

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. J. V. Bell of Weston was in town Wednesday.

Herbert Hopkins came over from Weston Thursday.

Vernie Marr of Weston was in Athena yesterday.

Wheat Hay—Bound wheat for sale. Mrs. Jos. Sheard, phone, 28F2.

Roy Hyatt prominent Weston farmer, was in Athena Wednesday.

F. G. Lucas, Weston real estate agent, was in Athena yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proudfit were visitors in Pendleton Wednesday.

Cass Cannon is having his residence painted a bungalow brown color.

Mrs. J. H. Sturgis visited her parents here Wednesday night from Pendleton.

Mrs. S. F. Sharp and Mrs. W. W. McPherson were visiting in Pendleton Saturday.

Matt Mosgrove, Milton merchant, and sister, Mrs. Elliott, were in Athena, Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Dudley and her granddaughter, Jessie Dudley, visited relatives in Pendleton.

George Thompson reports the capture of nine coyotes from a den on his ranch, last Sunday.

Fresh Milk—Fresh rich milk from Jersey cow, $3 per quart per month, delivered. P. H. Markley.

W. W. Boothby, well known Pendleton carpenter, dropped dead of apoplexy while at work on a scaffold, Tuesday.

Marion Hansell and Homer Watts spent Wednesday on the north fork of the Walla Walla and had fair success trout fishing.

Charles Russell is in the city from Condon, visiting at the home of his parents. He is again in good health, after a serious illness.

Laurence Tharp of the Auto Top & Awning company of Walla Walla, was in Athena Tuesday and Wednesday day putting up awnings at Main street business houses. He took orders for others, and reports that he is doing a thriving business in his line.

Everything is in readiness for the district track meet in Athena tomorrow. The schools of Adams, Athena, Helix and Weston will participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mrs. Ella Brotherton and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Walla Walla, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Minnie DePeatt.

Fishermen returning from Buckaroo Creek Sunday, report large numbers of dead horses and cattle in that section, as the result of the severe winter.

E. A. Bennett is giving the Prestby Service Station a coat of white paint. The property is also being parked and sown to grass by Mr. Prestbye.

The Watts tractor was used yesterday in scarifying Third street, from Jefferson street intersection north. The street surface will be graded and rolled.

Sydney S. Vincent, former Associated Press manager at Portland, and John E. Gratke, once editor of the Astoria Budget, were callers at the Press office, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowley left the first of the week for Walla Walla, where Mr. Crowley will be employed. They have closed their home here during their stay in the Washington town.

Jim Jones, rural mail carrier, reports to the Press that he has transferred his Missouri possessions to his mountain ranch, and will hereafter deliver mail in approved style—a la Ford.

Asa Arbogast was up last week from his Ritter stock ranch, accompanied by a man who contemplates trading for his residence property here. Mr. Arbogast will not return to Athena to reside.

The Simpson Auto company of Pendleton, will give a practical demonstration with the Fordson Tractor and Oliver plow, on the Kilgore place south of city limits, Monday, May 1. The public is invited to witness this demonstration of a complete plowing outfit.

Dr. A. C. Froom, accompanied by his wife and son will leave in a few days for Canada, where the doctor will look after his land interests, later returning to Athena to resume his dental practice.

A. M. Meldrum was in the city from Spokane Saturday, in the interests of Spokane Christian University. He reports that Mrs. Meldrum, who is on the faculty of the college, is confined to her home with rheumatism.

Wm. Russell has returned home from his second confinement in the hospital at Walla Walla, where he was recently operated on for the removal of gallstones. Mr. Russell is now on the road to permanent recovery.

Editor Mainwaring of the Hermiton Herald, visited the Press office Wednesday. Mr. Mainwaring recently returned from San Francisco where he mastered the mechanism of the linotype at the Megenthaler school, which it is published.

Oliver Dickenson this week shipped his household goods and farm appurtenances by the O. W. to his North Powder ranch, and with his family left to reside there permanently. Their friends wish them prosperity in their new home.

Mrs. M. L. Watts entertained the Baptist Missionary society last Friday afternoon at her home on 4th street. A large number were present, including invited guests. A splendid program was enjoyed, and refreshments closed the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bell, (nee Leota Wagner) have moved from Pendleton to the Bell home farm south of town where they will reside with Mr. and Mrs. John Bell. Mrs. Bell was formerly a teacher in the Athena schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton left Saturday for their home in Spokane after a short visit here. They spent the winter at Long Beach, California, and are seeing their friends en route home. At Prescott, Waitsburg and other points in Washington they expected to visit relatives.

Next Wednesday, May 3rd, the Christian Missionary society will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton west of town. Division No. 2 will furnish the program for the day, and division No. 1 will serve tea. All ladies interested are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke and daughter, Miss Dorothy, will leave their home in Glendale, California, during the coming month, for a visit to their former home in Germany. Henry Junior will return to Athena after the close of school where he will spend his vacation on the farm.

The ladies of the Civic Club are making elaborate preparations for their annual silver tea, which will be held on next Tuesday afternoon in the K. of P. Odd Fellows Hall. Efficient committees on decoration, entertainment and refreshments have the function in charge, insuring a pleasurable event. The clubs and ladies of other towns have been specially invited, and the ladies of Athena and especially the members of the Civic club are urgently requested to assist in the success of the occasion by their presence. Mrs. Anderson of

Walla Walla will be a guest of the Civic club, and will give a review of her popular book, "An Off Islander."

