"Over The Hill"

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross and children left Saturday for their ranch home, where they will remain during the summer vacation.

Mrs. George Proebstel is in Enterprise, Oregon, called there by the serious illness of her daughter, Dorothy, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Webb are being showered with congratulations upon the birth of a seven and one-half pound daughter, who arrived Monday, May 22d. The little maid has been christened Elizabeth.

Mrs. George Nesbit and daughters, Gladys and Georgia, are enjoying a vacation visit in La Grande with Miss Goldie Nesbit.

The W. L. Rayborn family returned Saturday to their Weston mountain ranch, where they will remain during the summer months.

Seventeen of the 21 members of the eighth grade class of the Weston schools, of which Mrs. C. L. Pinkerton has had charge during the past year, were successful in passing the recent county examination. Two of the others failed in only one subject, and are confident of making passing grades in this for the June examination.

tion. The remaining two had not made up their seventh grade work in certain subjects. The showing is regarded as a creditable one and as comparing favorably with that of other districts.

The Builders' class of the M. E. Sunday school, which is composed of boys, was taken to Bingham Springs Wednesday for an outing by Geo. W. Winn. There were a dozen joyous juveniles in the party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blomgren of Walla Walla and Mr. R. G. Blomgren were dinner guests Sunday at the Joe Blomgren farm residence on Pine creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Compton are preparing to leave soon for Portland to reside permanently, having purchased a home in the metropolis.

Two young men from Seattle, lithe and active in appearance and with the upright bearing of former soldiers, were in town Saturday with their knapsacks on their backs. On the first leg of a tremendous hike, their packs bore the inscription, "15,000 Miles Around the Rim of the U. S. on Foot."

Mayor and Mrs. Nelson H. Jones, Nard and Audrey Jones, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Pinkerton, left Sunday for Portland whither Mr. Jones was called by his mother's illness. The start from Weston was made at four o'clock Sunday morning in the mayor's Maxwell, and a card from Portland announced the arrival of the party there at three-thirty o'clock the same afternoon.

J. H. McGibbon and family are moving this week to Grange City Junction, Wash., where Mr. McGibbon is stationed as O-W. section foreman. They chartered a car for their household goods.

Romeo Hubbs, who has been elected to his third year as teacher of the Dry Creek school, has his work cut out for him for vacation. He is painting the school building and the teacher's residence, both outside and in. Mr. Hubbs has entered upon the task with an enthusiasm pleasing to the directors.

Henry York, former Westonia, has been compelled to sue Joe Lawson at Freewater for title to certain lots which the plaintiff had improved with buildings with the understanding that the defendant would grant him a conveyance for a sum verbally agreed upon. It is alleged that Lawson refused to make his word good by giving a deed, after the lots had gone up in price.

J. E. Jones was over from Athena Monday telling former Weston neighbors that a bear knows more than he does. "Bruin has sense enough to stay in out of the mountain rain and hail," says Jim, "and Ike Davidson and I displayed no such intelligence."

This confession resulted from a Sunday hunt on the breaks of Couze creek, whereby the nimrods got an awful soaking in a mountain storm. They saw lots of sign but no bear, the latter having sought cover.

The estate of the late W. R. Mayberry was appraised at $1325.66 Tuesday by J. N. York, John Beamer and E. M. Smith. Money and residence property which the deceased had given to his wife prior to his demise, are not included in the appraisal. Leslie Mayberry has been appointed administrator.

Lovers of the national game in the Dry creek neighborhood have fixed up a good ball ground near the school house, which was the scene last Sunday of a stout battle between the Dry Creek and East Side nines. The latter won, 14 to 8. Next Sunday the Dry creekers will meet a team of business men from Milton on the same grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Still left Monday for Baker, Or., where Mr. Still has the sales agency for Franklin automobiles. For the past five years he has had charge of the farm of his uncle, Robert Still, on Dry creek.

