturday accompanied by her daughter, Lois and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Miss Alta Chandler.

The county booklets are being issued in allotments to the different towns of the county. Watts & Rogers store is the distributing place in Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Goff left Tuesday morning for their home at Newberg, after a pleasant visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McEwen.

City water will be piped into the City park. At the last council meeting, Superintendent Stone was instructed to lay the water pipes, tapping the third street mains.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. George Gerking, consisting of sixteen girls, was entertained at her country home last Saturday afternoon with an old-fashioned candy pull.

Marion Hansell won a splendid trophy at the Walla Walla tournament. He secured a fine Indian robe. Marion's total score for the shot of three days was 560 targets out of a possible 600.

His best run was 97 out of 100. Omar Stephens and M. L. Watts also shot through the tournament.

Mrs. Charles DeHaas and Miss Eva Gries, teachers of the Athena school, were dinner guests Sunday of Miss Hazel Duncan, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Iven O'Hara in Weston.

Rehearsals are in progress for a playlet to be given by members of the Parent-Teachers association, in connection with the school program to be given in the auditorium next Friday evening.

Mrs. W. R. Taylor leaves Sunday for Vale, Malheur county, to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clore, at their farm home. Her mother, Mrs. Leeper, will accompany her.

Members of the Christian church and all attending services Sunday enjoyed a splendid Easter dinner in the church dining room. During the afternoon election of officers was held and other business was transacted.

Tonight at I. O. O. F. K. of P. Hall, the Odd Fellows will hold the annual celebration of the founding of the order, with an entertainment and banquet, at which Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and families will be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley left by motor car yesterday morning for Portland, on business connected with the J. C. Fenney store. They will visit at other points in the valley while absent.

To conform with the state fire regulations, an iron lamp house has been installed in the Standard Theatre this week. Other alterations of the interior of the theatre have also been made to insure safety and security of theatre attendants.

Last Friday evening a number of friends complimented Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. B. McEwen, with a surprise party in their honor. Cards were played, and a pleasant evening ended with a substantial lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts were pleasantly surprised, at their country home south of town, by a number of their neighbors who invaded their home last night with intent to entertain. A jolly evening was passed, ending with a bounteous lunch provided by the invaders.

Herman Rosenberg, Pendleton farmer, will be tried in justice court for driving a tractor on the hard surfaced highway, west of Pendleton. The machine tore up the pavement, and as there is a state law prohibiting the tractors from use of the highway, Rosenberg is liable to fine.

Honoring Mrs. John Wall, a number of her friends gathered at the home of Mrs. W. K. Wall last Friday and gave her a happy surprise. All the ingredients of a delicious lunch were brought by the guests and a pleasant social afternoon was passed. About sixteen were present.

Vernon Miller is in the line for the prize rod offered by Watts & Rogers for the largest trout caught in Wild Horse creek by boys of 18 years of age and under. He landed a 12-inch Rainbow trout Sunday. Watts & Rogers have included Pine Creek in the competitive contest for the prize rod.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hadley, Miss Francis Williams and Miss Mildred Christenson were dinner guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fisher, of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Basler, Mrs. Chas. DeHaas and Miss Eva Christenson. All are members of the school faculty.

Will Campbell is improving the sapling place near town. He has sown alfalfa and set out over 200 fruit trees this spring. It is Mr. Campbell's intention to ultimately build a fine home on the place. He will reside there this fall and winter, coming from his farm to school his children here.

The condition of Aunt Martha Mays has been very bad the past week, and her many friends fear for the outcome of her illness, owing to her advanced age. Her son, Charles Mays and wife of Walla Walla were in the city Sunday to see her. She is being faithfully attended by her granddaughter, Miss Areta Barrett, who is constantly at her bedside. Mrs. C. A. Barrett is slowly recovering from the effects of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton are in the city en route to their home in Spokane from California, where they spent the winter. They are at the home of Mrs. Minnie Willaby, sister-in-law of Mrs. Knowlton. Frank says California is all right for those who want to live there, but for him the north is good enough.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith went to Pendleton last evening, where they were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. McKenzie, Dr. and Mrs. Smith presenting the birthday cake, a wonderful pyramid angel cake, built by an Athena lady whose fame for this most delicious of all cakes is of more than local note.

Mrs. Ralph McEwen was hostess Saturday evening at her home on College street, at a well appointed Easter dinner, to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Boyd. A basket of brilliant hued Easter eggs surrounded by violets, centered the table, making a unique decoration.

Adventuring out into the big world "on their own," three little girls went a-butter-cupping Tuesday afternoon, and while they were enjoying the lark immensely, the distraught parents were seeking everywhere for them. The little party, consisting of Lucile and Genevieve Barrett and Jean Lattin, were found about 6 o'clock, out on the N. P. right of way near the oil station, contentedly picking buttercups.

