"Over The Hill"

J. A. Lumsden, prominent Weston farmer and business man who has been confined to his home with illness for the past two weeks, is reported to be improving. Dr. McKinney is in attendance.

Twenty or more residents of Reed and Hawley mountain have been putting in their time for the past two weeks in clearing the right of way for the new Pine creek road for a distance of over 4000 feet. This is donation work, and more of it will be done later by subscribers at the Weston end of the road, to make ready for county operations.

A piscatorial party consisting of J. H. Price, Marvin Price, Sim Culley, Otis Adams and Jess Powls spent Sunday on the Walla Walla river. They found more than enough water to fish in, but no fish.

John Banister has "pulled" an innovation by planting the park in front of his residence to alfalfa. "Why not?" he asks. "It's green, and stays green." Neighbors who are laughing at John on the theory that he mistook alfalfa for clover seed are herewith advised that he knew absolutely what he was about. He says so himself.

Herman Staggs, Pody Duncan and Luther Shellenberger came down Sunday from the Staggs ranch near Washtucna, and report good crop prospects in that district. Luther is still on crutches, having sustained a broken ankle in a ranch accident.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shick were in town Saturday from Prescott on their way up the mountain to visit at the home of Henry Booher. "Rusty" Shick, who has been pitching for Prescott again this year, expects to be in Athena during the remainder of the baseball season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Warren gave a delightful dinner party at their home near Athena recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmel and Mrs. Margaret Rabb, who are leaving soon for Newton, Ohio. Other guests of the Warrens were Mrs. G. DeGraw, Mrs. I. E. Saling, Mrs. Lilla Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. George Lattin.

Motoring trips and picnic parties have come into great popularity with the advent of summer weather, and many excursions are being made to favorite woodland nooks when opportunity affords. Among those seeking a restful outing Sunday along the Walla Walla river were: Mr. and Mrs. Newton O'Harra, Mr. and Mrs. M. Walter Pedersen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert O'Harra and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Proebstel. A bountiful dinner spread in refreshing shade on the banks of the stream was a feature contributing much pleasure to a delightful day. Newton O'Harra surprised and delighted his associates by luring from its cool retreat a 25-inch steelhead which was pronounced a delicacy fit for an epicure.

Miss Eva Anderson of Connell, Wash., visited friends and relatives in Weston Sunday, accompanying her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Maloney of Walla Walla. Miss Anderson has been attending her brother, Frank, who is convalescing in a Walla Walla hospital after a serious operation.

Mayor Jones and family and Mrs. Charles Pinkerton returned Sunday from their motor trip to Portland. They took two days for the return journey, stopping at The Dalles. Mr. Jones reported the roads excellent, but remarked that the metropolis is rather quiet just now.

Since getting his coveted sheepskin from Weston High, Leonard (Snipper) Snider has been devoting his time to the ancient and honorable pursuit of agriculture. He has planted twenty acres to spuds on ground leased from Sidney Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Winn are being congratulated by their many friends and acquaintances upon the arrival of a six and one-half pound son, at St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla, Sunday, May 28.

24 Years Ago

Tharp Bros. are engaged at present in constructing a furnace to heat wagon tires in. The furnace is of brick, and is being built at the side of the shop.

Alex Finley is preparing to build a $3000 farm residence.

Miss Alma Kirk has the thanks of the Press force for a fine bouquet of roses.

The Walla Walla cavalry band left last night for San Francisco, via Portland.

Miss Celia Vaughn and Miss Anna Harden were in Pendleton Wednesday visiting friends.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodgson, May 30, 1898, a girl. Cigars for the Press force, Joe.

Gus Volmer is in town from his farm near Helix. Recent rains have assured good crops from spring sowing.

Mrs. Joseph Stene died Wednesday of consumption, at her home on the reservation. The funeral occurred today in Athena.

A lodge of Knights of Pythias has been organized at Elgin. R. C. Mays is chancellor commander. There are 29 charter members.

Strawberry pickers are scarce at Hood River and other places in Oregon. Many berries will rot on the vines in consequence.

Marshal Carden made his first arrest Wednesday. His victim was Unamuck, the Indian who broke jail under Marshal Gillis' administration. The Indian was liberated soon after arrest.

A heavy wind and rain storm passed over Athena Tuesday night. Farmers have about come to the conclusion that enough rain has fallen to do them some time, and are now willing for the weather bureau to let up.

The Athena mill is grinding away on flour for the China trade. The mill runs steady all day and until midnight. The reputation of the Athena mill as a producer of good flour, is second to none in the Inland Empire.

James Britten started up his candy cruiser Saturday morning. He has a very neat and attractive little store, and will keep a first class stock of confections. He has a fine marble soda fountain to supply his customers with cool and refreshing drinks.

Horace Walker was in town Wednesday from Helix. He reports farmers thriving and prospering in that part of the country. Many new houses and barns are being built, and land is selling at a good figure. Recently a half section of wheat land brought the sum of $7500 spot cash.

the Christian Churches of Umatilla county will hold an institute at the Athena Christian Church on Monday, June 5. After the morning session church will be served in the dining room. Don't forget that you are cordially invited to attend.

F. E. Russell, pastor.

Haying Time Suggestions

Haying time will soon be with us and we suggest that you come in and look over our stock of cutting machinery. In mowers we carry the two "Old Reliables," "McCormick" and "Deering." These two machines have been the standard for years in this section and each year sees a further gain in their popularity. At all times we carry a complete line of repairs for the Deering and McCormick mowers—genuine I. H. C. Repairs.

If you need a mower, buy now. Also, now is the proper time to get your repairs for that old machine.