Miss Mildred Hodgen, teacher in the Weston schools, left Tuesday for La Grande, from which city she goes to her home at Portland for vacation. Miss Hodgen will attend summer school at Monmouth. She comes back to Weston for the next school year. Miss Gladys Smith arrived from Portland Monday for a fortnight's vacation visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

Among the Weston people who went to Pendleton Tuesday to attend the big Artisan gathering were N. H. Nelson, Mrs. S. S. Nelson, Mrs. W. S. Price, Mrs. Letha King, E. M. Smith, Rulon Smith and Mrs. F. C. Wood. They report a very enjoyable occasion and elaborate banquet. The work was exemplified by a drill team from The Dulles.

Mrs. Cora Worthington and Mrs. Ida Coffin and little grandson arrived Sunday from Portland for a visit with their mother, Mrs. L. E. Saling, and sister, Mrs. C. F. Hulfinch. Mrs. Coffin will remain for quite an extended stay.

Mrs. F. C. Wood was entertained at dinner Sunday by her sister, Mrs. Abbie Mays, in Pendleton. Other guests for a very pleasant occasion were Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis, Mrs. M. J. Marsh, Mrs. Eva E. Hartman and Mrs. G. A. Hartman.

Mrs. Inez Compton of Antelope, Oregon, arrived Monday for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Will Payne, and will remain until after the pioneers' reunion.

After nearly three years of study Rulon E. Smith, bookkeeper of The Farmers' Bank of Weston, has completed the course in the American Institute of Banking section of the American Banking Association. He has received a certificate of graduation in "the theory and practice of banking and such principles of law and economics as pertain to the banking business."

The third rank was conferred Wednesday evening by the local lodge of Pythians upon Walter Webb. Large delegations were present from Athena and Adams. Enthusiastic approval was expressed of the forthcoming Fourth of July celebration to be held by Umatilla county Pythians at Athena, and a committee was appointed to co-operate with Athena brethren.

Miss Esther Husbands, member of Weston High school faculty, and Mr. Wilbur Fuson, one of Weston's well known and popular young men, were united in marriage Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents in Hood River, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Fuson are expected to return from their honeymoon in a few days, and will make their home in this community.

Carl C. Nelson, who has charge of the O-W. section at Pomeroy, Wash., was in town yesterday, visiting relatives and friends, while on a trip to Portland.

Miss Zilla Simpson was a guest yesterday of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price. Miss Simpson has just returned from New York and other eastern cities, where she filled a number of successful singing engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Street, Will Payne and E. T. Wicker left this morning by auto for a visit with relatives and friends at Washtucna.

A daughter was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Read, former Weston residents, at their home in Pendleton.

W. W. Patterson, who has been a member of the high school faculty and athletic director during the past year, left Friday for Portland.

J. H. Gordon, former resident of Weston and late of Yakima, was in town Monday on his way east to visit a daughter who resides in Indiana. R. L. Reynaud and family are moving into the residence on Water street vacated by the J. H. McGibbons.

F. G. Lucas made a trip of 160 miles to Morrow county and back yesterday, and missed a client whom he went to see and who came to Weston to see him. Mr. Lucas says that crops are looking good in the light land districts wherever the ground has been well tilled. There is as yet no apparent lack of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould and granddaughter, Betty Pearl Gould, motored to Holdman Saturday for a brief visit with the Ed Tucker household.

in Internal Medicine for the past eleven years.

DOES NOT OPERATE

Will be at

St. George Hotel

Thursday June 1st

ONE DAY ONLY

No Charge for Consultation

Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He visits professionally the more important towns and cities and offers to all who call on this trip free consultation, except the expense of treatment when desired.

According to his method of treatment he does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of stomach, tonsils or adenoids.

He has to his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidney, bladder, bed wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments.

If you have been ailing for any length of time and do not get any better, do not fail to call, as improper measures rather than disease are very often the cause of your long standing trouble.

Remember above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different.

Married women must be accompanied by their husbands.