Mrs. J. L. Michener was hostess to the Etude club yesterday afternoon at her home on Jefferson street. Miss Belle McIntyre led the most interesting program, with "Folk Music" as her subject. Roll call was answered with appropriate quotations, and a report of the proceeds from the operetta, recently given here and in Helix, was made. Net proceeds were about $120. Miss McIntyre's program was as follows: Paper by Mrs. Proudfoot, read by Mrs. Eager; duet, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. McEwen; solo, Mrs. Basler; quartet, Mesdames Fisher, De Haas, Basler and Richards; piano solo, Mrs. Stephens. Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. D. Watts and Mrs. C. M. Eager.

STANFIELD WOMAN HURT

A sheep herder, tending a flock near Stanfield, heard peculiar vibrations on the wires of a fence. He followed the fence and came upon a Ford car against the fence with the engine running and underneath, unconscious and badly hurt lay Mrs. Hoskins. The lady had evidently cranked her car, which lurched forward, knocking her down. The fence stopped the car, and the throbbing engine sent its message along the wires of the fence.

High School Notes

On the morning of April 20th general assembly was called for the purpose of commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of General Grant's birthday. The program was given one week early on account of the May Day exercises.

County School Superintendent Green accompanied by Superintendents Voelker of Hermiston, Howard Drew of Echo, Siegrist of Pilot Rock, Orth of Stanfield and Reed of Helix, visited Athena school Wednesday.

Superintendent Green has asked the superintendents of the east end of the county to visit the west end schools next Wednesday.

The winners of the oratorical contest which was held in the auditorium Friday April 15th, will go to Helix tonight. The winners representing Athena are: Lawrence Knight, Kenneth Johnson and Velton Read. The judges of the contest held here last Friday were Mr. B. B. Richards, Mr. M. L. Watts and Mr. H. I. Watts.

The boys have prepared the baseball diamond near the oil plant, so that they can use it any time, when the regular diamond is flooded.

Mrs. H. I. Watts and B. B. Richards visited the high school classes on Friday after the oratorical contest.

The managers, Dorvan Phillips and Kohler Betts are carrying on their decorations very nicely for May Day. Every high school student that has a vacant period is helping out. The frame work is up and is about half covered with boughs. There were more boughs brought from Pine Creek yesterday to complete the job.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott Fisher had as dinner guests Tuesday evening, April 18, Mr. and Mrs. Hadey, Miss Williams and Miss Christensen.

The Churches

Metholist Services

Sunday School 10 A. M. Preaching 11 A. M. Preaching 7:30 P. M. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

C. L. Lowther, Pastor.

Catholic Church

There will be services at the Catholic church, Sunday, April 23, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Baptist Church

Sunday school, 10 a. m. Bible students class. Subject, "The Pyramids of Egypt." The Origin and purpose as revealed in the light of history and Bible. Morning sermon, 11 a. m. Theme, "The Law and Gospel." Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Address, "The Bible the Only Real History of Men and Nations."

Midweek Bible class, Thursday evening, 7:30 p. m.

Church of Christ

Bible school, 10 a. m. Communion, 11 a. m. The subject of the sermon in the morning will be, "How Can I Recognize The True Church?" The hour for the evening service is 7:30 P. M. subject, "Saved, From What, For What?" You are cordially invited to worship with us.

F. E. Russell, Pastor.

Syrup

Special

- Tea Garden 1-2 Gallon . 75c
- Tea Garden one Gallon . $1.45
- Liberty Bell 1-2 Gallon . 75c
- Liberty Bell one Gallon . $1.45

Athena Department Store
For Lower Prices, Phone 152
5 per cent Discount for Cash.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, April 15

Fred Stone

In the

Duke of Chimney Butte

And

Harold Lloyd

In

Number, Please

Practically a Double Show for one Admission Price
International News 10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday April 16

BEBE DANIELS

Coming in

One Wild Week

A Paramount Picture

Pathe Review. Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid Rollin Comedy

Watch for

Wallace Reid in 'The Love Special'

A Fine Picture and Will be Exhibited at Regular Admission Prices

Model Cleaners and Dyers

Pendleton, Oregon

We Clean and Dye everything that is Cleanable or Dyeable. Suits made to order. Give your bundle to the Troy Laundry driver.

Special

25c Bottle of Cleansing and healing Klenszo Mouth Wash

Given Away

with every purchase of the big economical 50c tube of

Klenszo Dental Creme

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Service At This Store

SERVE OUR TEAS AND COFFEES. THEY ARE DELICIOUS AND FRAGRANT. TRY THEM TODAY

We know how to get the best Blends, how to keep them so they will hold their strength and fragrance. When you drink our teas and coffees you will find them delicious. All teas and coffees are not of the same quality, but all ours are—and that quality is No. 1.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY
Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon