

Press Paragraphs

Frank Snider of Weston was in Athena, Thursday.
O. A. Adams of Weston was in Athena, Thursday.
Charles May of Weston was in Athena, Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre were in Walla Walla, Tuesday.
Mrs. J. F. Bell of Weston, was Athena shopper, Wednesday.
Mrs. Charles DeHaas was a dinner guest of Mrs. Lila Kirk, Sunday.
Mrs. J. F. Herr and Mrs. S. P. Sharp were Walla Walla visitors, Monday.
Mrs. Clarence Gagnon is visiting at the home of her parents near Echo, this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland.
Miss Joyce Johnson is employed temporarily in the dining room of the St. Nichols hotel.
A number of Athena people spent a pleasant time Saturday night at a dance at State Line Hall.
Mrs. Kirk, Miss Christensen, Miss Gries, and Mrs. DeHaas motored to Pendleton, Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Loren Basler and Miss Eva Gries were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager, Sunday.

Chickens Wanted—J. E. Froom of the St. Nichols hotel will pay the highest market price for chickens.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jack of Pendleton and children were dinner guests Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Smith.
Mr. Bennett, representing the girls' orphanage at Eugene, in connection with the Bible university, was in the city this week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKintrick of Starbuck have arrived in Athena with the intention of residing here. Mr. McKintrick is a carpenter.
Miss Irene Ray of Pendleton, was a week-end guest of the Misses Pambrun, at their home south of town. Miss Ray is a teacher at Pilot Rock.
F. E. Russell, pastor of the local Christian church, left Monday for Springfield, Mo., where he was called by the critical illness of his mother.
Miss Vernita Watts will arrive today from Oakland, California where she is a student at Mills College, the vacation period for her school having begun.
Mrs. Ethel Pinkerton and her two children, Dorothy and Donald, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton Sunday and Monday.
Mrs. Homer I. Watts and Mrs. M. L. Watts were hostesses Tuesday at a one o'clock luncheon, at the home of the latter, to the following ladies: Mrs. Florence Bennett Anderson and Mrs. Frank Robinson of Walla Walla; Mrs. A. S. Dickenson, Mrs. W. G.