Mrs. Samuel Haworth returned last week from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Winship, and the D. B. Jarmans, at Salem. She reports all well and prosperous at the Capitol city. Miss Mildred Winship will arrive in Athena soon for a visit with Mrs. Haworth and other friends.

The annual issue of The Lyre, Athena high school paper, will be issued today. The publication of this issue covers senior class activities, May Day exercises, commencement and graduation in detail, and is splendidly illustrated with halftones of the graduating class and the basketball team.

Owing to inclement weather April 14th and 15th, the clean-up days in Athena, a considerable amount of the work was necessarily undone, and it has been decided to set aside Wednesday of next week, May 3rd, as a clean-up day on which the work of removing rubbish and cleaning up the alleys and vacant lots will be completed.

The four-reel motion picture, "Safeguarding the Nation," will be shown at the Christian church tomorrow evening, by arrangement with the ministers of the city. It is stated that the picture portrays a message that is timely and important. "Safeguarding the Nation" is given under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon.

P. H. Markley, miller for the Preston-Shaffer Milling company, is in a serious condition at his home in this city, from the result of running a rusty nail into his hand. He is attended by Dr. Sharp. Mr. Markley was working in the basement of the mill, when he placed his hand on a board, containing the nail, which penetrated the palm to the bone.

The recital given by Miss Cassil's class at high school auditorium, Saturday evening, was enjoyed by all who were in attendance. The different numbers were well received, and marked improvement was noticed in the proficiency of each pupil. Miss Cassil announces a recital in May at which time a larger number of her pupils will participate in the program.

M. L. Watts returned last evening from Morrow county where as Grand Marshal of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Oregon, he paid official visits to local lodges. He relates a narrow escape that he experienced in an automobile accident. Mr. Shaffer and Mr. Leonard of Waitsburg were riding with Mr. Watts, when a truck crowded their car off the road, and the machine hung by one wheel over the embankment.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hansell, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow and Mrs. F. B. Boyd motored to the north fork of the Walla Walla river Saturday morning, where the men of the party investigated the fishing possibilities. Too much water prevented any satisfactory results in that line, but a picnic breakfast and lunch was keenly appreciated none the less.

J. E. Jones, Prof. Loren Basler, Elbert Stiff, Herman Hoffman and Isaac Davidson spent Sunday in the Blue Mountains, bear hunting. No trace of bruin was found, but the party enjoyed the outing nevertheless. Mr. Jones had the satisfaction of pulling one of the cars transporting the party out of the water on the Umatilla, with his invincible Ford. Mr. Jones describes the impromptu bath the boys were forced to take, in his own peculiar way.

Mrs. O. O. Stephens entertained the Star club Tuesday afternoon at her home on 4th street, with twenty-five ladies present. Out of town guests were: Mrs. A. A. Kimball and Mrs. Ralph Hassell of Pendleton. Athena guests were Mrs. J. F. Herr and Mrs. W. W. McPherson. Mrs. Stephens was assisted in serving a refreshing lunch, by Mrs. C. H. Smith. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. M. W. Hansell, north of town on Tuesday afternoon, May 9th.

McKenzie Chapter, Order of the Easter Star, with the Crescent Chapter of Weston and Loyalty Chapter of Milton, were guests Tuesday, evening of Bushee Chapter, of Pendleton. Owing to the fact that the Benedict Club was entertaining on the same evening, Athena's representation was cut down considerably, but the fifteen members attending were highly pleased with their reception and entertainment. A splendid banquet was served by the hostess chapter after the close of the session.

The last of the dancing parties given by the Benedict club, composed of thirty-two young married couples of Athena, was given Tuesday night in the Legion hall. About 150 people danced until midnight to the inspiring strains of McElroy's orchestra after which a sumptuous lunch was served by the members of the club to their guests. The season's parties have been voted a pronounced success, and it is hoped that the club will reorganize next fall, to give a series of like character.

Syrup

Special

Tea Garden 1-2 Gallon	75c
Tea Garden one Gallon	$1.45
Liberty Bell 1-2 Gallon	75c
Liberty Bell one Gallon	$1.45

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152

5 per cent Discount for Cash.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, April 29

Elsie Ferguson

In

'Sacred and Profane Love'

A Paramount Picture

International News

Two-Reel Western

10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday April 30

Wallace Reid

Coming in

The Love Special

Pathe Review.

Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Rollin Comedy

Watch for

'The Mistress of the World'

A Fine Picture and Will be Exhibited at Regular Admission Prices

Werk's Red Oil Soap

TRUE ECONOMY in the matter of Soap is not to be determined by the "number of bars" you get for $1.00, but rather by the quantity of ACTUAL SOAP and its LASTING QUALITY. Some soaps, apparently very cheap, waste very rapidly. Such soaps are NOT ECONOMICAL!

The Lasting Quality of WERK'S RED OIL SOAP Spells Economy!

Breaks hardest water! Will not shrink woolsens. Try one dollar's worth. For sale by

The Pure Food Grocery

Model Cleaners

and Dyers

Pendleton, Oregon

We Clean and Dye everything that is Cleanable or Dyeable. Suits made to order. Give your bundle to the Troy Laundry driver.

Service
At This Store

SERVE OUR TEAS AND COFFEES. THEY ARE DELICIOUS AND FRAGRANT. TRY THEM TODAY

We know how to get the best Blends, how to keep them so they will hold their strength and fragrance. When you drink our teas and coffees you will find them delicious. All teas and coffees are not of the same quality, but all ours are—and that quality is No. 1.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY
Quality Quantity, Service. Phone 171. Athena, Oregon