Shuham, Mrs. R. G. Eichelberger and Mrs. E. G. Wheeler of Waiteburg, Wash., and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow and Mrs. R. B. McEwen.
Practice for initiatory work for the Eastern Star will be held in the hall next Wednesday evening. Members will please take notice. By order of the Worthy Matron.
Miss Mildred Winship is here from Salem, visiting with relatives and friends. Miss Winship, who is employed as telephone operator, is on her two-weeks vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Whiteman and children of Walla Walla, and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards and son were dinner guests Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Koepke.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley and Mr. and Mrs. Emmel have returned from Portland, where Mr. Emmel and Mr. Dudley selected summer and fall merchandise for the J. C. Penney store.
Prof. Loren Basler of Athena high school will attend summer school at University of Washington. Prof. and Mrs. Basler will leave Athena immediately after the closing of school.
Miss Drake was hostess at a slumber party, given at her home on Monday evening. Those present were: Misses Mildred Christensen, Frances Williams, Edna Pinkerton, Altha Chandler and Mrs. Hopper.
The Sunshine club will be entertained on May eleventh at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Woodward, with Mrs. D. T. Stone and Mrs. Bower as hostesses. All members are requested to be present.
Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross, Mrs. Jennie Gross and Mrs. Grant Prestbye went to Walla Walla Monday where they attended the funeral of their kinswoman, Mrs. Carpenter, who died there.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman, of Ione, Oregon, and three children, were week-end guests at the C. T. Smith home on west Main street. Mr. Engelman is a brother of Mrs. Smith and formerly was well known to Athena people.
William Elam is a new clerk at the Athena Department store. Mr. Elam, who comes from Dayton, Wash., was at one time employed by Mr. Radtke, and is no stranger here. With Mrs. Elam, he will reside in the Fisher bungalow.
Members of the Athena Commercial club are requested to be present at a meeting of the club to be held on next Tuesday evening, May 9. Matters of importance will come before the club, is the reason for requested attendance of members.
"Pete" Abercrombie, popular salesman at the Athena Department store, will leave soon for Canada, in company with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Froom. Mr. Abercrombie during his two years stay here has made many friends in Athena, who wish him well in new fields.
Mrs. F. E. Russell is enjoying a visit from her father, M. L. Caskey, who arrived Monday evening from San Diego, California, where he spent the winter and spring. Mr. Caskey, after an indefinite visit here, will go to Denver, Colo. where he owns property.
Tuesday, May 16 will be the annual picnic and park clean-up day for the Athena community, headed by the Civic club. The committee having the program in charge, have announced that work will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon; and all are requested to bring rakes and other implements deemed necessary. Supper will be served at 5:30. The committee consists of Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, Mrs. J. C. Walter and Mrs. Arnold Wood.
Colonel J. S. Winn and Mrs. Winn will arrive tomorrow from Fort Riley, Kansas, and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow. Mrs. Winn is a sister of Mr. LeGrow. Colonel Winn has been commanding officer at Fort Riley since the war, and is coming west to spend the summer.
The sixth birthday of Miss Helen Lucille Barrett was the occasion of a happy afternoon, Wednesday, for twenty of her little friends, at her home. Rain interfered with outdoor games, but the commodious basement, decorated in flowers afforded a splendid substitute. A May-pole dance and crowning of the little hostess as queen, was a special feature. Mrs. Barrett was assisted by Miss Eva Gries, Mrs. R. B. McEwen and Mrs. A. L. McEwen. Mrs. Clarence Tubbs, Mrs. Richard Thompson and Mrs. J. C. Walters were guests. A dainty collation, suitable to the appetite of the little folks, ended a delightful May birthday party.
The May meeting of the Christian Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton. Mr. Bennett, of Eugene, was a visitor, and presented a plea for aid in the construction of a new building for the girls' orphanage, under the Bible University there. The Athena Missionary circle voted to endorse a room in the new building, and will assume responsibility for its construction. Mrs. Russell led the devotional exercises and the regular program was dispensed with. The ladies voted to invite the Pendleton society to meet with them in the church basement on June 7th. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Smith and the hostess.
Miss Laura Purcell, teacher in Lamar school, has been requested by Superintendent Green to present her pupils in the calisthenic drill so successfully given here last Friday evening, at the county meet tomorrow in Pendleton.
Complimenting their husbands and the cast assisting in the operetta given here last month, the Etude club were hostesses last night at a pleasant party in the Christian church reception rooms. A musical and literary program engaged the first part of the evening, followed by games and refreshments.
Born, April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Westfall of The Dalles, a daughter. Mrs. Westfall was formerly Miss Zena Craft, daughter of Mrs. C. T. Smith of this city.
Mrs. George Gerking and Mrs. D. B. Hunt are both reported ill at their homes east of town.

ed that work will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon; and all are requested to bring rakes and other implements deemed necessary. Supper will be served at 5:30. The committee consists of Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, Mrs. J. C. Walter and Mrs. Arnold Wood.
Colonel J. S. Winn and Mrs. Winn will arrive tomorrow from Fort Riley, Kansas, and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow. Mrs. Winn is a sister of Mr. LeGrow. Colonel Winn has been commanding officer at Fort Riley since the war, and is coming west to spend the summer.
The sixth birthday of Miss Helen Lucille Barrett was the occasion of a happy afternoon, Wednesday, for twenty of her little friends, at her home. Rain interfered with outdoor games, but the commodious basement, decorated in flowers afforded a splendid substitute. A May-pole dance and crowning of the little hostess as queen, was a special feature. Mrs. Barrett was assisted by Miss Eva Gries, Mrs. R. B. McEwen and Mrs. A. L. McEwen. Mrs. Clarence Tubbs, Mrs. Richard Thompson and Mrs. J. C. Walters were guests. A dainty collation, suitable to the appetite of the little folks, ended a delightful May birthday party.
The May meeting of the Christian Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton. Mr. Bennett, of Eugene, was a visitor, and presented a plea for aid in the construction of a new building for the girls' orphanage, under the Bible University there. The Athena Missionary circle voted to endorse a room in the new building, and will assume responsibility for its construction. Mrs. Russell led the devotional exercises and the regular program was dispensed with. The ladies voted to invite the Pendleton society to meet with them in the church basement on June 7th. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Smith and the hostess.
Miss Laura Purcell, teacher in Lamar school, has been requested by Superintendent Green to present her pupils in the calisthenic drill so successfully given here last Friday evening, at the county meet tomorrow in Pendleton.
Complimenting their husbands and the cast assisting in the operetta given here last month, the Etude club were hostesses last night at a pleasant party in the Christian church reception rooms. A musical and literary program engaged the first part of the evening, followed by games and refreshments.
Born, April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Westfall of The Dalles, a daughter. Mrs. Westfall was formerly Miss Zena Craft, daughter of Mrs. C. T. Smith of this city.
Mrs. George Gerking and Mrs. D. B. Hunt are both reported ill at their homes east of town.

Shirt Special

One lot Men's Dress Shirts, plain and pleated bosoms, each

45c

Men's Negligee Shirts all sizes, each

95c

Athena Department Store

For Lower Prices, Phone 152
5 per cent Discount for Cash.

Complete Line
Prices $2
and up

Let us do all your Developing

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Model Cleaners

and Dyers
Pendleton, Oregon

We Clean and Dye everything that is Cleanable or Dyeable. Suits made to order. Give your bundle to the Troy Laundry driver.

High School Notes
A large number of rooters accompanied the baseball team of Athena high on their trip to Milton this afternoon where they played the Milton team.
Last evening, the Junior class were delightful hosts and hostesses to the members of the Senior class and faculty at a beautifully appointed banquet at seven o'clock. The domestic science room was gracefully decorated with bluebirds. Blue and pink candles adorned the table while pink Ceil Brunner roses and blue forget-me-nots were arranged prettily. The favors carried out the same color scheme. The six course dinner prepared by the mothers of the Junior class was served by six Freshmen and Sophomore girls.
Velton Read will go to Pendleton Friday night to compete in the county oratorical contest to be held in that city. He has won in the sectional district previous to this.
Lois Johnson and Jennamae Read of the seventh grade have completed reading the required number of books and have received their certificate.
The eighth grade pupils had a wicker roast on Wild Horse Creek Tuesday evening. Miss Gries and Miss Williams chaperoned the party.
Mr. and Mrs. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Basler, Miss Drake, Mrs. Belt and daughter, Emma were dinner guests Saturday evening at the A. R. Coppock home.
At the request of Mr. Green the Clown dance supervised by Miss Christensen and the Sunshine Fairies directed by Mrs. Rex Hopper will dance at the county oratorical contest which will be held in Pendleton tonight.
Miss Mildred Winship popular member of the Athena high school alumni visited the school, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Hadley and son were dinner guests at the home of Miss Blanche Drake, Monday.
The Seniors chose last Tuesday for their annual picnic and left at 8:30 for the power plant on the Walla Walla river. The day was spent in fishing and tho' not many fish were caught, a good time was had by all.

Service

At This Store

SERVE OUR
TEAS AND COFFEES.
THEY ARE
DELICIOUS
AND FRAGRANT.
TRY THEM TODAY

We know how to get the best Blends, how to keep them so they will hold their strength and fragrance. When you drink our teas and coffees you will find them delicious. All teas and coffees are not of the same quality, but all ours are—and that quality is No. 1.

THE PURE FOOD GROCERY

Quality Quantity, Service.

Phone 171.

Athena, Oregon

THE STANDARD THEATRE

Saturday, May 6th

Hoot Gibson

In

Headin' West

A fine, Pleasing Young Actor in a clean Western Photoplay, with plenty of zip and pep.

International News

Colored "Custard Nine."

10c-25c-35c tax included

Sunday May 7th

Wm. S. Hart

Coming in

The

"Whistle"

A Paramount Picture

The great screen favorite has a splendid role in this
Thrilling Picture

Pathe Review.

Admission, 10c-25c-35c, Tax Paid

Rollin Comedy

Watch for

"The Mistress of the World"

A Fine Picture and Will be Exhibited at Regular Admission Prices